NEW ATTACK ON PHILIPPINES

Rubber Exports End; Building Eased.

BY JOHN FISHER.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—New steps regulating use of raw materials declared needed for war production were taken today. Others were in preparation. Among those announced were:

1. Production of automobiles and light trucks was reduced 60 to 75 per cent compared with a year ago, deepening cuts previously ordered.

2. All exports of tires, tubes, and crude and crêpe rubber, except to American armed forces and under lend-lease provisions, were banned until further notice, and spare tires were ordered eliminated from automobiles and light trucks coming off assembly lines.

3. Materials for completion of privately financed dwellings with foundations in place Oct. 9, a total of about 70,000, will be made available soon.

Confiscation Expected.

Within the next few days orders are expected to be issued for confiscation of excess inventories of materials such as tin, rubber, and tungsten, and seizure of imports needed for war production. The Supply Priorities and Allocations board will meet tomorrow to consider materials imported from the far east and means of conserving them.

The new cuts in automobile production were ordered by Civilian Supply Director Leon Henderson. An earlier order for a cut of 48.4 per cent in the December production, as compared with the same month a year ago, was increased to 60 per cent. A previous cut of 51 per cent for next January, as compared with last January, was increased to 75 per cent. The cut of 56.1 per cent ordered for next February will be reconsidered and increased. The reduction for this month will become effective next Monday.

Industry, Labor Coöperate.

In announcing the new schedule, Henderson said the program has received the "wholehearted approval and coöperation of the industry and labor." He added that representatives of management and labor in the industry will work out the most effective methods of making the reductions.

Henderson also asserted that there is no guarantee that sufficient material will be available to permit manufacturers to achieve the maximum production permitted.

The rubber campaign was a threefold movement in which the Office of Export Control banned exports of rubber materials, the Office of Production Management prohibited the addition of spare tires on new cars, and Henderson issued an appeal to the public to conserve the war threatened supply.

Tires to Be Rationed.

Henderson said a rationing plan for equitable distribution of tires and tubes is under development and will be announced within a few days. He asked coöperation in enforcing the temporary ban announced last night.

The only alleviating order of the day was the announcement by Henderson that the government soon would make available materials for dwellings now under construction. Construction of many of the homes affected by the order was delayed by priorities.

Meanwhile, from the American Iron and Steel institute come the encouraging report that the United States and her allies can produce twice as much steel, basic material for war production, as the axis countries.

By the close of this year, the institute said, the United States will have a production capacity of 88 million net tons per year, compared with 60,600,000 tons for Germany, Japan, and continental European nations under Hitler domination.

THE JOB AHEAD

But thousands of volunteer givers will be necessary to send Christmas presents to all the men of Illinois' own 33d division at Camp Forrest, Tenn., who cannot come home for Christmas. Because of the war, the number of furloughs to be granted the division for Christmas trips home was cut in half yesterday.

May Cancel All Furloughs.

Original plans were for half the men to come home. The new order means that 11,625 are certain to remain in camp or on guard duty against sabotage, and it is possible that all furloughs may be canceled before the holidays, requiring 15,500 men to spend their Christmas far from home.

THE TRIBUNE had received more than 1,300 applications for membership in the campaign last night. And these represented more than 1,300 gifts, for many of the volunteer givers said they would send presents to more than one soldier. One application promised presents for 17 soldiers.

Adopting a Yank for Christmas is easy. An application blank will be found on page 7. Print your name and address on it and mail it to the "Adopt a Yank for Christmas!" department, CHICAGO TRIBUNE, Chicago. THE TRIBUNE will mail you the name of your adopted Yank. You send him a present with your name and address so that he can thank you.

Asks for Irish Soldier.

One girl wrote yesterday: "I am Irish. Will you send me the name of an Irish soldier?" [She'll get a Shaughnessey or an O'Reilly.]

Private [1st class] Richard Tarpey, from Hazelcrest—I'll be here Christmas day. I've never been away from home before on Christmas. I hope whoever adopts me writes a letter.

Private John Barnes, from Glasford, Peoria county—Tell the person who sends me a gift not to forget her name and address, especially if she's a right pretty girl.

'WE'LL DO OUR BEST,' U. S. FAR EAST CHIEF CABLES ROOSEVELT

This was the reply today of Lieut. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, commander of the United States far eastern forces, to a message of congratulation from President Roosevelt for his efforts in the defense of the Philippines.

The defender of the Philippines cabled the President: "The far eastern command appreciates deeply your message. We shall do our best."

[President Roosevelt's message was dispatched Thursday.]

Hard Blows Promised.

HONOLULU, T. H., Dec. 11 (AP).—"We Americans can receive hard blows, but can deliver harder ones," Adm. Husband E. Kimmel, commander-in-chief of the Pacific fleet, and Rear Adm. Claude C. Bloch, commandant of the 14th naval district, said in a joint statement today.

"In these days when we face the task that lies ahead with calm determination and unflinching resolve it is truly great to be an American. Victory for us is assured.

"Never have we been so proud as when we saw Sunday's magnificent response to the call of duty by civilian employés of the government and officers and men of the navy, marine corps, and army."

Britain May Expel Hirohito from Order of the Garter

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The emperor of Japan, Hirohito, it was reported tonight, soon may be "expelled" from the Order of the Garter, senior order of British knighthood.

Russia Rejects 'Peace Feelers' Made by Nazis

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, Dec. 11 (AP).—A Russian peace with Germany would be made only in agreement with Great Britain and the United States, soviet officials declared tonight in announcing that Germany had put out peace feelers to the soviet union.

The official communist party newspaper Pravda said of the situation:

"The Hitler gang is ready any day to sign a peace with Russia if only our government would talk with them."

One Primary Condition.

David Zaslavsky, Pravda's chief editorial writer, said, however, that a prerequisite of peace was liquidation of the "Hitler criminals."

"The Hitler gang dreams of peace with us," Zaslavsky said, "because the whole of Germany longs for a cessation of the war, foreseeing catastrophe. Hitler promised the Germans victory and deceived them. Now he promises peace, and he also is deceiving them."

Peace with Germany, this writer said, will come only after the German people banish Hitler and his followers, and added:

"But this peace will be only by agreement with Great Britain and the United States."

American Chargé Confers.

Meanwhile American Chargé d'Affaires Walter Thurston informed the soviet vice commissar for foreign affairs, S. A. Lozovsky, that the United States was at war with Japan. The formal message from Washington, D. C., was received by Thurston at 1:30 a. m. today, altho it was sent on Dec. 8.

[This dispatch was filed before the United States was at war with Germany and Italy.]

SAYS U. S., REDS IN ACCORD

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—After a series of White House and state department conferences, Maxim Litvinov, soviet ambassador, tonight announced that the United States and Russia had reached "full understanding on their common struggle."

He dodged all efforts of question-

CHINESE PRESS HUGE DRIVE TO HELP HONGKONG

15,000 Casualties in Kwangtung Bared.

CHUNGKING, China, Dec. 12 [Friday] (AP).—Chinese troops attacking all along the Kwangtung front to relieve pressure on Hongkong have inflicted 15,000 casualties on the Japanese in a continuing two day offensive, the China radio announced today.

[British headquarters at Singapore said Hongkong defenders were "holding out firmly" and that Japanese siege troops were being "trapped between impregnable forces" as large Chinese units closed in on them from the rear and left flank.]

The central sector of the front was in the Shiuchow area about 130 miles north of Canton.

Chinese leaders also are planning to dispatch Chinese troops south to the Burma road area, it was learned.

Withdrawing from Hankow.

Approximately 1,000,000 Japanese soldiers still are in China, and about 400 Japanese planes are based on Hainan Island 200 miles southwest of Canton, the radio said.

But Japanese troops were reported here as withdrawing from Hankow, on the Yangtze river, and from Manchukuo, possibly to reënforce operations against the Malay peninsula and the Philippines.

GUARD MALAYA COAST

SINGAPORE, Dec. 11 (AP).—British planes kept close watch today off the coast of Malaya for further Japanese transport movements, while big bombers blasted at the foothold Japanese landing forces gained in the sweltering jungle to the north.

[Additional Japanese forces have landed in central and northern Malaya, supported by heavy tanks, the British radio said last night, quoting Chungking sources.]

A communique declared that British defenses there were holding and that "there are no reports of further attempts to land in the Kuantan area, nor were any enemy ships seen in that direction by air reconnaissance."

It also reported fighting in Kedah, northernmost Malay state, near the Thailand [Siam] border.

The war bulletin acknowledged that Japanese bombers had hit heavily at British air fields in northern Malaya and said some of these were made temporarily unserviceable. Penang, off the west coast, was bombed heavily also.

Eleven Executed in Brest as Terrorists and Spies

VICHY, France, Dec. 11.—Eleven men accused of being terrorists, "Free French" followers or spies were executed yesterday at Brest, according to an official notice issued in Paris today.

MAPS IN COLOR

Hear Invaders Seek Foothold in South Luzon

MANILA, Dec. 12 [Friday] (AP).—The Japanese have improved their strength in northern Luzon Island, but "the situation in the Philippines remains unchanged materially," the United States army declared in a communique today.

The army said it had received an unconfirmed report that a small Japanese force had landed at Legaspi, a port city of 53,000 population on the Albay gulf on the southeastern coast of Luzon, the main island of the Philippines. Legaspi is 250 miles southeast of Manila.

[The Tokio radio said the Japanese army and navy announced jointly that Japanese troops had landed in southern Luzon. The announcement said that with this operation Japanese forces now are able to begin a pincer attack from North and South Luzon. An earlier announcement claimed that 200 American warplanes had been destroyed, including 78 shot down, since the war began. It acknowledged the loss of nine naval planes. Domei (Japanese news agency) said that Japanese denied the battleship Haruna had been sunk off northern Luzon. (The war department in Washington, D. C., announced the sinking of a battleship "believed to be the 29,000 ton Haruna or a vessel of the Haruna class.") It asserted the Americans apparently mistook for the Haruna a Japanese light cruiser which, it said, imperial headquarters admitted was damaged.]

The situation which was declared materially unchanged overnight found the American defenders of the Philippines apparently having smashed every Japanese effort to set invading forces firmly ashore, save possibly for one new thrust by parachutists and that at Legaspi.

The Army Communique.

The communique said:

"The enemy has improved his strength in northern Luzon. However, the situation remains unchanged materially. A small force is reported to have pushed ashore at Legaspi, but hitherto the report has not been confirmed and further details are lacking."

Manila was under air raid alarm for 1 hour and 40 minutes early this morning—from 3:50 to 5:30 a. m.—but no raiders were reported.

At Aparri, on the northern tip of Luzon Island, where one of the strongest invasion attempts was made, unofficial but reliable reports last night said the Japanese were being driven back to the seacoast and the region around the port was again in American hands.

Mopping Up Continues.

Yesterday's exception to the American successes was an airport six miles from Ilagan, about 185 miles northeast of Manila, which was said to have been seized by aerial invaders. Units of the Philippine constabulary were organizing to quell the chutists.

At all other points, an army spokesman announced shortly before the chutists' reported descent, "the situation is completely in hand," and "mopping up operations are proceeding" to dispose of the invaders.

The Japanese tried to land at Aparri on the squared off northern coast; on the west, from the China sea at several points ranging as far south as Lingayen, only 110 miles northwest of Manila; and then, by air, on Luzon's east coast facing the Pacific.

Ilagan, a short distance inland, is in Isabela province, about 70 miles south of the port of Aparri.

Repulsed by Philippine Regiment.

The Lingayen incursion was the last reported attempt by the Japanese at an invasion from the sea, and the spokesman said it was weak and had been repulsed by the Philippine army.

Two other battles are being waged in the islands, an internal struggle to secure the Philippines against fifth columnists and a battle to ward off destructive enemy air raids.

Authorities in all parts of the commonwealth rounded up suspects, among whom were several followers of Benigno Ramos, instigator of the Sakdalista uprising of 1935 and for years an exile in Japan.

Between nine and 15 Japanese bombers were said to have been shot down and four American planes lost in Wednesday's air battles above Manila and Cavite naval base.

PLANES OF U. S. NAVY DAMAGE CRAFT HEAVILY

Sink Destroyer and Cruiser at Wake.

BY WILLARD EDWARDS.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—The war news from the far east took on a more cheerful tinge today. The navy announced a 29,000 ton Japanese battleship was badly damaged by navy patrol bombers after the army earlier had confirmed the sinking of a 29,000 ton battleship by army planes. Both actions took place off Luzon, the main Philippine island.

The navy further announced the sinking of a Japanese light cruiser and a destroyer by air forces at Wake Island in mid-Pacific and said the garrison at Wake has withstood five separate attacks in the last 48 hours by enemy aircraft and light naval units. The attack is continuing, the navy noted.

[A British broadcast heard in America said Japanese headquarters had admitted a submarine chaser was lost during landing operations north of Luzon Island in the Philippines.]

Warship of Kongo Class.

The navy department's communique last night announced:

"Adm. Thomas C. Hart, commander in chief of the Asiatic fleet, has reported that navy patrol planes scored bomb hits on a Japanese battleship of the Kongo class off the coast of Luzon. The ship was badly damaged. This is the second Japanese battleship to be bombed effectively by United States forces."

Lieut. Gen. Douglas MacArthur, army commander of the Philippine Islands, confirmed the sinking of a 29,000 ton battleship on Wednesday by the army air forces north of Luzon. He said "this battleship is believed to be the 29,000 ton Haruna or a vessel of the same class."

This would put both warships in the Kongo class, a group of four vessels, all old ships built before the World war. They were rebuilt during the period of 1926-'30. The class carried eight 14 inch guns, sixteen 6 inch guns, eight 5 inch anti-aircraft guns, and four submerged torpedo tubes.

Stimson Makes Announcement.

Secretary of War Henry L. Stimson made public Gen. MacArthur's announcement of the Haruna sinking and also told of the action at Wake Island.

Wake Island in mid-Pacific had been thought hopelessly lost to the Japanese. President Roosevelt on Tuesday night warned that the nation must be prepared for the announcement that Wake, Midway, and Guam Islands all had been seized. The news, therefore, that the marine forces at Wake Island were still battling valiantly and causing heavy losses among the attacking fleet was the more encouraging.

The communique telling of the action at Wake said:

"The marine garrison on Wake Island has been subject to four separate attacks in the last 48 hours by enemy aircraft and one by light naval units. Despite the loss of part of the defending planes and the damage to material and personnel, the defending garrison succeeded in sinking one light cruiser and one destroyer of the enemy forces by air action.

"A resumption of the attack and probable landing attempt are expected. The marine garrison is continuing to resist."

Tell of Successful Defense.

The war department's communique, issued tonight, stated that Japanese planes had subjected military and naval installations in the Philippines to occasional bombing thruout the day. The statement added that "there is reason to believe" that the defense of the island of Luzon against attempted landing operations in the north and northwest is continuing successfully. The military situation

ADVERTISE IN THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE

MORE TRAINING, MORE WEAPONS, ARE ARMY NEED

Most Troops Not Ready to Go Into Action.

(Capt. Corpening, The Tribune's military expert, recently returned from an extensive tour of army posts, schools, and large scale maneuvers in the Carolinas. Herewith he describes the present status.)

BY CAPT. M. M. CORPENING.

The United States army falls short of being a fighting force of high efficiency for three reasons: an insufficiency of developed leadership, lack of trained instructors and shortages of equipment.

When the government declared a national emergency and began conscripting 1,500,000 men, our regular army was, man for man and gun for gun, equal to any in the world. There was some dead timber in the commissioned ranks but not enough to be glaring. The National Guard and officers reserve corps had many able men, altho from a military viewpoint their training was deficient.

Overnight expansion of a small, compact army to one of gigantic proportions presented a problem of considerable magnitude. The few regular officers faced the difficult task of developing a massive fighting force in a few months, with few instructors, with housing only partly completed and equipment largely lacking.

They Tackle the Job.

These officers tackled the job as best they could. They organized the men into units, filled the commissioned and noncommissioned vacancies with promising if inexperienced men and put them to work—acquiring military training from the top down.

Our greatest bottleneck has been the lack of trained junior officers. The army's service schools have inaugurated mass production methods, grinding out commissioned officers in 13 weeks. This may mean a repetition of the high casualty lists in the World war when officers were turned out by training camps in 90 days. The advent of mechanization and motorization adds that much more for officers to learn.

The recent Carolina maneuvers gave army commanders a great opportunity to spot and weed out in the field officers who showed they were not qualified.

Success in modern battles is built around dive bombers, tanks and motorized infantry—all fighting as a team. The maneuvers indicated that this desired objective has not been reached satisfactorily. Ground-air liaison is weak and former methods of infantry-artillery liaison proved outmoded.

Equipment Shortage Serious.

One of the factors involved in the backwardness of training and a lack of enthusiasm on the part of many troops for the army is the shortage of weapons.

Officers point out that men cannot be expected to carry a wooden stake with a sign on it proclaiming it a machine gun with the same enthusiasm as a real gun would bring.

These conditions, of course, all are being rectified. Since training, discipline, and superior equipment combine to cut casualties in action, the army has a vital problem in its efforts to reach efficiency before being required to go into action.

CHIEF OF BRITAIN'S FAR EAST FLEET MISSING IN BATTLE; PICK NEW ONE

SINGAPORE, Dec. 11 (AP). — Vice Adm. Sir Geoffrey Layton, 57 years old, naval commander since 1940 of the British China station which includes defenses from Ceylon to the Bering straits, took temporary command of Britain's far east battle fleet tonight in the place of Adm. Sir Tom Phillips, who is among 595 officers and men still missing from the sinking of the battleship Prince of Wales and the battle cruiser Repulse. The Prince of Wales' commander, Capt. John Leach, also is missing.

Vice Adm. Sir Geoffrey Layton.

Weary and many of them wounded, some 130 officers and 2,200 men saved from the China sea reached this powerful British bastion after destroyers and other fleet units had worked at the rescue all last night. Among the survivors were Fleet Capt. L. H. Bell and Capt. W. G. Tennant of the Repulse.

RADIO SENDING SET SEIZED NEAR HARBOR DEFENSE

Boston, Mass., Dec. 11 (AP).—A radio transmitting set, located only half a mile from the command post of the Boston harbor defenses, and a large store of firearms were seized tonight as police and federal agents arrested an alien and a naturalized citizen who had been under surveillance.

BRITON DECLARES NEW BREAKUP FACES RUMANIA

ISTANBUL, Turkey, Dec. 10 [Delayed] (AP).—A well informed Briton said today a forthcoming visit of Joachim von Ribbentrop, German foreign minister, to Hungary, Rumania, and Bulgaria would result in further dismemberment of Rumania and establishment of a big autonomous German state within the new Hungarian borders.

He said Rumania was regarded by the Germans as of no more use for war purposes, and would be asked to cede southern Transylvania and part of Banat province to Hungary, with Bulgaria receiving another part of the Banat.

Then Hungary and Bulgaria would be called upon to take a bigger part in the war against Russia, possibly in a springtime push in the south.

FIVE CHICAGOANS ON BERLIN, ROME EMBASSY STAFFS

Five men from the Chicago area were listed by the state department in Washington yesterday as members of the embassy staffs in Berlin and Rome. The embassy staff members will be exchanged for German and Italian embassy officers in this country.

Those attached to the staff in Berlin are Philip N. Tucker and Carl Birkleand of Chicago, Tabor Divekey of Aurora, and Roy O. Barlag of La Porte, Ind. Douglas Flood of 133 Kenilworth avenue, Kenilworth, is serving as third secretary of the embassy at Rome.

The state department said that negotiations for the exchange will be concluded as soon as possible.

in other Pacific areas was reported "unchanged."

The earlier communique by the war department said:

"Continued attempts by strong Japanese forces to establish themselves along the northern coast of Luzon were reported. Determined resistance has confined this action to the vicinity of Aparri, at the extreme northern tip of Luzon, where the Japanese attempted to establish a beachhead yesterday. Air activity continued in the vicinity of Manila, with intermittent attacks on air fields at Cavite and Nichols field thruout the day."

Familiar with the Territory.

Stimson said he had become familiar with the territory where the Japanese attempted to establish themselves when he was governor general of the Philippines.

"I know almost every foot of the vicinity of Aparri," he said. "It is a small landing place on the northern tip of the Island of Luzon and is practically shut off by the large mountain area of the mountain province on its south. If the Japanese try to transport an army thru that mountain province it will be a slow job for them."

Stimson admitted a "heavy loss of planes" in the Japanese attack last Sunday on Hawaii, but added that this loss was being made good at the present moment. He disclosed that a group of army bombers being ferried to Hawaii landed in the midst of the Sunday fight. One was shot down, but all the others, he said, made successful landings. They were not equipped at that time to fight.

Commenting upon the successful landing, Stimson said:

"They were not fighting planes at the time but only traveling planes. The ability of their personnel to land in the midst of a hostile attack shows the ability of the American flying soldier to take pretty good care of himself and to keep his head."

U. S. PHYSICIANS READY FOR JOB, IN U.S. DEFENSE

The President will find the physicians of this nation ready and willing to meet any demands the country may place on them, the Journal of the American Medical association pledged in the leading editorial of the current issue.

The editorial stated that the medical profession since June of 1940 has been engaged in standardization of military medical procedures, military medical research, and enrollment of medical personnel.

"The organization has been made ready; the lines of communication are drawn; confusion need not prevail," the editorial concludes.

BY RUSSELL BRINES.

MANILA, Dec. 11 [Thursday] (AP).—A baptism of wartime dogfighting left Filipino pilots confident today. They encountered Japanese attack planes which strafed Zablan field near Manila during Wednesday afternoon's raids.

Young and spirited, they sat in a downtown restaurant lingering over their breakfast after almost continuous duty since Japanese machine gun bullets splattered Zablan where the Filipino air corps was born in 1935.

"They came at us fast while our planes were on the ground," said a youthful captain. "I saw three of them. I didn't look for any more because they were trying to reach my plane. I had to work my way slowly, taking advantage of every bit of cover as machine gun bullets were flying all over the place. Nobody was really hurt but a few of the boys got nicked in the arm."

He said the Japanese planes flew at about 50 feet altitude strafing the field, then climbed. The Filipino pilots followed.

Civilian reports said the captain was one of two Filipinos who shot down a Japanese plane during the dogfighting.

If Strange Lights Appear Tonight Just Remain Calm

If strange lights appear in the sky about 10 p. m. tonight they will be nothing to grow alarmed about. You have the word of Prof. Harold Bernard Ward of the Northwestern university geology department. They will be caused by the Gemini meteor shower, during which as many as 30 or so meteorites may streak across the sky each hour. Altho generally known as "shooting stars," Dr. Ward said they actually are small meteors.

MOVE TO DRIVE QUACK HEALERS OUT OF CHICAGO

11 Warrants Issued as Campaign Begins.

BY ORVILLE DWYER.

On the heels of an investigation by THE TRIBUNE, the state department of registration and education yesterday, on orders of Director Frank G. Thompson at Springfield, moved against Chicago's quack doctors. Warrants were issued against 11. Six were arrested and held in the county jail.

This newspaper found that quack healers are again operating in force, deceiving and frightening hundreds of Chicagoans every day, using dire stories of disease and strange electrical devices to obtain a steady stream of golden fees from the gullible, the unwary, the mentally and physically sick.

List of Those Accused.

The warrants, taken out before the County court with the coöperation of the state's attorney's office, charged in some cases practicing medicine without license, in others violations of the Illinois medical practice act. Here is a list of those accused:

D. A. Hopfear, 5 South Wabash avenue, licensed as another practitioner [other than medicine, chiropractic or osteopathy], charged with violations of the state law.

O. C. Moe, 3138 Armitage avenue, practicing chiropractic without a license.

Hopfear, Moe, both Attenhausers, Wood, and Spencer were those seized last night.

Goetschel, Liss, Gordon, and Roberts were charged with practicing without licenses while still facing a similar charge of several months ago. Each was found doing a flourishing business based on pure buncombe and useless gadgets, according to the inspectors.

Attorneys to Be Notified.

First Assistant State's Attorney Wilbert F. Crowley said if these men were not handily available when deputies called to arrest them their attorneys in the previous cases will be told to bring them in.

Those on the list who hold bona fide M. D. or other licenses were to be notified by registered mail tonight that they must show cause why their licenses should not be revoked.

State inspectors said issuance of the warrants is only a beginning. In the department files at 600 South Michigan avenue are several hundred cases prepared recently after inspectors visited the charlatans' offices.

Scores of the quacks in and around Chicago are using the old Abrams "electronic" method of diagnosis and treatment, which had a vogue 20 years ago but which is now condemned not only by medical authorities but even by the federal trade commission.

Inspector Describes Machine.

State inspectors and Tribune reporters engaged in the investigation called the machines feasome contraptions. Said one inspector:

"They merely plug the machine into a wall socket. Then the patient sits beside it holding a disc or something, or they dangle a disc down your neck. As the 'doctor' works at the machine, he chatters, twirling a score or more of mysterious dials and knobs. The machine whirrs and hums, a plate the 'doc' rubs lets out strange squeaks and squeals. The big box lets out a faint, pungent odor, lights flash on and off."

Of these machines the bureau of investigation of the American Medical association says: "We consider such devices the crudest kind of quackery. They are more imposing than the left hind foot of a rabbit caught in a churchyard in the dark of the moon, but no more valuable."

Granted a Divorce

(Story in adjoining column.)

Mrs. Frances V. Strotz, who won divorce from NBC official yesterday.

Mrs. Helen Howell Barnes Pennington, who, it was reported yesterday, will be married to Sidney N. Strotz in the early future.

Divorces Official of NBC at Speedy Hearing.

Sidney N. Strotz, executive vice president of the National Broadcasting company, was divorced yesterday at a speedy hearing in the Lake county Circuit court at Waukegan, by Mrs. Frances V. Strotz, prominent in Chicago social circles.

The decree, signed by Judge Ralph J. Dady, shortly after the bill was filed, was granted on the ground of cruelty. Mrs. Strotz, who lives at 470 North King Muir road, Lake Forest, testified that she and their three children were provided for by an agreement out of court.

Under terms of this agreement, revealed by Strotz' attorney, William R. Behanna, Mrs. Strotz, the former Frances Vyse, will receive $1,200 a month, which represents half of her former husband's net income, less taxes. In the event of her remarriage, the amount will be reduced to one-sixth of his income.

Divide Expected Legacy.

Mrs. Strotz is also to receive half of her former husband's share—not less than $500,000—in the estate of his father, the late Charles Nicholas Strotz, vice president of the American Tobacco company. The elder Strotz left his widow, who is 79 years old, a life interest in the estate. Upon her death it is to be divided by their children, Sidney, Harold, and Miss Kay Strozzi, the actress.

In addition Mrs. Strotz is given their 20 room Lake Forest home, purchased two years ago for $68,000, and the furnishings, valued at $20,000, and three automobiles. Strotz has agreed to pay half of the expenses of their children, whose custody will be shared.

Daughter a Debutante.

The children are Shirley, 18 years old, now at Miss Finch's school in New York, who made her debut July 2 at a dinner dance at the Knollwood Country club; Charles N., 16, a student at St. John's Military academy, and Sandra, 14, a student at Rosemary hall, Greenwich, Conn.

A quick hearing of the bill was asked by Attorney Behanna and Sidney S. Gorham Jr., counsel for Mrs. Strotz. Mrs. Strotz testified that on June 29 he yanked her off a high stool, causing a serious injury, and on July 20, knocked her down and swore at her. The Strotzes were married Jan. 27, 1923, in a fashionable wedding, and separated Nov. 1, 1940.

Mr. Strotz, former president of the Chicago Stadium corporation, is expected to be married in the early future to Mrs. Helen Howell Barnes Pennington, daughter of Thomas M. Howell, multimillionaire grain trader. Mrs. Pennington is now in New York.

GLORIA, HEIRESS TO VANDERBILT FORTUNE, TO WED

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Mrs. Reginald C. Vanderbilt announced tonight the engagement of her daughter, Gloria Morgan Vanderbilt, 17 year old heiress to more than $4,000,000, to Pasquale Di Cicco, 32, motion picture executive, of Beverly Hills, Cal.

Mrs. Vanderbilt said that she and her daughter would return to Beverly Hills next week and that the marriage probably would take place there Christmas day.

Di Cicco was divorced in 1934 from Thelma Todd, film actress, who died a year later. His late father was a prosperous farmer of Queens, Long Island, and was known as the "broccoli king."

Miss Vanderbilt, the daughter of the late Reginald C. Vanderbilt who died in 1925, was the central figure in a celebrated custody suit between her mother and her father's sister, Mrs. Harry Payne Whitney, widow of the multimillionaire financier. The issue was settled when Gloria chose to live with her mother.

Street Cars, Buses, Taxis to Fly American Flags

American flags will fly on Chicago street cars, buses, and taxicabs, and they won't come off, officials of the companies announced yesterday. At the same time Police Commissioner Allman announced that flags will be flown every day over each of the city's police stations. The transportation companies will put their flags on by means of decalcomania transfer, so that neither wind nor weather will get them off.

NAVY OFFICIALS CONFER ON RADIO CENSOR 'LEAKS'

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—The navy department today announced that officials had discussed complaints that certain broadcasters are overstepping the censorship bounds set up for the press and radio. A spokesman expressed confidence that the situation will work itself out without recourse to punitive action.

Some confusion apparently exists concerning the nature of information which may be interpreted as giving aid and comfort to the enemy, the naval spokesman said, and a certain amount of lenience will be extended for a period. He was sure, he said, that after a few days the radio as well as the press will refrain from giving details which might violate provisions of the espionage act.

HOTEL ELEVATOR BURNS.

One elevator was destroyed and two others were damaged yesterday morning in a fire at the Webster hotel, 2150 Lincoln Park West. Damage amounted to $1,000.

British Bomb Shipping, 2 Airdromes in Holland

LONDON, Dec. 11.—The air ministry today reported British planes had successfully bombed a tanker at the mouth of the Ems river, a railway junction near Wilhelmshaven, two airdromes in Holland, and an enemy supply ship off Norway yesterday. No British planes were lost, it was said.

USE JAP GOODS, STOP HYSTERIA, ADMIRAL ADVISES

Kansas City, Mo., Dec. 11 (AP).—Rear Adm. Hayne Ellis, retired, director of civilian defense here, advised today against hysteria over Japanese goods in American possession.

"We do not want to follow Hitler in book burning," he commented. "To destroy articles of Japanese manufacture would not hurt Japan now. It would in fact help our enemies, for such articles would be replaced by our own factories and out of materials we need elsewhere."

PUZZLE OF THURSDAY, DEC. 11, SOLVED

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11—An icy reception was accorded axis diplomats who brought the news today that Germany and Italy had declared war against the United States.

Dr. Hans Thomsen, German chargé d'affaires, and Heribert von Stremple, first secretary, arrived at the state department at 7:15 a. m. [Chicago time.] They were told that Secretary of State Cordell Hull was engaged.

For a fidgety hour the two diplomats were made to cool their heels in an anteroom. Both preserved impassive faces while subjected to the diplomatic ice treatment.

Hull Unable to See Them.

At 8:25 they were told that Secretary Hull would be unable to see them, but they might call on Ray Atherton, former minister to Denmark now serving as chief of the division of European affairs.

They presented a copy of the communique announcing the declaration of war which had been handed to the American embassy in Berlin. They asked for safe conduct for the German embassy staff and announced that the Swiss minister would represent German interests in this country.

Atherton accepted the German communication and announcements and returned a bit of the sharp side of his tongue. He said the German action formalized what this country had been expecting. The Germans departed after a visit of but three minutes.

Same Treatment for Italian.

Later in the day similar treatment was accorded the Italian ambassador, Don Ascanio dei principi Colonna, a member of one of the proudest families of the Eternal City. Prince Colonna appeared at the state department with Signor Mario Conti, first secretary of the Italian embassy.

After 15 minutes of the silent treatment they were ushered in to be told that this country had "fully anticipated that Italy would obediently follow" the dictates of its Nazi masters.

Dr. Thomsen, once one of the best liked diplomats in the capital and considered by many to be the ablest, went into a strict retreat on the outbreak of the war. The German embassy had no titles and no social sparkle.

Quiet Outside Embassies.

Outside both embassies there was quiet as the diplomats packed to leave. Unlike 1917 when large crowds gathered to jeer and hiss German diplomats, the German embassy was bare of curious today.

Only a handful of reporters stood to watch the ashes of burning paper shift from the chimneys of the old fashioned, red brick German embassy on Massachusetts avenue.

At the Italian embassy on 16th street paper ashes were also in evidence. Prince Colonna ignored newspaper men and photographers when he returned from the state department. The embassy staff was jittery.

"It's a cold, wet day," said one attaché as he stood in the sunshine chatting with reporters.

Claim 80,000 Serbs Still Fight Axis Near Belgrade

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 11 (AP).—A Jugo-Slav army of 80,000 Serbs under Gen. Draja Mihailovitch "continues to hold its positions" south of Belgrade, despite heavy axis pressure, the Jugo-Slav command announced tonight. These Serbian troops, who took to the hills after the defeat last spring, were reported fighting seven axis divisions in the Morava river valley near Kragujevac and Knjazevac.

Message of War

Reported Slain in Hawaii, Soldier Is Alive and Well

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—The war department announced today that Private First Class Raymond C. Joyner, reported killed in action in Hawaii, is alive and well.

RUSSIA REJECTS 'PEACE FEELERS' PUT OUT BY NAZIS

Declares Germans First Must Oust Hitler Gang.

ers to pin him down on the exact nature of the assistance which Russia might give in the Pacific war, such as land operations against Japanese forces in Manchukuo and Outer Mongolia or bombing raids on Tokio from Russia's eastern Siberia.

Asked what he thought of a common alignment of all anti-axis forces, he said cryptically, "We shall see." Then he added, "Naturally we have a common cause and we are fighting Hitler more than anybody else."

He said there was no doubt whatever that Russia will continue to fight against Germany, as rumors were circulated in the capital that Stalin and Hitler might bury the hatchet. These rumors were branded as pipe dreams by capital sources.

Previous to a visit by Litvinov to the state department today Secretary Hull issued the following announcement:

"I am receiving the soviet ambassador [Maxim Litvinov] this afternoon for a general interchange of information. The Union of Soviet Socialist Republics has been waging an heroic struggle against the powerful attacks so treacherously made upon them by the common enemy of all free peoples in the world.

Refers to F. D. R.'s Remarks.

"In this connection I would remind every one of the remarks of the President of the United States when he received the newly arrived soviet ambassador on Dec. 8, 1941, which was also the date of our declaration of war with Japan. On this occasion the President gave assurances that it was the firm intention of the government of the United States to carry out its program of aid to the soviet union in the conduct of the struggle in which they are engaged.

"The events of the last few hours have reënforced this determination and we for our part have no doubt that the government and the people of the Union of Soviet Socialist Republics will do their full part in standing side by side with all liberty loving people against the common menace."

BLANKET OF BOMBERS FOR HEMISPHERE IS RICKENBACKER'S PLEA

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Capt. E. V. [Eddie] Rickenbacker, president of Eastern Airlines and leading American ace in the last World war, said today that the nation's prime objective should be construction of 25,000 to 30,000 bombers to protect the western hemisphere against invasion.

"There would be no invasions, no landing parties," he said in an address prepared for delivery before a luncheon meeting, "if they give us 25,000 to 30,000 bombers, base them along the Atlantic from Newfoundland to Miami; in the central southwest at Brownsville, Tex.; along the Pacific from Alaska to San Diego, and at Hawaii and at Panama."

He said that what the nation needed was "enough bombers to blanket the western hemisphere in speedy 3,000 mile range ships." He addressed the Banshee club at the Waldorf-Astoria.

Pearl Harbor Casualty List Arrives in U. S. on Clipper

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Chairman David I. Walsh [D., Mass.] of the senate naval committee said today that the navy's Pearl Harbor casualty list had arrived this morning by Clipper and that telegrams would be sent immediately to the next of kin. The list will not be given to the public for two or three days.

TRACK DYNAMITE BLOWS WOULD-BE HERO INTO CELL

Miami, Fla., Dec. 11 (AP).—A 38 year old Negro confessed today, the FBI announced, that he set a charge of dynamite on a Florida East Coast railway trestle, then reported it to police in the hope he would become a hero and receive a reward.

R. G. Danner, head of the FBI Miami office, took Stokes McCreary before United States Commissioner Roger Edward Davis, where he was charged with violating the federal anti-sabotage statute, pleaded guilty, and was bound over under $5,000 bond.

Danner said McCreary admitted he placed the charge because a friend of his in Georgia once found a broken rail, flagged a train, and was given $500 reward and a job for life by the railroad company.

Two sticks of dynamite, wired to the rails and attached by a long wire to a dry cell battery hidden nearby, were discovered about midnight on McCreary's tip.

CONGRESS VOWS FIGHT TO FINISH AGAINST AXIS

Hungary-U. S. Break

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—The state department announced tonight the Hungarian prime minister had informed Herbert Claiborne Pell, American minister at Budapest, that Hungary had broken off diplomatic relations with the United States. The action was taken, it was said, "in view of the solidarity of central European states" compared with the solidarity of the republics of the western hemisphere. The prime minister added that the move was not taken with the intention of declaring war.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—With grim determination that victory shall be achieved, whatever the cost and however long and hard the struggle may be, a united congress today pledged the total resources of the United States for the prosecution of war against Germany and Italy.

Resolutions declaring the existence of a state of war with the European axis powers were voted with the same speed and unprecedented unanimity with which congress on Monday replied to Japan's declaration of war against the United States.

Passed, Signed in 3 Hours.

President Roosevelt signed the two new war resolutions at 3:05 p. m. [against Germany] and 3:06 p. m. [against Italy]. This was less than three hours after congress had received a special message from the President announcing that Germany and Italy had declared war against the United States and requesting congress to recognize the state of war thus thrust upon the country.

The text of the President's message:

"On the morning of December 11, the government of Germany, pursuing its course of world conquest, declared war against the United States.

"The long known and the long expected has thus taken place. The forces endeavoring to enslave the entire world now are moving toward this hemisphere.

"Never before has there been a greater challenge to life, liberty and civilization.

Asks Rapid, United Action.

"Delay invites greater danger. Rapid and united effort by all of the peoples of the world who are determined to remain free will insure a world victory of the forces of justice and of righteousness over the forces of savagery and of barbarism.

"Italy also has declared war against the United States.

"I therefore request the congress to recognize a state of war between the United States and Germany, and between the United States and Italy."

The senate vote approving the declaration of war with Germany was 88 to 0, and all 7 absent senators [there is one vacancy] were announced as favoring it. The vote on the declaration of war with Italy was 90 to 0, two of the absentees—Sen. Charles O. Andrews [D., Fla.] and Sen. William H. Smathers [D., N. J.]—having arrived in the meantime to get their names on the roll call.

Wheeler Absent, but Favors War.

Sen. Burton K. Wheeler [D., Mont.], who led the fight in the senate against intervention in the war prior to Japan's attack on the United States last Sunday, was absent because of the grave illness of his brother at Brookline, Mass. Sen. Lister Hill [D., Ala.], the Democratic whip, announced that Wheeler wished to be recorded as supporting the war declarations.

The vote in the house was 393 to 0 for the declaration of war with Germany and 399 to 0 for the declaration of war with Italy, half a dozen absentees having arrived between the roll calls. Jeannette Rankin, Montana's pacifist Republican congresswoman, reserved for herself a small footnote in history by voting "present" in each instance. On Monday she voted "No" on the declaration of war with Japan, but she agreed today to withhold her dissent after prolonged urging by Rep. Everett M. Dirksen [R., Ill.] and other members.

The resolutions were adopted without debate in each house, in significant contrast to the prolonged discussion that preceded the voting by which war against Germany was declared on April 6, 1917. On the previous occasion Germany had not declared war against the United States.

The President's message reached the senate first, at 12:20 p. m., and its reading required two minutes. Sen. Tom Connally [D., Tex.], chairman of the foreign relations committee, immediately sent forward the declaration of war with Germany, which the committee had approved unanimously at a special meeting. Chief Clerk John Crockett intoned the words of the fateful resolution and Vice President Henry A. Wallace ordered the "yeas" and "nays" to be taken.

Halifax in the Gallery.

Approval of the resolution declaring war with Germany was announced at 12:38, and the other declaration, against Italy, was approved at 12:47.

Many distinguished visitors, including Lord Halifax, the British ambassador, and Lady Halifax, looked down from the galleries as the senators quietly and solemnly cast their votes for war with Germany. Both spectators and the senators relaxed after the result was announced and there was much talking on the floor and in the galleries during the next roll call. This remarkable change in atmosphere seemed to express a common contempt for Mussolini, the junior European axis partner. The same note had been evident in President Roosevelt's message, which asserted that Germany had declared war against the United States, that the forces of savagery and barbarism were moving toward this hemisphere, and that civilization was challenged.

"Italy also has declared war against the United States," the President added, with obvious irony.

After approving the war resolutions, the senate and the house passed and sent to the White House a resolution removing all restrictions from the use of citizen soldiers anywhere in the world and extending the period of service of all army personnel until six months after the end of the war, unless the President terminates such service at an earlier date. The senate vote was 86 to 0. The house passed the resolution on a unanimous voice vote.

Sen. Hiram Johnson [R., Cal.], who had blocked unanimous consent for the passage of the AEF resolution yesterday, did not oppose it today. He did not respond, however, when the roll was called.

"Two momentous events have occurred since yesterday," the veteran noninterventionist told the senate. "Two declarations of war have been levied against us. They change the atmosphere entirely. They change my purpose entirely. So I rise to say that, however I may regret it and however sorry I may feel that another AEF shall be required by this country, I shall let this resolution pass so far as I am concerned."

Sen. Robert R. Reynolds [D., N. C.], chairman of the military affairs committee, explained that such legislation is required because of statutory prohibitions in both the selective service and training act of 1940 and the National Guard mobilization act of 1940. These restrictions, unless repealed, would forbid the President to send conscripts and National Guardsmen to fight outside the western hemisphere except in the territories and possessions of the United States.

Hitler Hits F.D.R. in War Talk; We'll Defeat U.S., Says Duce

New Pact Told Nazis

BERLIN, Dec. 11 [Official Radio Received by Associated Press].—Adolf Hitler declared war against the United States today and announced that Germany, Italy, and Japan were pledged in a new alliance to fight it together to a finish.

In the course of an address to the reichstag which lasted an hour and a half, Hitler repeatedly and violently attacked President Roosevelt, blamed a "broken pledge" of the late President Woodrow Wilson for miseries resulting from World war No. 1's Versailles treaty, and expressed on behalf of "the German people" relief and satisfaction with the Japanese attack on America.

Speech Releases Declaration.

Before he spoke the declaration of war was handed—at noon, Berlin time [4 a. m. Chicago time]—to United States Chargé d'Affaires George L. Brandt by Joachim von Ribbentrop, Hitler's foreign minister.

The war declaration itself cited Roosevelt's shooting orders to the navy, the cases of the United States destroyers Greer, Kearny, and Reuben James, destruction of German submarines, and "illegal" treatment of German merchantmen at sea.

It concluded: "The reich government therefore severs diplomatic relations with the United States of America and declares that under these circumstances, brought about by President Roosevelt, Germany also, commencing today, regards herself in a state of war with the United States of America."

Brandt was handed his passport at 4:20 p. m. [8:20 a. m. Chicago time] after Hitler had started speaking in the Kroll Opera house.

About 400 United States citizens in Germany were placed under arrest.

Supplement Tripartite Pact.

The main new fact in Hitler's speech, aside from the announcement of the war declaration, was his disclosure of the new three power accord which supplements the tripartite pact under which Hitler declared war and pledges Germany, Italy, and Japan to make common war against the United States and Britain, to fight "to a victorious end with all available means; to "bring about a just order" later and to refrain from concluding a separate peace "without complete mutual consent."

Italians Hail Japs

ROME, Dec. 11 [Official Radio Received by Associated Press].—Premier Benito Mussolini today linked Fascist Italy's destiny with that of "heroic Japan" by declaring war on the United States in a five minute speech from the balcony of the Palazzo Venezia.

"I say to you, and you will understand," he told party faithfuls below him, "that it is a privilege to fight with them [the Japanese]. . . . Italians! Once more arise and be worthy of this historical hour! We shall win."

A propaganda ministry broadcast quoted the Fascist ruler as saying that President Roosevelt was "a real tyrannical Democrat," who "wanted the war and had prepared for it day by day with diabolical obstinacy."

Tripartite Pact in Action.

Thus Italy joined her fortunes with Germany and Japan in a world struggle precipitated by the tripartite axis alliance [a pact which provided, however, that Italy and Germany were to go to Japan's aid only if Japan were attacked].

Almost an hour before Mussolini appeared on the balcony at 2:50 p. m. [6:50 a. m. Chicago time], Foreign Minister Count Galeazzo Ciano summoned the United States chargé d'affaires to the Chigi palace and informed him that King Emperor Victor Emmanuel had declared Italy at war with the United States as from today.

Crowds Cheer Jap Ambassador.

Vociferous crowds surged thru Rome's streets demonstrating axis solidarity with Japan, and cheered in front of the Japanese embassy. Japan's ambassador was on hand to thank them.

For the first time since last summer, Italian troops were posted inconspicuously a block or two from the United States embassy, but there were no demonstrations.

[A Berne dispatch from Rome reported arrangements probably would be made shortly for a special train to take the United States embassy staff to Lisbon for an exchange with Italian personnel allowed to leave the United States. Those permitted to leave Rome, it was said, totaled about 200 persons, including 51 members of the embassy, 80 or 90 members of their families, 10 Catholic priests, and 9 newspaper correspondents. All were under police surveillance.]

NEW DELHI, India, Dec. 11 (AP).—Sarat Chandra Bose was arrested in Calcutta today under defense regulations, and a communique said he had been in contact with the Japanese. His brother, the Nationalist leader Subhas Chandra Bose, is believed to be in Rome or Berlin plotting an Indian uprising against the British.

Standard Oil Bans Supplies for Italian Atlantic Air Line

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Dec. 11 (AP).—The Standard Oil company, under instructions of the United States embassy, today stopped supplying gasoline to Lati, the Italian trans-Atlantic air line. It was believed this would compel Lati to suspend its service as soon as its present small stock is exhausted.

CHURCHILL GIVES U. S. ASSURANCE OF BRITAIN'S AID

'We Are All in This to the End,' He Says.

LONDON, Dec. 11 (AP).—With five simple words—"We are all in this"—Winston Churchill proclaimed today Britain's proud determination to stand at the side of the United States and maintain at any and every cost the mighty barricade now thrust up across the world against the axis marauders of Europe and Asia.

Speaking before Germany and Italy had declared war upon the United States, but in consciousness of the imminence of that last step, he told the parliament:

"Our foes are bound by their ambitions and their crimes to seek implacably the destruction of the English-speaking world and all that it stands for. It is the supreme barrier for all their kind.

"Rather Perish than Be Conquered."

"If this should be their resolve we are prepared to meet it. If they should declare themselves resolved to compass the destruction of the English-speaking world, I know I speak for the United States as well as for the British empire when I say we would rather perish than be conquered.

"On that basis, and putting it at the worst, there are quite a lot of us to be killed."

Summing up the greatest division of nations since the world began, he declared:

"Not only the British empire now, but the United States is fighting for life. Russia is fighting for life. China is fighting for life. Behind these four great combatants and communities are ranged all the spirit and hope of all the conquered countries in Europe, prostrate under the cruel domination of the foe.

"Wicked Cliques" Only Foes.

"I said the other day that four-fifths of the human race were on our side.

"It may well be an understatement. Just handfuls and cliques of wicked men and their military or party organizations have been able to bring these hideous evils upon mankind.

"It would indeed bring shame upon our generation if we did not teach them a lesson which will not be forgotten in the records of a thousand years."

[The Tribune correspondent in London said that members of parliament and the British press assailed Churchill's explanation that low clouds had been counted on to protect the battleship Prince of Wales and the battle cruiser Repulse, sunk off Malaya. The London Daily Mirror, pointing out that the explanation was prompted by questions from Adm. Sir Roger Keyes and other members of parliament, said the ships were lost thru lack of air support, and asked: "Is that lesson, tragically taught, even now not learned?"]

JAPS' AIR FORCE PROVES METTLE, EXPERTS ASSERT

Ability, Morale of Pilots Is Surprise.

BY WAYNE THOMIS.

The Japanese air force, almost an unknown quantity until the bold stroke against Hawaii last Sunday, has proved itself to be of high quality, military and naval air experts said here yesterday. Altho this is contrary to expectations, there can be no doubt now about the morale of Japanese pilots, about their general abilities as flyers, or their understanding of aviation tactics, observers said.

The only question yet unanswered relates to the quality of Japanese planes, compared with America's latest and best bombers and fighters. While the Japanese have performed prodigious feats in striking Pearl Harbor and in sinking two of Great Britain's newest and finest battleships, they have not been pitted against the best British or American fighting planes, these airmen said.

First Considered Weak.

Because our own military attachés in China and Japan were inclined to rate the Japanese air force as weak, our island outposts at the Philippines, Guam, and even in Honolulu were not equipped with our best fighters.

Apparently these airplanes either are being overwhelmed by superior Japanese numbers, or their performances are not good enough to prevent frequent bombings of objectives around Manila, at Cavite and elsewhere.

The chief advantage enjoyed by the Japanese at this time, however, is said to be war experience of their pilots, staff officers and supply personnel. Because the Japanese have been at war for more than four years in China their air force consists of tried and seasoned men. They have the "know-how" of experienced warriors as their carefully timed raids and excellent bombing formations—upon which all observers have commented—demonstrate.

Gain Experience in War.

Air force commanders have had wide fields for experimenting with tactics and air strategy in China, and have learned the capacity of their pilots and planes.

So far as was known the Japanese on last Jan. 1 had approximately 4,000 first line aircraft. These were divided about equally between bombers and fighters. The bombers again were subdivided between light single motored types and multi-engined heavy machines. The single engined bombers and the fighters were capable of operating from carriers at sea or off land airdromes.

Probably the Japanese expanded their forces materially this year. Preparations for this expansion were made late in 1939, in fact. This was reflected in the 1940 budget. Prior to that year the air force had been receiving about 30 per cent of the military allocations—itself a high figure. But in 1940 the share was jumped to 46 per cent of the total military expenditures.

Use Four Motored Bombers.

Numerous mentions of the use of four motored bombers in raids at Manila have been made in dispatches. Existence of these craft came as a surprise both to British and American sources. The bombers appear to be copies of German Focke-Wolf or Heinkel heavy bombers, or perhaps they are identical with the German craft, having been built under German license.

The bombers represent the latest types of Japanese planes. The majority of the first line ships are of earlier vintage. Jap fighters in particular differ from European and American craft in that they are extremely small, light, and often are built largely of wood.

For combat purposes these craft, however, are excellent. They weigh about 4,200 pounds as compared with 7,600 pounds for British and American planes. Consequently they can turn and maneuver far better than the heavier machines and their slightly inferior speed is more than offset.

Report 5,000 Flyers in Force.

It is estimated that in its Chinese operations the Japanese air force has gained 5,000 experienced flyers.

According to word here, the Japanese forces consist of 36 fighter, 36 reconnaissance, and 25 bombardment squadrons attached to land forces. The naval air units consist of 36 fighter, 30 dive bomber, and 25 torpedo bomber squadrons, plus 400 flying boats and seaplanes.

When the war began Japan had seven aircraft carriers and three seaplane carriers, with a dozen flying boat tenders. All these have been widely used in China.

Until they obtained four motored bombers, the Japanese depended largely on bimotored craft which cruised at 165 to 200 miles an hour, and had maximum ranges of less than 2,400 miles.

POLITICAL TRUCE BRINGS 'THANKS' FROM ROOSEVELT

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—President Roosevelt today expressed his appreciation for the "political truce" concluded by the Democratic and Republican parties for the duration of the war in identical telegrams to Rep. Joseph W. Martin Jr., chairman of the Republican national committee, and Edward J. Flynn, chairman of the Democratic national committee.

"Let me thank you both personally and on behalf of our country, for the patriotic action you have in contemplation," the President wrote. "When the war is over we will still be adhering to our historic method of settling our domestic problems which have made our country the great nation it is, and has shown the world that democratic freedom is a perfectly workable system of government."

CARE OF BABIES IN BOMB RAIDS SHOWN BY GIRLS

Lessons in the care of infants and first aid to children during a bombing attack were demonstrated yesterday afternoon by girls of the Junior Red Cross at the Chicago Youth exposition in Hotel Sherman.

Using life-sized dolls to represent babies, the girls, from 13 to 17 years old, gave examples of the Red Cross training in caring for children during air raids. At the evening program a mock broadcast of the Quiz Kids was held.

The exposition, sponsored by approximately 100 youth groups in Chicago, will close tonight.

JAPANESE CLAIM 81 U.S. FIGHTER PLANES DOWNED

Assert 350 Americans Captured at Guam.

TOKIO, Dec. 11 [Official Radio Received by (AP)].—The destruction of 81 American planes, a submarine, and a destroyer in Japanese air attacks on the Philippines and the capture of 350 Americans on the island outpost of Guam were claimed officially tonight.

[A London dispatch early Thursday morning said the Berlin radio quoted the Japanese as saying the American aircraft carrier Lexington had been sunk off Malaya. There was no later mention of this from any source.]

The Japanese acknowledged only five planes lost in all these operations—three missing and two which were said to have "dived headlong into enemy positions."

Tell of Attacks on Wake.

Domei [Japanese official news agency] reported Japanese airmen attacking Wake island set fire to barracks and warehouses, and shot down seven American planes in dogfights. Domei said this action on Tuesday was the second raid and that Japanese troops later effected a landing.

An army communique asserted the Japanese suffered no losses in the occupation of Guam, where it was said 25 Japanese found interned were released and that "mopping up" operations were continuing.

American prisoners were said to include Capt. George G. McMillan, governor in the Guam capital of Agana, the vice governor, and the naval station commandant.

Claim Naval Base Damaged.

A naval communique said that of the 81 planes destroyed in the Philippines, 45 were downed in dogfights.

Heavy damage to the United States naval base of Cavite, the Nichols air field in Manila, and a transport in Manila bay also were claimed.

The Japanese army said 86 British planes have been destroyed since Monday in the fighting in British Malaya.

Direct bomb hits on two British gunboats along the Hongkong coast also were announced by the navy.

On the diplomatic front the government announced that Japan, Germany and Italy had signed a pact that none would make a separate peace.

Japanese Capital Blacked Out.

New York, Dec. 11 [Special].—The German radio today broadcast a dispatch from Tokio that a blackout of the Japanese capital and the district surrounding it had been ordered by Japanese military authorities.

The United States marine garrison of about 70 men at Peking, China, was disarmed today by Japanese troops, the German wireless said. There were no incidents and the Americans were told to remain in their barracks until further orders.

ARMY OFFICER, HOOSIER NATIVE, KILLS HIMSELF

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Lieut. Col. Clarence N. Iry was found in his hotel room today, the victim, said Deputy Coroner Christopher J. Murphy, of a self-inflicted revolver wound in the head.

The war department said that Col. Iry was born Sept. 10, 1891, at Andrews, Ind., and was a 1916 graduate of Purdue university. He served as an enlisted man in the Indiana National Guard in 1916. On Aug. 1, 1917, he was commissioned second lieutenant in the engineers reserves. He received his commission as a second lieutenant in the corps of engineers of the regular army Oct. 7, 1918.

His last assignment was at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Surviving him are his widow, Mrs. Louise Lawton Iry, and two sons, William and Nelson Lawton Iry.

TELLS HOW JAP SUICIDE FLYERS SANK 2 WARSHIPS

Eyewitness on Repulse During Sea Battle.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Aerial torpedoes fired with suicidal abandon sank the British battleship Prince of Wales and battle cruiser Repulse, Cecil Brown, CBS correspondent and survivor of the Repulse, reported today in a 2,000 word log he jotted down during the attack.

There was no explosion, Brown reported, and this probably accounted for the survival of more than 2,000 of some 3,000 men on the ships sunk off the Malayan coast.

"It is apparent," Brown cabled CBS today, "that the best guns and crews in the world would be unable to stem a torpedo bombing attack if the attackers are sufficiently determined."

High level bombing attacks were coördinated with torpedoing, Brown said, with about 80 planes in action.

Bombs and Torpedoes.

High level attacks came first on the Repulse, starting a fire; then two torpedoes struck the mortal blows.

The Prince of Wales was wounded first by torpedoes; then finished by high-level bombs.

Brown wrote his eyewitness account as he watched the battle aboard the Repulse, with the Prince of Wales half a mile away.

"Nine Japanese bombers approach the Repulse at 10,000 feet. Anti-aircraft guns scream constantly. One bomb hits the catapult deck, exploding below. Fires rage below.

"All gun crews remain cool, wisecracking. Jap drops three bombs. Destroyers at varying distances set up full barrages.

"The Prince of Wales seems to be hit. We are twisting violently to avoid torpedoes.

"Here It Comes!"

"The officer beside me yells, 'Here comes a tin fish!' A Jap torpedo bomber is heading directly for us, 200 yards high. He's less than 500 yards distant. The torpedo drops, and he banks sharply. But instead of gliding away, he's making a graceful dip toward the water. He bursts into flames.

"Other planes are coming in so close and low you can make out the pilot's outline.

"The Wales seems to be stopped definitely. There's fire aboard us.

Struck by Torpedo.

"Another torpedo attack. I see a torpedo drop. It's streaking for us. Some one says: 'This one's got us!' It felt like the ship had crashed into a well rooted dock. I did not feel any explosion—just this very great jar.

"Almost immediately we began to list, and less than a minute later there was another jar of the same kind, except that it was almost precisely the same spot on the starboard. The Repulse was doomed. The communications systems announced: 'Prepare to abandon ship! May God be with you!'"

HUGE FORD PLANT IS 'BLACKED OUT' IN TEN SECONDS

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 11 (AP).—The Ford Motor company's huge River Rouge plant and suburban Dearborn held a 10 minute blackout tonight and officials of both the company and city termed the rehearsal "highly successful."

It was the first blackout trial in this area, and was staged on two hours' notice.

Whistles and sirens signaled the start of the blackout. Within 10 seconds the brilliantly lighted Ford plant darkened strikingly. All lights winked out and 24,000 men within the plant stood in darkness beside their stilled machines.

The blackout was almost universally observed in Dearborn, only traffic signals remaining in operation. "Despite the short notice," declared Mayor John L. Carey, "the practice blackout was a success if for no other reason than finding we had overlooked some important factors. The short notice was part of the trial."

AZORES CALLED A VITAL BASTION FOR U. S. DEFENSE

Easy Seizure by Nazis Is Seen, However.

[David Darrah, the Tribune correspondent in France, flew across the Atlantic from Lisbon to New York by Clipper plane two weeks ago. He is in America on vacation.]

BY DAVID DARRAH.

The somber volcanic mass of the nine Azores islands forms a natural defense bastion for America against any menace from across the Atlantic. You realize the nearness of that menace while flying the Atlantic.

Loaded clipper planes, weighing 46 tons, fly from Lisbon to the Azores in seven hours, from the Azores to Bermuda in 16 hours, and from Bermuda to New York in 5 hours. Bombers can fly these distances in less time.

The Azores, which Portugal is heavily fortifying, lie about a third of the way across the Atlantic to America from Europe and form the key to the two continents. In axis hands they would put the Atlantic coast within less than 24 hours bombing distance.

Altho Portugal has been rushing soldiers to defend the Azores, their seizure by the Germans would not be difficult. Air lines already are being operated between Berlin and Rome and the Azores.

The Azores were discovered by the Portuguese at the beginning of the 14th century, claimed by them in 1452, and soon colonized.

Likened to a Naval Unit.

The nine islands have a population of about 250,000 and have been compared to "a squadron of nine cruisers and aircraft carriers solidly anchored in the center of the routes across the north and central Atlantic." They form the northern point of the strategic triangle of Lisbon-Madeira-Azores.

The islands are of secondary domestic importance to Portugal, but produce milk and fruit.

Last spring the islands became the subject of a diplomatic incident between Premier Antonio Salazar's government and the United States after Sen. Claude Pepper [D., Fla.] proposed that the United States occupy the Azores and Cape Verde Islands. Portugal sent a note to Washington, D. C., denying Germany or any other country had demanded use of the islands. Portugal began reënforcing their defenses.

On May 27 President Roosevelt made direct reference to occupation of the Azores in discussing western hemisphere defense. Three days later Portugal sent a note to Washington reaffirming its neutrality and asking America to recognize that "Portuguese territories do not constitute a prejudice or a menace to any of the belligerent powers." The note refused to admit the United States had "the right to decide when and where the United States would be menaced with respect to Portuguese territory."

U. S. Reply Unsatisfactory.

The note asked for assurances that the islands' sovereignty would be respected. The problem thus was diplomatically posed in the face of a world haunted by fear of an extension of the war.

Washington's reply on June 10 was not entirely satisfactory, the Portuguese said. Washington recognized Portugal's sovereignty over the islands, but pointed out the danger that their occupation or control by Germany and Italy would present for the United States.

The Portuguese minister made another démarche in Washington. Portuguese newspapers referred to "the absorption of Cuba and Philippines" in discussing the affair.

Portugal immediately poured more troops into the Azores, Cape Verde, and Madeira islands, altho it recognized that it would be hard to defend them against a powerful invader.

Iceland Move Stirs Uneasiness.

There were more exchanges of diplomatic notes. In June Undersecretary of State Sumner Welles denied charges in the Lisbon press that America planned to seize the islands. After the occupation of Iceland the Portuguese became uneasy again.

Lisbon began to tighten its relations with Brazil. The solidarity of the two countries, which have a common language, was invoked and it was stated that "the Portuguese and Brazilian governments and peoples are determined to defend with all their might their territories, their traditions, and their ideas."

Altho a month ago the Portuguese minister to Washington declared the Azores question had been settled, new war developments have revived some of the tension.

In American hands the islands would greatly strengthen our naval and air power in the Atlantic. In the hands of Germany and Italy, menacing bombers would be within easy range of New York and Washington. In the lineup now shaping, the Azores and Portugal will figure mightily.

GLOOM SHROUDS GERMAN, ITALIAN SECTIONS OF N. Y.

New York, Dec. 11 [Special].—News that Germany and Italy had declared war on the United States was received with gloom in the Italian and German colonies which dot New York City. Yorkville, German section on the upper east side, was sullen, downcast, and not inclined to discuss the war with outsiders.

In the various Italian communities emotions ranged from grief to resignation, but a general Italian feeling was one of intense hatred for Adolf Hitler, who is blamed for all of Italy's war troubles.

LATIN NATIONS JOIN IN WAR ON ITALY, GERMANY

Cuba, Dominican Republic and Costa Rica Act.

[BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS.]

Cuba, Costa Rica, Nicaragua, and the Dominican Republic declared war on Germany and Italy last night and Mexico abruptly broke off relations with the two axis powers following identical action against Japan.

Cuba's declaration was approved unanimously by the chamber of deputies and the senate concurred by acclamation. The republic's declaration of war against Japan on Monday, also was by unanimous vote.

Costa Rica last Sunday had become the first of all the 21 American republics to declare against Japan.

Brazil reaffirmed its solidarity with the United States and the rest of the Americas, declaring in a foreign ministry statement:

"The Brazilian ambassador to the the United States is authorized by the president of the republic to reaffirm to the North American government the attitude of Brazil in view of the declaration of war by Germany and Italy."

Mexico already had frozen axis funds.

Elsewhere, there were these developments:

Bolivia: Pledged solidarity with United States.

Argentina: All political leaders telegraphed pledge of solidarity to United States congress.

Panama: Authorized United States troops to take over strategic areas.

Chile: Government expected to ask emergency economic powers.

Uruguay: Senate called to ratify acceptance of $17,000,000 United States loan for arms purchases.

An Open Letter to the Employes and Managers of WIEBOLDT STORES, INC.
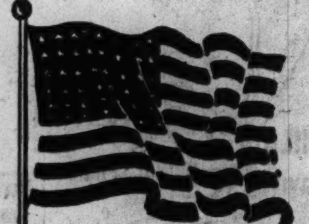
From Our President



December 11, 1941

To all MANAGERS and EMPLOYES:

Now that our country is at war we, the workers of our stores, have a new responsibility. It is our duty as AMERICAN citizens to obey the orders of our civil and military authorities promptly and completely regardless of whether we think they interfere with our jobs or hurt the business. It is our duty to help those who are responsible for prosecuting the war in every way we can, and to do nothing which will make their job more difficult. Those of us who will stay at home and work at our jobs will have to do double duty, and it is up to us to help pay for the war by making profits, paying high taxes, and saving a little of the profit to insure the future of the business.

There is no longer room for argument either among ourselves or with customers. There is nothing to be gained by such arguments and you are requested to avoid them under all circumstances and especially during business hours. All of us will be making new sacrifices because of the new laws and regulations which will soon be forthcoming. It is our duty to adjust ourselves cheerfully and completely to the war order of things.

Respectfully yours,

E Wieboldt

BRITISH KNOCKING AXIS 'BACK ON ITS HEELS' IN LIBYA

Tribune Man Says Battle Goes Well for England.

In a broadcast from Cairo, Egypt, over the Mutual Broadcasting system, Sam Brewer, Tribune correspondent, declared late yesterday that the battle raging in the western desert appears to be going well for the British.

It was heartening, he said, to observe the general trend of movement west and northwest. The major action, he said, was on a line from El Adem to Bir El Gobi, and also west of Tobruk. British attacks, he declared, have kept the enemy back on his heels, unable to launch a "real counteroffensive since this action began a week ago."

British Control the Air.

"In the last analysis," Brewer declared, "the battle depends upon armor and air force. Until now the British have had complete control of the air, which makes the men on the ground feel easier. The armor has not had as complete a stranglehold as that of the air force."

Brewer said the British describe enemy concentrations at Halfaya ["Hellfire"] pass, Bardia, and Sollum as "isolated and unimportant" islands.

"The enemy is having a very unhappy time," said Brewer in conclusion. "The battle is going all right for the British at the moment."

Axis in Retreat, Say British.

CAIRO, Egypt, Dec. 11 (AP).—Steady pressure by main British and African mobile columns is pushing the retreating axis desert forces progressively northwest of the former Tobruk-El Adem battlefield in the Cirenaican desert, the British announced today.

Some enemy units which took refuge behind defenses west of El Adem and south of Tobruk were attacked; British armored units also drove off a number of German tanks which tried to break up operations of Indian and English forces west of El Adem.

These appeared to be axis rear guard actions.

Seize Axis Posts Near Tobruk.

A communique also said Poles of the Tobruk garrison, now joined firmly with the main British forces in the vast desert battleground, had stormed and taken two posts in the western Tobruk defenses to which some axis units still are clinging.

A communique reported discovery of a total of 37 abandoned German tanks between Bardia and Tobruk.

Further east South African troops continued to clear up the area north of Trigh and Fort Capuzzo where a few enemy stragglers were still being captured. New Zealanders also were engaged in mopping up operations in the area immediately east of Tobruk.

[In London a British military source said he believed the main movement of British forces northwest from El Adem might be the start of a big new battle of encirclement.]

British Cruiser Hit: Rome.

ROME, Dec. 11 [Official radio received by (AP)].—Italians today said a British cruiser among the units bombarding Derna, Libya, yesterday was hit in an attack by axis torpedo carrying planes.

A communique broadcast by the Rome radio made no further mention of the damage to the ship, but said the hospital at Derna was hit by the shelling from the ships and several staff members were injured.

Jail for Husband

[TRIBUNE Photo.]
MRS. NADINE ROSS.

Mrs. Nadine Ross, 28 years old, 1526 North avenue, asked Judge Rudolph Desort yesterday to hold her estranged husband, Tommy, a sheet metal worker, horse exerciser, and jockey, in contempt of court.

She charged that Ross violated an injunction restraining him from molesting her. Mrs. Ross, who has filed a divorce bill charging cruelty, also asked the court to compel her husband to return a $125 diamond ring. Ross said he had given the ring to a friend in Detroit, Mich., as security for a $10 loan. The judge promptly ordered Ross put in jail as hostage for the ring.

Questioned by Norman Becker, attorney appointed by the court to represent Ross, Mrs. Ross said Ross was her sixth husband. They married June 28, she said, and separated Dec. 6.

All-Out Military Draft Passed by British House

LONDON, Dec. 11 (AP).—The government's conscription bill for all-out mobilization of Britons, including women, passed all stages in the house of commons today and was sent to the house of lords, where it received its formal first reading.

HAWAII REVEALS HOW JAPS POURED DEATH FROM SKY

Tell of 6 Separate Raids on Tragic Sunday.

HONOLULU, Hawaii, Dec. 11 (AP).—Fifty to 100 enemy warplanes knifed at Hickam field, army air base; the Pearl Harbor naval base, and the Kaneohe naval air base in six separate raids on Oahu Island Sunday.

Censorship was lifted partially today, permitting disclosure of more details of the Japanese surprise attack. The first raiders flew over at 7:55 a. m. Sunday and were followed by other waves at 11:29 and 11:59 a. m., and 12:22, 7:15, and 9:10 p. m.

Forty-nine civilians were killed and more than 100 injured.

[In Washington the White House has announced that with navy and army casualties the total probably will be around 3,000, about equally divided between killed and wounded.]

Martial law was declared. Police handled the civilian situation admirably with only a small amount of subversive activities in evidence.

Seize Japanese Consul.

Blackouts were instituted with heavy penalties for violation. The Japanese consul was taken into custody while burning records. Dangerous areas were evacuated and schools closed. Saloons were closed. Food sales were confined to normal quantities.

Martin Vitousek, 17 years old, one of the first to see the enemy attack, said:

"Suddenly we were in the thick of a black painted mass of planes. They rocketed from the sky everywhere and I saw on the wingtips the red Rising Sun of Japan. When the first bomb hit my heart almost went out of me. Then all hell broke loose."

He said he saw three enemy planes shot down.

Report Area Is Quiet.

Army authorities said that there were "no serious overt acts reported and the entire area is quiet." Army and navy project workers returned to their jobs Monday.

Business men summed up their attitude with, "they shot their bolt in one big surprise. They'll never get away with it again."

During the attacks one direct hit on an automobile killed four persons. Mattresses were taken from furniture stores for the injured.

44 YEARS OLD, HE WINS COMMAND OF LIBYAN ARMY

Britain's new 8th army in Libya now is under the leadership of one of Britain's youngest battle commanders, 44 year old Maj. Gen. Neil M. Ritchie, Prime Minister Winston Churchill announced yesterday that Ritchie has succeeded Gen. Sir Alan Gordon Cummingham, 54, who is on sick leave.

Born July 29, 1897, Ritchie was educated at Lancing and the royal military college at Sandhurst. He entered the army at the age of 17 and his rise was rapid. Commissioned a second lieutenant in the black watch in 1914, he became a lieutenant in 1915, rose to captain in 1917, was breveted major in 1933, became a full major in 1934, was breveted lieutenant colonel in 1936, and became a colonel in 1939.

He served in France in 1915 and in Mesopotamia in 1916-'17, winning the distinguished service cross and the military cross. He served as a general staff officer, third grade, from 1923 to 1927, then moved to the staff college at Camberly from 1929 to 1930. He served on the northern command in India from 1933 to 1937. After serving in Palestine in 1938-'39 and winning his second mention in dispatches, he became a general staff officer, first grade, and brigadier in 1939. In 1940 he was made a commander order of the British empire, and won further promotion after the outbreak of World war II. He had been deputy chief of the general staff in the middle east for several months.

NAZI BALKAN ACE SENT TO MOSCOW FRONT, SAY REDS

Report List in Charge; Big Soviet Gains Told.

KUIBYSHEV, Russia, Dec. 11 (AP).—Field Marshal Siegmund Wilhelm List has replaced Field Marshal Fedor von Bock as commander in chief of the German armies on the Moscow front where the Germans have been trying for more than two months to advance against the soviet capital, it was announced today. List led the successful Nazi push into the Balkans last spring.

Altho it was not known whether Von Bock was killed or recalled, the change was regarded as a result of the unsuccessful German offensive and the Red counterdrives, which are said to be pressing the Nazis steadily westward.

Thirty More Villages Retaken.

Military dispatches said Red army tank units cleared the Germans from the Tula-Serpukhov-Moscow highway by smashing Col. Gen. Heinz Guderian's fourth Nazi tank division. Tula is 110 miles south of Moscow.

The Germans were reported being pursued southwest and abandoning settlement after settlement to the Russians. Thirty more villages near Yelets [Olets] in the Orel sector, 200 miles south of Moscow, also were retaken, the Russians said.

Two Divisions Destroyed: Reds.

MOSCOW, Dec. 11 (AP).—The destruction of two German infantry divisions in fighting which resulted in the Russian recapture of Olets and the continued retreat of German soldiers in southern Russia were announced today by the Moscow radio.

The Russians said the Germans lost 12,000 killed and wounded on the Olets battlefield.

Claim Big Red Losses.

BERLIN, Dec. 11 [Official radio received by (AP).—The German high command today said the Russians had suffered heavy losses in eastern front fighting, but still described the operations as only local actions.

Finns Tell of Big Gains.

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Dec. 11 (AP).—Finnish ski troops are pushing Russian forces back thru the snow piled forests of Eastern Karelia between Lake Onega and the White sea, a Finnish communique said today. Several soviet detachments were reported wiped out northeast of Povenets, north of Lake Onega.

ADM. YARNELL INSPECTS LAKE AREA SHIPYARDS

Rear Adm. Harry E. Yarnell, former commander of the United States navy's Asiatic fleet and commandant of Pearl Harbor, was in Chicago yesterday on an inspection tour of shipyards in the Great Lakes region which are building ships for the navy. After visiting two yards in the Calumet district he left for Duluth, Minn.

Adm. Yarnell said that he found the morale of the workers very high. Workmanship of the shipbuilders here is as skillful and efficient as that of workers in other shipyards in the country, he said.

Adm. Yarnell, who retired in 1939, but has returned to the navy for special duty, said that 26 lakes area shipyards are turning out more than 100 small navy vessels, such as submarine chasers, mine sweepers, submarines, and other boats.

He said that he could not comment on developments in the Pacific ocean. He will continue his inspection tour on the west coast.

Illinois Defense Council to Open Capital Office

Deneen A. Watson and Edward L. Gorey departed for Washington, D. C., yesterday to open an office there for the Illinois State Council for Defense. Their assignment, from Gov. Green, is to get more armament contracts and war industries for Illinois and to assist the small industries of this state in adjusting themselves to war conditions.

BRITAIN STIRRED AS NAZIS SHIFT PLANES TO WEST

LONDON, Dec. 11.—Reports here that Germany has withdrawn a large portion of its air force from the Russian front to France aroused speculation today as to whether Britain should expect an early revival of last year's heavy bombings or whether Germany plans to march thru Spain and Portugal to Gibraltar to support the axis armies in Libya.

The Daily Express, in its Friday morning edition, warns:

"Hitler already has planned another attack."

4,200,000 NAZIS LOST IN RUSSIAN WAR, U.S. IS TOLD

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Official government sources disclosed today that field reports from Russia claimed the Germans had suffered 4,200,000 casualties.

The government said the figures came from actual observers in the field. The estimate includes 1,380,000 killed. The remainder represents men either wounded or missing.

[Adolf Hitler yesterday gave these figures on Russian losses to Dec. 1: Prisoners, 3,806,865; tanks destroyed or captured, 21,391; guns, 32,541; and airplanes, 17,325. He said German casualties in the Russian war totaled 162,314 dead, 571,767 wounded, 33,324 missing.]

RETIRED ALPHA FARMER DIES.

Alpha, Ill., Dec. 11 [Special].—Roy Foster, 67, retired farmer and former Alpha business man, died late yesterday in Moline Public hospital. Born near Vermont, Ill., Jan. 6, 1874, he came to this community 45 years ago. He operated a general store here for six years and farmed near Alpha. The widow, two sons, and two daughters survive.

LENINGRAD 'A FROZEN HELL ON EARTH,' SAYS FUGITIVE FROM CITY

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

HELSINGFORS, Finland, Dec. 11.—Leningrad is a "hell on earth, but it is a frozen hell," said a Russian physician today when he reached the Finnish lines after fleeing from the besieged soviet city.

He said the bread ration being issued to Red army men, high government employés, and special workers has been reduced to half a pound daily, while the ration for reserve soldiers, lower government employés, and men and women engaged in fortification works is a quarter of a pound, plus a plate of maccaroni soup.

The situation in Leningrad, he declared, is approaching anarchy, with daily bread riots occurring before the few bread shops which are open. Thousands of persons die daily of starvation, he said.

TOBEY DEMANDS CONGRESS PROBE HAWAII 'DEBACLE'

Assails Secretary Knox as Irresponsible.

Knox in Hawaii

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Secretary of Navy Frank Knox arrived at Honolulu this afternoon. This was announced early tonight by the navy department, which gave no other details. While all official information was lacking, the purpose of the secretary's trip apparently was to make a personal investigation of the smashing Japanese surprise raid Sunday on the naval base and other defense installations at Honolulu.

BY WILLIAM STRAND.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11—Sen. Charles W. Tobey [R., N. H.] today demanded an immediate congressional investigation to determine whether incompetency and inefficiency were responsible for the "debacle at Pearl Harbor."

Maintaining it to be his right and his duty, under his oath of office, to offer "honest criticism even in time of war," the senator charged on the senate floor that the truth of what happened at Hawaii in the first engagement of the Japanese war is being withheld from the American people.

In response to arguments that an announcement of the results of the Japanese raid would place much desired information in the hands of the enemy, Tobey replied that there are 40,000 Japanese in Hawaii, who would carry back to enemy authorities the information as to what happened.

Assails Secretary Knox.

Tobey also denounced Secretary of the Navy Frank Knox in blunt terms, asserting that he has been told that the United States ships were lying at anchor in Pearl Harbor with no steam up and that listening devices forming part of the harbor defenses were not in working order.

"I say that I have a duty" the New Hampshire senator cried in stirring tones, "—and I am going to perform it—to demand that the navy department be administered by a secretary of the navy who is responsible, and not irresponsible; who stands for efficiency, and not talks and magazine articles; and who has in his heart a single purpose—to prosecute this war successfully, no matter what the cost."

Story of Warning Quoted.

Yesterday Rep. Clare E. Hoffman [R., Mich.] called the attention of the house to a dispatch from Chungking, China, published in Knox's own newspaper, which indicated that the navy was forewarned of the possibilities of the Japanese attack, but apparently did nothing to meet it. The correspondent who wrote the dispatch said an hour before the raid on Hawaii began he was told by an officer of an American gunboat: "It is going to happen tonight."

Tobey's remarks today were interrupted by Sen. Scott W. Lucas [D., Ill.], an ardent administration wheelhorse, who attempted to turn aside the criticism of Knox and the navy department, upholding the present administration policies of secrecy in respect to details of the Pearl Harbor engagement.

Charges Personal Animosity.

For several minutes the two engaged in a rough and tumble colloquy in which Lucas, refusing to give Tobey a chance to reply, charged that the New Hampshire senator has a personal grievance against Knox.

Asked by Lucas where he got the information on the lack of preparations to meet a raid at the Hawaiian base, Tobey replied he was told of the condition of the listening devices and the lack of steam in the warships' boilers by two other senators on the senate floor.

"The senator from New Hampshire is willing to indict the secretary of the navy," Lucas said, "and all the men at Pearl Harbor—many of whom lie wounded, and many of whom have died—upon the basis of a newspaper article, and on the basis of what two senators told him; senators who give him information that they are not willing to give to the rest of the senate, and who are unwilling to state where they obtained the information."

Reviews White House Parley.

Sen. David I. Walsh [D., Mass.], naval affairs committee chairman, took the floor and told for the first time of his conversation with President Roosevelt following a White House conference Monday evening when Mr. Roosevelt discussed his proposed Tuesday night radio speech with congressional leaders.

As the conferees were leaving the White House, Walsh recounted, he turned to the President, saying:

"Mr. President, you have begun a new life. A new epoch has come into your life. You no longer are President of a political party or a group or a majority of the American people. You are a war President; and it is the first necessity, and I have not any doubt that you will respond to it, that a war President should have the absolute confidence of the American people. I frequently have said that our first line of defense—I have said it on this floor—is our navy. Our first line of defense from now until the end of this war is the war President of the United States of America."

Would Leave It to President.

"And," Walsh continued, "I added just this brief word: 'You must win the confidence of the congress and the American people. They are ready to give you their confidence, wholeheartedly, without restraint.'"

Walsh urged that it be left up to the President, in his capacity as commander in chief, to determine when information should be divulged and when it should be withheld.

Recalling that it was thru the efforts of Walsh that the country learned the truth of the Greer and Kearny incidents at the outset of the undeclared war in the Atlantic, Sen. Arthur H. Vandenberg [R., Mich.] took the floor briefly at this point to remark that it is a consolation, from a congressional point of view, that Walsh is chairman of the naval affairs committee at this time.

Robbed in Hotel

MRS. RAY RYAN.

Police yesterday sought two bandits who early in the day bound a man and woman in their suite in the Stevens hotel and robbed them of $7,400 in cash and a quantity of jewelry. The victims, Ray Ryan, 35 years old, and his wife, Helen, 25, of Evansville, Ind., were in Chicago to attend a banquet of the Indiana society Saturday night. After visiting several night clubs they returned to the hotel. At 9 a. m. yesterday Mrs. Ryan answered a knock and was confronted by two swarthy young men. They forced her into the bedroom, drew revolvers, and robbed the couple.

HOOVER INVITES POLICE ACADEMY PUPILS INTO FBI

Washington, Dec. 11 (AP).—J. Edgar Hoover, director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, has invited several hundred graduates of the FBI national police academy into active service with the bureau.

The NPA was organized by Hoover in 1935 to train officers of state and local law enforcement agencies and its graduates have been regarded as a reserve of the FBI.

In a three months' course they have been given virtually the same training prescribed for FBI agents, and each year are invited to return to Washington for a retraining course in which late techniques are taught.

ACCIDENTALLY SHOOTS SELF.

Robert Wagner, 27 years old, a guard in the Federal Reserve bank at 230 South La Salle street, told police he accidentally shot himself in the right leg early yesterday when he tripped while walking down the stairs. Wagner lives at 3100 Sheridan road.

AUSTRALIA CALLS UP MARRIED MEN 18-35 YEARS OLD

Puts World War Veterans on Coastal Defense.

MELBOURNE, Australia, Dec. 11 (AP).—An enormous increase in the number of men to be put under arms in Australia and curtailment of the list of reserve occupations were provided in emergency measures announced tonight by Prime Minister John Curtin to meet the grave situation in the Pacific.

Newly affected under the orders are all single men and childless widowers between the ages of 35 and 45 and married men and widowers, with children, between the ages of 18 and 35.

Members of the volunteer defense corps, largely veterans of the first World war, were being mobilized for guard and coastal duties.

Gasoline Is Rationed.

Other measures under what Curtin called "the first instalment of a complete revision of the whole of the Australian economic and domestic life" included:

Prohibition of floodlighting in sports arenas, halting of dog racing for the duration of the war, gasoline rationing, delegation of powers to states to blackout or evacuate any area.

The cabinet was reported checking oil, fuel, coal and clothing stocks, air raid precautions, war factories for inland areas and woman and man power.

Women rushed to join police and other auxiliaries.

Sees Handicap Removed.

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 11 (AP).—The declaration of war by Germany and Italy against the United States will rid the United States of the handicaps of indefinite suspense, Prime Minister W. L. Mackenzie King said today.

"It removes the remaining restrictions on coöperation with Britain and other nations of the commonwealth as well as with Russia and China and the other allied powers," he said.

PHILIPPINES HELD BY UNITED STATES ONLY 43 YEARS

Dewey Took Them in Single Day.

The Philippine Islands, which Americans are now fighting to hold, were ceded to the United States by Spain just 43 years ago after a brief and fantastically one sided war.

It was late in April, 1898, that this country's war with Spain began, and it was all over but the shouting before the middle of August. Dewey's smashing victory over the Spanish fleet in Manila bay was a one day battle and he lost not a man.

"War has commenced between the United States and Spain," Secretary of War John D. Long cabled Commodore Dewey at Hongkong. "Proceed at once to the Philippine Islands. Commence operations particularly against the Spanish fleet. You must capture vessels or destroy."

On the night of the 30th of April Dewey's squadron steamed into Manila bay, scorning mines and fortifications and ignoring shots from Spanish shore batteries.

U. S. Casualties 7 Wounded.

Next morning the battle began at 5:40. It continued until 7:35, and then, after a pause, from 11:16 a. m. to 12:30 p. m., when the Spanish flag on the government buildings at Cavite was hauled down, and the crippled Spanish warships withdrew, some of them burning.

The American casualties were seven slightly wounded. On the Spanish side there were 381 killed and wounded. A peace protocol was signed Aug. 12, and on Dec. 10 the treaty of Paris gave the Philippines, Guam, and Puerto Rico to the United States, the latter agreeing to pay $20,000,000.

Acquisition of the islands marked the beginning of a long drawn out controversy over whether they were worth keeping and whether they were worth defending. That controversy was drowned in the waters of Pearl Harbor last Sunday.

Named for Spanish King.

The Philippines were named for King Philip II. of Spain after their existence was related to Europeans by Magellan in 1521. Composed of 7,083 islands—only 2,441 with names—lying 500 miles off the southeast coast of Asia, the group extends 1,152 miles north and south, and 683 miles east and west, roughly in the form of an isosceles triangle. They are of volcanic, coral, and other formations, and include 114,000 square miles of territory.

The Hawaiian Islands were discovered by Capt. Cook in 1778 and were annexed by the United States in 1897. They comprise eight inhabited and several uninhabited islands lying 2,091 miles west of San Francisco, with an area of 6,412 square miles.

Guam, largest of the Mariana groups and governed as a naval station by the United States, is 5,000 miles from San Francisco and 1,500 miles east of Manila. It is 30 miles long and 7 miles wide.

Wake a Dot in Pacific.

Guam was discovered by Magellan in 1521 and remained under Spanish rule until a United States cruiser, the U. S. S. Houston, took it in June, 1898.

Wake Island, an inconsequential dot in the Pacific until it became a trans-Pacific airways stop, is the largest of three specks of land clustered about 2,000 miles from Honolulu in a direct line with Manila. It was discovered by the British in 1796 but was never settled, and came into possession of the United States in 1899.

Midway Island, another airways station, lies 1,200 miles from Honolulu and only 2,240 miles from Japan. It is a coral atoll five miles in circumference. It became American soil in 1867.

The Carolines are northwest of Fiji and have been under Japanese mandate since the World war. The Portugese navigator, Diego da Roche, reported finding them in 1527. In 1899 Germany bought them from Spain and held them until they passed under Japanese control.

Formosa, another Japanese island, is an elongated oval 225 miles in length and 60 to 80 in width in the western Pacific between the south and east China seas. It was acquired by Japan after the Sino-Japanese war in 1895.

LOS ANGELES GETS AIR RAID WARNING; STRANGE PLANE SEEN

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 11 (AP).—Sirens sounded a preliminary air raid warning from 10 to 11 p. m. tonight. The civil air raid warning officer at the 4th interceptor command said the warning did not call for a blackout and applied only to the Los Angeles area.

The officer explained that the warning indicated that an unidentified plane which "could not be claimed by any of our organizations" had been sighted in this area. He said it was "a precautionary and preliminary signal."

Considerable confusion as to the meaning of the warning existed. Some lights were blacked out immediately, including street lights. Police knocked on doors ordering "lights out."

In downtown streets display window lights continued in most cases to glow brightly.

Lloyds Refuses to Insure Halifax Against Bombing

HALIFAX, N. S., Dec. 11 (AP).—Lloyds of London has refused to underwrite further bombardment insurance on Halifax property, the city's civilian emergency committee was advised today.

FABRIC EXPERTS RECOMMEND SUPER SUDS!
Here's How to Wash Rayons, Silks and Wool
NEW YORK, Nov. 3—Better Fabrics Testing Bureau, widely-known authorities on all textile and fabric subjects, say "Wash rayons, silks, and woolens in Super Suds." Here are their expert instructions:
Test a small patch in plain water for color-fastness. If color runs, it's not washable. (Test woolens in soapy water.)
Wash garments separately, by hand.
Use lukewarm suds as follows: Dissolve Super Suds completely in warm water, then add cold water to get lukewarm suds.
Do not soak. Wash quickly and gently. Do not rub, wring or twist. Woolens especially shrink from rubbing—avoid any excessive handling while wet.
Rinse thoroughly, gently, in clean, lukewarm water.
Roll in towel, but don't leave there. Never dry woolens in excessive heat or direct rays of sun.
Shape garment over ironing board before ironing. Use a moderate iron.
Certain types of weaves and prints should never be washed. Many makers guarantee washability.

PLAN TO REGISTER MALES 18 TO 64 FOR WAR EFFORT

Congress Lifts Ban on Overseas Service.

Vote 10 Billions

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP). —A war supply bill carrying approximately 10 billion dollars was given speedy approval late today by the senate appropriations committee as it added 500 millions for additional fighting planes for the navy. Sen. Kenneth McKellar [D., Tenn.], chairman of the subcommittee which handled the measure, said he hoped to get senate passage tomorrow and send the big fund back to the house for action on senate increases over the house bill.

BY WALTER TROHAN.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—Disclosure of a study of plans to call for registration of the nation's manhood of 40,000,000 males from 18 to 64 years for military or civilian defense service was followed today by congessional removal of all restrictions relative to use of citizen soldiers anywhere in the world.

Extension of the period of service of all army personnel until six months after the end of the war, unless the President terminates such service at an earlier date, was included in a resolution which the senate and house of representatives passed and sent to the White House.

The senate vote on the resolution was 86 to 0 and the house passed it on an unanimous voice vote. Sen. Hiram Johnson [R., Cal.], who had blocked unanimous consent for the passage of the AEF resolution yesterday, supported it today.

AEF Forbidden by Law.

Sen. Robert R. Reynolds [D., N. C.], chairman of the military affairs committee, explained that such legislation is required because the selective service and training act of 1940 and the National Guard mobilization act of 1940 forbade the President to send conscripts and National Guardsmen to fight outside the western hemisphere except in the territories and possessions of the United States.

Announcement of the plans to register virtually all of the nation's manhood was made by Brig. Gen. Louis B. Hershey, director of selective service. He estimated 10,000,000 men would be called to the army and 30,000,000 would remain in civilian life on defense and other tasks.

"We've got to think in terms of using every individual, men and women," Gen. Hershey said. "We've got to find a place for everybody." He emphasized that no abrupt changes should be expected and that there need be no fear of drastic changes which would "wreck our national life."

Needs Flexible System.

The need is for a broad and flexible national registration to implement conduct of the war in view of inevitable demands from the army and also the navy for greater man power. Altho the navy at present does not take draftees, the navy high command has indicated that it is seriously considering conscription to man the fleet.

The present age limits for registration are 21 to 35 years. The ages for service are from 21 to 27 years inclusive. Before steps are taken to broaden the age limits, the number of men in the present 21 to 27 age bracket on active duty can be raised from 800,000 to 3,000,000.

Would Raise Another Million.

If congress gives permission to induct men from 28 to 35 years inclusive, another 1,000,000 men might be raised for the army and navy to make the total 4,000,000 men.

Hershey estimated that there are 17,500,000 in the 21 to 35 age bracket. Of this number 10,000,000 are from 21 to 27 years old. Deferment because of dependents, physical defects and employment in defense industries has cut the number of men available in this age bracket to 1,500,000, he said.

"I don't visualize five or six million men marching off to war," Gen. Hershey said. "But we must try to be ready thru a measured approach to the problem.

"We undoubtedly are soon going to consider the registration of women."

VOLUNTEERS JAM FOUR RECRUITING OFFICES IN CITY

Applicants Must Have Birth Certificates.

Chicago's recruiting offices were jammed yesterday.

"It's not a question of getting enough men in here," said Lieut. Col. Edward F. Shaifer, in charge of army recruiting, "it's a question of weeding them out in a hurry and getting the men into the army."

Similar conditions existed in the three other recruiting offices and officers asked that one thing be emphasized: Every volunteer must have his birth certificate with him.

Army to Open Branch.

Today the army will open an enlistment branch at 515 South Franklin street, where men classified 1-A by their draft board will be accepted for enlistment in the army. The main office is at 460 South State street.

The army is on a full wartime basis and all American men between the ages of 18 and 35 may enlist. Those who are married also are eligible if they sign an affidavit that their families will be provided for during their enlistment. All enlistments henceforth are for the period of the emergency and for six months after the end of the war.

Lieut. D. N. Goldenson, watching activity in the navy office on the 7th floor of the United States courthouse, said about 70 men were being sworn in every day.

Marine Requirements Stiff.

In the marine headquarters on the same floor, Lieut. Col. Chester L. Fordney, in charge of recruiting, said the corps has not relaxed its rigid physical requirements and so far only about 25 men a day have been sworn in and sent to San Diego, Cal.

On the 8th floor of the courthouse, Chief Boatswain A. C. Stewart, in charge of coast guard recruiting, said his organization is inducting about 30 men a day.

Local draft boards were notified by Paul G. Armstrong, state director of selective service, to send all men now classified in 1-A to army medical centers for final examination. If they pass the examinations they will be inducted after Jan. 5, regardless of whether the local board's quotas have been filled. The order applies to 2,450 men in Cook county.

Mrs. Barbara Field Bliss Receives Divorce in Reno

Reno, Nev., Dec. 11 [Special].—Mrs. Barbara Field Bliss, daughter of Marshall Field III., received a divorce today from Anthony A. Bliss, grandson of the late Cornelius Bliss, former cabinet officer, on the grounds of cruelty. The couple were married at New York Dec. 22, 1937, and have one child, Barbara. Agreement was filed on custody, support, and property affairs.

MAP PLANS TO FORM 4 NAVAL AIR UNITS IN 2 MONTH PERIOD

Fifty-two war veterans, members of the First World War Naval Aviation Committee of Chicago, met last night in the naval reserve armory to plan formation of four more naval aviation squadrons to aid in America's defense.

The group, of which Warren V. Woody is chairman, nas organized two squadrons—Chicago's Own, now at the Corpus Christi, Tex., base, and the Chicago Blackhawk squadron, in training at the Glenview airport.

For the four new squadrons 140 aviation cadets [35 to a squadron] and 500 mechanics will be sought. Automobile plants and other places employing trained mechanics will be canvassed for men who can learn to service naval warbirds quickly. It is hoped to organize the squadrons in 60 days.

Prespective pilots may apply to Lieut. Carl G. Olson, senior member of the naval flight selection board, and mechanics to Lieut. David Goldenson at the Chicago recruiting office.

PRIVATE FLYING MAY BE LIMITED TO FAIR WEATHER

Uncertainties in connection with operation of federal radio beams and other navigational facilities due to air alarms and blackouts along both Atlantic and Pacific coasts is expected to restrict civilian flying to good weather conditions. Several commercial air lines have restricted their operations to "contact" weather flying along the coasts and others will follow.

American Airlines at Phoenix, Ariz., announced last night that as a safety precaution its planes would no longer make night flights westward. Westbound planes arriving at Phoenix at sundown or later will remain at Phoenix until dawn. The line said this was ordered "because radio beams along the coast may be turned off at any time in defense of the Pacific area."

United Air Lines, Eastern Airlines, and other coastal operators, including Transcontinental and Western Air, have directed that their pilots fly in accordance with contact flight regulations if ranges are cut off. In case of an alarm both air line and private planes in the air will turn back from the coast area or land at the nearest safe airport.

Resume Bomb Policy Sales in Los Angeles; $1 Per $100

Los Angeles, Cal., Dec. 11 (AP).—Lloyd's of London resumed sale of bomb assurance today, at a premium of $1 for $100 valuation. Last week the cost was 10 cents per $100. From Monday until today policies were refused.

STATE TO FORM FLYING CORPS TO AID IN DEFENSE

Men Ineligible for Army Urged to Join Militia.

Immediate organization of a state air corps to supplement defense work of the Illinois Reserve Militia was ordered last night by Gov. Dwight H. Green. The governor ordered Adj. Gen. Leo F. Boyle to begin recruiting of both resident pilots and their aircraft. Gen. Boyle promptly announced a meeting for Sunday in the La Salle hotel in Chicago.

Gov. Green said the air corps would aid in guarding against sabotage, espionage, and other subversive acts, would transport troops, provide needed courier service, and assist in blackout, evacuation and emergency relief work, and as air patrols.

In addition the state hopes to supply volunteer members of the corps with instruction in radio, meterology, navigation, map reading, camouflage detection, plane identification, and other subjects.

Calls for Enlistments.

Adj. Gen. Boyle also issued a call for volunteers for the militia as additional units of the state home guard went on anti-sabotage duty at four principal airports and 17 bridges on the Mississippi river.

"If you've been deferred from the army for minor physical ailments or other reasons," he said, "it is your duty to join the Reserve Militia."

Adj. Gen. Boyle said that about 250 members of the militia are now on duty at the airports and bridges, and that the remaining 4,950 men and officers are awaiting demands on their services by Maj. Gen. Joseph M. Cummins, commander of the 6th corps army area.

$5 a Day for Privates.

Militiamen called to active duty are paid by the state, privates at the rate of $4 daily, with higher salaries for those of higher rank. Age limits are from 18 to 50, and most of the present militiamen have had military training.

Two Chicago meetings yesterday laid plans for all-inclusive civil defense activities in this area and thruout the state. Mayor Kelly met with village presidents and mayors and police and fire chiefs of the suburbs in the council chambers and told of the necessity of keeping a close watch over utility plants, sewers, water supply, and bridges, as well as of plants engaged in war work. Gen. Cummins and Rear Adm. John Downes, commandant of the 9th naval district, were present.

Col. Thomas R. Gowenlock, appointed by Gov. Green as coördinator of Illinois law enforcing agencies, met in the Racquet club with representatives of the state's attorney's office, United States attorney's office, the sheriff, city and state police, the army, navy, marines, and state militia.

Gowenlock Outlines Duties.

Col. Gowenlock said that the principal duty of the civil authorities is to guard against sabotage, industrial riots, prison riots, and political and revolutionary activities harmful to the United States.

Mayor Kelly said that union labor had volunteered workers for defense plants and that within the week he expected to have at least 20,000 persons in the civilian defense effort.

Col. Gowenlock said that he hoped the city would take on another 1,000 policemen, and added that he believed the government would do well to exempt policemen from the draft. He said, also, that he expected the assistance of commercial broadcasting stations as needed.

Airports Already Guarded.

Chicago airport is among the places already under guard by the state militia. Sixteen men and an officer were placed there, and eight men and an officer at each of the fields in Joliet, Peoria, and Springfield.

Sixty policemen were detailed last night to work in three shifts guarding 10 radio stations and three broadcasting companies on the north side.

Loop office buildings also are being safeguarded against sabotage or bombing and their tenants taught blackout technique and how to safeguard themselves during raids. This was disclosed yesterday as Leo J. Sheridan, head of the Building Managers' association of Chicago, named a committee on civilian defense under Earle Shultz, manager of the Marquette and Commonwealth Edison buildings.

The sanitary district board of trustees yesterday approved hiring of 40 additional guards for the locks at the mouth of the river and at Lockport and for sewage disposal plants.

AMERICA FIRST WILL DISSOLVE; URGES WAR AID

Victory Chief Goal Now, Gen. Wood Says.

Gen. Robert E. Wood, acting national chairman of the America First committee, announced the committee's dissolution last night.

"The period of democratic debate on the issue of entering the war is over; the time for military action is here," Gen. Wood's statement read. "Therefore, the America First committee has determined immediately to cease all functions and to dissolve as soon as that can legally be done. And finally, it urges all those who have followed its lead to give their full support to the war effort of the nation, until peace is attained."

Act at Committee Meeting.

This announcement came after a meeting of most of the national committee of the organization which, since its founding in September, 1940, fought the noninterventionist cause in the United States. One absentee was Charles A. Lindbergh, but Gen. Wood, in response to a question, said that Lindbergh had given his approval, informally, of any action that the committee might take.

The dissolution of national headquarters in the Board of Trade building was under way last night. The employés and volunteer workers who have staffed the organization began clearing out files and packing records which will be kept.

Gen. Wood said the only thing yet to be done is the legal dissolution of the committee, which must be accomplished, since it is incorporated under the laws of Illinois. He added that he and other members wanted to make sure that no other organization could use the name at a future date.

Objectives Are Recalled.

In his statement, Gen. Wood declared that the committee had been organized with two primary objectives: "An impregnable defense for our nation," and "avoidance of involvement in the European and Asiatic war."

"Our principles were right," he continued. "Had they been followed, war could have been avoided. No good purpose can now be served by considering what might have been, had our objectives been attained.

"On Dec. 7, Japan launched an attack upon us. On Dec. 8, congress declared war on Japan. Today, congress declared war on Germany and Italy.

Victory, Objective Now.

"There is no longer any question about our involvement in the conflict in Europe and Asia. We are at war. Today, tho there may be many important subsidiary considerations, the primary objective is not difficult to state. It can be completely defined in one word—victory.

"While the executive branch of the government will take charge of the prosecution of war, the fundamental rights of American citizens under our constitution and bill of rights must be respected.

"The long range aims and policies of our country must be determined by the people thru congress. We hope that secret treaties committing America to imperialistic aims or vast burdens in other parts of the world shall be scrupulously avoided to the end that this nation shall become the champion of a just and lasting peace."

Earlier in the day, Harland H. Allen, chairman, announced the dissolution of the Chicago Committee to Defend America, pioneer interventionist organization.

At Traffic Club Good Fellow Luncheon

TRAFFIC CLUB'S GOOD FELLOWS GO INTO ACTION

1,600 at Luncheon to Raise Funds.

The largest crowd ever to attend a program sponsored by the Traffic Club of Chicago thronged the main ballroom and balcony of the Palmer House yesterday noon to do its share in bringing a happy Christmas to 400 needy families in Chicago.

It was the sixth Good Fellow luncheon given by the Traffic club and was attended by 1,600 guests who paid $3.20 each for a ticket. The money will be used to buy Christmas baskets heaped with clothing, food, and toys. The luncheon will make possible gifts to 1,800 youngsters included in the 400 families which otherwise would not be visited by Santa.

Artists Donate Services.

The luncheon was followed by a stage program of radio, café, and theatrical artists who donated their talents as their Good Fellow contributions. Edgar Guest, poet and philosopher, spoke at the luncheon for the fourth time.

Dr. Albert W. Palmer, president of the Chicago Theological seminary, speaking on "Christmas, an Island of Good Will," said the work of the Good Fellows and the Traffic club some day would spread to continental proportions.

William Haywood, Traffic club president, told the 1,600 guests that the Good Fellow cause has the two fold purpose of aiding the needy and building morale among the less fortunate. William Cox served as toastmaster.

Barn Dance Tonight.

The Chicago Association of Life Underwriters, Inc., will hold a charity barn dance in the La Salle hotel tonight to augment the Good Fellow fund. At a meeting at the La Salle this noon the Interfraternity club will make plans for a benefit program to be held at the same place Dec. 22. Edward A. Twerdahl is general chairman.

The Good Fellow campaign is an annual drive sponsored by this newspaper for Chicago's unfortunate families whose children otherwise would be missed by Santa at Christmas.

Cash contributions should be made payable to the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., Good Fellow fund. This money will be used for the purchase of baskets to be delivered on Christmas eve. The Good Fellow telephone number is Superior 0100.

FT. SHERIDAN AWAITS SANTA CLAUS; HOPES HE'LL BRING LIBRARY

There is no "Quiet, Please!" sign in the little library at Fort Sheridan, and a visit yesterday showed the reason why. Music from a juke box and radios in other parts of the Service Center building would make such a sign pointless.

This is only one of the shortcomings which make the men wonder whether Santa Claus will deposit an adequate library at the military post.

Civilians and organizations have been generous in contributing books. But because shelf space is lacking 1,000 books are in storage and many still in shipping cases.

Another flaw is that the quarters on the second floor of the Service Center provide room for only 20 chairs and 5 davenports.

TELL OF ORDER BY LIEUTENANT TO NAB ACCUSER

Policemen were the chief witnesses yesterday at the civil service trial of Lieut. Harry J. O'Donnell, former acting captain at the Des Plaines street police station, now under suspension.

Patrolmen Henry J. Galanter and Philip Mulvey told the trial board O'Donnell told them to arrest Gerhard Ragnes, 551 West Madison street, and "throw him in the basement." Ragnes had written a letter to Police Commissioner Allman complaining of conditions in the district last October. The charges resulted in O'Donnell's suspension.

O'Donnell denied any such order, saying he assigned the men to investigate the charges by Ragnes and that he ordered Ragnes locked up after the policemen told him Ragnes had used abusive language to them. Supervising Capt. John Stege of the 4th division told the board that O'Donnell always had been a good policeman, but that it was his personal opinion "it is not a good idea to arrest a man who complains to the commissioner."

INDICT DENTIST SECOND TIME ON FRAUD CHARGES

Dr. William M. Muchow, an Evanston dentist, was indicted by a federal grand jury a second time yesterday on charges of mail fraud and violations of the securities and exchange laws in the sale of unregistered shares in a purported gold and chromium mine in Oregon.

J. Albert Woll, United States attorney, and W. McNeil Kennedy, regional director of the Securities and Exchange commission, said Muchow defrauded midwest investors of about $125,000 thru his stock selling scheme.

BANK OF NAPLES, AXIS FIRMS HERE, CLOSED BY U. S.

Order Freezes Assets of 5½ Million Dollars.

United States treasury department agents yesterday closed and padlocked the Banco di Napoli Trust company, 1601 West Roosevelt road, freezing all assets, including personal accounts. The bank is controled by the Bank of Naples, Naples, Italy.

The Banco di Napoli, at the close of business last June 30, had deposits of $4,744,000, and resources of about $5,500,000. It had been operating under a special license since the order freezing assets of axis nations.

N. R. Oberwortmann, chief national bank examiner for the 7th federal reserve district, was placed in charge of the seized bank.

Only Axis Affiliate.

The bank was the only Italian institution operating in this district since the freezing order and there were no German nor Japanese banks.

Also padlocked were the Italian Line offices at 333 North Michigan avenue; the office of Hautz & Co., 160 North La Salle street, a brokerage firm dealing chiefly in foreign exchange, and the North German Lloyd Line's former offices at 130 West Randolph street.

38 Aliens Seized.

The total of enemy aliens seized in the Chicago area reached 38 yesterday. One of this number is Japanese, the remainder German or Italian.

Meanwhile, 48 more German and Italian nationals, about to take their final oaths as American citizens, were notified that they would be unable to do so. This brings to 217 the total rejected in the last few days. Altho the federal order Monday, under this step was taken, granted a 90 day period for appeals, it is considered certain that the deferment will be indefinite.

POLICE AND FIRE CHIEFS TO ASK FOR MORE MEN

The city council's finance committee today will hear from Police Commissioner Allman and Fire Commissioner Corrigan on their budget requirements for 1942. Each department chief has asked for 300 extra men in 1942.

These demands were not allowed by the controler in his estimates to the committee, but Mayor Kelly since has indicated that, because of war needs, it may be advisable to add a number of men to each department.

Yesterday the committee considered the budget requests from Philip Harrington, commissioner of subways and superhighways, for $15,670,000, of which 10 millions is for construction and the remainder for equipment. This money is to come from the traction fund.

Ex-Soldier Was First Hawaii Civilian Killed

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 [Special].—The first civilian known here to have died in the Japanese attack on Hawaii on Sunday was named today by the war department as Melvin J. Dodson of Claysburg, Pa. Dodson was a former private, first class, in the army, who was discharged on last Sept. 6 and had accepted employment with a civilian firm in Hawaii.

OFFICERS IN 33D SHIFTED TO AIR CORPS SPOTTERS

15 Relieved of Jobs in Combat Units.

Camp Forrest, Tenn., Dec. 11 [Special].—Orders directing the immediate transfer of 15 officers of Illinois' 33d division to new duties at air corps interceptor command headquarters in New York and Florida were received here today from Maj. Gen. E. S. Adams, adjutant general of the United States army.

Camp Forrest authorities said the men to be transferred are over the age limits for their respective ranks, and are being shifted from duty with combat troops units in accordance with the war department's effort to put younger men in command of fighting troops. Six of the officers are from Chicago.

Three Captains Affected.

Gen. Adams' telegram ordered three captains to duty with the 1st interceptor command at Mitchell field. They are Merl F. Crowley of Chicago, of the 131st infantry; Charles W. Pearce of Champaign, of the 130th infantry, and Glenn Younger of Paris, Ill., of the 130th infantry.

The following first lieutenants were directed to report as soon as possible to the 3d interceptor command at Drew field, Fla.: Joseph L. Ackroy of Chicago, 131st infantry; Theodore E. Berglund of Chicago, 33d division special troops; Gerald E. Cooper of Decatur, 130th infantry; Walter W. Downs of Chicago, 132d infantry; Arthur W. Hubbard of Plattville, 129th infantry; Walter E. Meisenheimer of Peoria, 130th infantry; Stanley R. Sims of Paris, 130th infantry; Wallace A. Tidd, of Peoria, 130th infantry; Charles F. Twomey of Chicago, 131st infantry; Jesse M. Whalen of Carbondale, 130th infantry; Cecil M. William of Chicago, 131st infantry, and Harry E. Ekholm of Shelbyville, 122d field artillery.

One Goes to Washington.

Another officer, Capt. David J. Fortier of the 124th field artillery, also a Chicagoan, was ordered to temporary duty at the office of the chief of the air corps in Washington, D. C.

The combat age limit for a captain is 42 years, and 37 for a first lieutenant.

ANKARA HEARS FRANCE SHIFTS SHIPS TO ITALY

BERNE, Switzerland, Dec. 11 (AP).—The Ankara radio reported tonight that France had agreed to transfer some warships to Italy to convoy Italian transports in the Mediterranean. This, the broadcast indicated, had been arranged in yesterday's meeting of Vichy Vice Premier Darlan and Italian Foreign Minister Ciano at Turin.

The radio, which did not give the source of its information, said also that France had given Italy the use of the Port of Bizerte in Tunisia.

Leahy Talks with Petain.

VICHY, Dec. 11 (AP).—United States Ambassador Adm. William D. Leahy was received by Chief of State Marshal Petain and Vice Premier Adm. Darlan for a 20 minute interview today shortly after word was received of the German-Italian declaration of war on the United States.

INDICT CREAMERY AND OFFICIALS ON FRAUD CHARGE

An indictment charging the Union Grove Creamery company, 1523 North Ridgeway avenue, and three of its officials with defrauding farmers of several thousand dollars was returned by the federal grand jury yesterday.

The individual defendants are Soren Sorensen, president; Thorvald C. Sorenson, a director, and George G. Rowlett, cashier. Specifically, the defendants are charged with making false returns on their utilization of milk to the federal milk administrator.

Milk bottled and sold as a fluid commands a higher price than that resold as cream, butter or cheese. The indictment related that Union Grove had reported use in the lower grades when the milk was actually used in the higher. The period covered was from October, 1939, to December, 1940.

Michigan Pursuit Pilot Killed in Training Crash

Mitchel Field, N. Y., Dec. 11 (AP).—Second Lieut. Hudson G. Dunks, pursuit pilot, was killed today when the plane he was operating on a routine training flight crashed on a hillside at Groton, Conn., and burned. Dunks was born March 14, 1914, in Union City, Mich., and was graduated in 1939 from the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor.

REPORT WAGNER NAMED IN TWO PERJURY CASES

Joseph Wagner Jr., one of the owners of the Wagner Dairy Products company, involved in a labor dispute with the AFL Milk Wagon Drivers union, Local 753, yesterday was reported to have been named by the grand jury in two true bills charging subornation of perjury.

One bill, according to Assistant State's Attorney Leslie Curtis, was based on the testimony of three drivers for the dairy, who told Edmund W. Burke, master in chancery, when testifying at a hearing on a petition for an injunction to restrain the union from picketing stores supplied by the dairy, that they were being paid the union wage of $48 a week plus commissions.

The second true bill, according to Curtis, was based on the story of James Koche, 5226 West 24th place, Cicero. Koche is reported to have told the jurors that on Nov. 7, when before Police Magistrate Frank Pavek, he supplied a false alibi for Wagner, who was accused of having slugged Albert Shapiro, 3902 Argyle street, a union picket.

—Stephen Decatur.

THE LIGHT AHEAD.

Out of our profound national humiliation—no other phrase fits—over what happened in Hawaii, it is still possible to extract some grains of comfort.

As a nation we regarded the prospect of war with Japan with cocksureness. The manner in which the event came has cured us of that. A British editor, commenting on Hawaii, noted that his people have never ceased to see Hitler as the menacing giant of Dunkirk and advised Americans to think of Japan henceforth as the power that dealt the blow at Pearl Harbor. The folly of underestimating the enemy has been ended.

Many people had cause to believe that our entry into war would be followed at an early date by some such fantastic scheme as the dispatch of an army of invasion, perhaps to Siam. Such an attempt is now presumably ruled out. We are saved from a disaster infinitely greater than anything that can have happened in Hawaii.

For such an attempt, in the present state of equipment and training of our army, would surely have been disastrous. In the army we may now be sure that any deficiencies in morale have been cured. Our soldiers now have no doubt why they are in service. But enthusiasm alone cannot win battles, and in respect to training, leadership, and equipment the army today is no whit better off than it was last week. We may be sure that the army will work harder than ever before to remedy these deficiencies, but like all the rest of us it still has a long, hard road to travel.

But the greatest comfort we can gather from Hawaii is this: The bombing plane can sink the battleship. It was not only our navy that suffered at Pearl Harbor. It was every navy in the world. Battleships have become just a naval Maginot line. The disaster to the British off Singapore and the latest, most welcome news that army bombers have sent down a specially protected Japanese battleship serves only to drive the lesson home that battleships are obsolete in modern warfare.

To replace any battleship irretrivably lost at Hawaii will take at least four years. For the cost of one of them we can have more than 200 of the best bombing planes in the world. And we can have them in months, not years. That is a matter of real comfort.

The eclipse of the battleship by the plane has not come over night. Its approach was heralded many months ago by THE TRIBUNE when we saw in the experience of Crete, piled on previous incidents in the European war, the proof that the plane had rendered fleets of little value in narrow waters.

Hawaii only completed the proof. The fleets of the future will consist of airplane carriers, protected by their own planes from hostile air attack and protected against submarine attack by smaller warships. Battles will be joined at distances of hundreds of miles instead of 15 or 20 miles.

We must rush to aircraft carriers. Fortunately for us and the British, the fast passenger liner assumes a weight in this new naval warfare such as no merchant ship has had in nearly a century. Merchant ships can become improvised aircraft carriers. Indeed, the French liner Normandie, now interned in New York, was designed with this in mind, and no time should be lost in taking over and converting her. The improvised carriers will not be as good as naval carriers, which take as long to build as any other major warship, but they can get the planes to the fighting front, which is what counts most.

And of all the nations in the world the United States stands to benefit most by the naval supremacy of the bomber, because we can turn out more bombers than any other nation in the world and, given time, can turn them out faster. Given time—that is the catch.

We Americans have an exaggerated idea of our present aircraft production because recent reports have lumped all types of planes in a single reassuring total. All are not equally easy to build, and the big bombers come most slowly of all.

Winston Churchill, on the radio Tuesday, described a nation's war output in terms something like these: "First year, nothing at all; second year, a trickle; third year, quite a lot; fourth year, all you want." Britain, he said, is in its third year now; America in its second. Germany was in the fourth year when the war started. So is Japan now.

We must not only build the planes, we must train the men to fly them. That takes at least a year. Until then we must husband our resources, hold what we can, work and work and work. The prospect is gloomy, but there is light to be seen ahead.

WITCH HUNTS IN WAR TIME.

It will be no contribution to the winning of the war if the senseless witch hunts of the last war are renewed. The news is indisputable that a fifth column is functioning in the Philippines and that the Japanese had plenty of spies planted in Hawaii. There probably are fifth columnists and spies in this country. The nation must be on the alert to see that they do not damage our cause.

But this is not to be interpreted as encouragement to overzealous patriots who see in everybody with a German or Italian grandfather a potential menace to the national safety. Civilians should not persecute the countless loyal Americans who have more or less close ancestral ties with the countries which are aligned against us. The Federal Bureau of Investigation, the police, and the service intelligence branches can be relied upon to deal with dangerous aliens or enemy sympathizers.

Another word of counsel would be that acts of vandalism against the property of aliens or against other things associated with the enemy are a useless dissipation of energy. Those who cut down the beautiful Japanese cherry trees along the Potomac during a blackout in Washington have taken leave of their wits. Are we to root up all our chrysanthemums because they came to us thru Japan? Or destroy the Wooded Island, as some one suggested? Are we to have a repetition of the "liberty cabbage" hysteria of the last war?

The people should impose their own discipline upon themselves.

THE TRIBUNE'S WAR POLICY.

Our policy is, as always, to tell the public the truth, fearlessly as possible consistent with the national interests, and to give what leadership we can with one object in view—the successful, victorious, and speedy prosecution of the war.

For years before the war broke out this newspaper fearlessly warned the country of the approaching cataclysm and urged that we should make all preparations. We foretold the importance of the air, and emphasized that victory would go to the side that won predominance in that sphere. We were only partially successful owing to the unaccountable blindness of many of our leading men and contemporary newspapers. Had we been adequately prepared it is unlikely that the war would ever have broken out. Unfortunately we were a voice almost alone, and altho undoubtedly we accomplished much, it was not enough.

We would like to thank all those who so loyally stood by us when we became unpopular because we spoke the truth. Our newspaper has always striven for the best interests of the country—irrespective of popularity or circulation. It is a tradition we inherited. We shall continue in the same way—knowing that those interested in this newspaper would not have it otherwise.

[Editorials are composed by a staff of writers after conferences with the editor. In keeping with the practice of leading newspapers, authorship is not credited. Exception is made in the case of the foregoing. It was written by the Hon. Esmond Harmsworth, publisher of the London Daily Mail, the London Evening News, and the Sunday Dispatch, and read as part of the report he made to the stockholders of Associated Newspapers, Limited, at a meeting on June 11, 1940.]

AT WAR WITH GERMANY, ITALY, AND JAPAN.

Resolution, not hysterics, will serve the country best in the days ahead. That will doubtless be the reaction of the whole nation, for the declaration of war against the United States by Hitler and Mussolini was in effect the confirmation of a reality. We are at war with Germany and Italy. The situation as it now exists conforms to the ideas of Americans who were profoundly convinced that the defense of the country, its security, and its future required full participation in the war.

They believed that the United States would be exposed to conquest if Japan were not driven back into its own territory and if its teeth were not pulled, and if the Nazi and Fascist systems of government were not destroyed.

The United States has now committed its fate to these undertakings. The alternative to them, which had the support of many people also fully convinced, is out of reach. It has been eliminated by the events of this week.

The country accepts this decision of the issue which had been debated here. Now our security and future depend upon the outcome of the war. We shall never know what the alternative might have given us, because it has disappeared. We are committed to war against the Nazis, the Fascists and their satellites, and the Japanese, until a favorable outcome has been determined.

Germany and Italy apparently found that their last reason for maintaining the pretext of nonbelligerent relations with the United States disappeared with the attack upon Hawaii. America, then, could be given a war on two fronts. Our European enemies accepted the fact and declared the reality. They may have only anticipated action in congress, where there was a growing sentiment for dismissing the fiction that we were not at war and by appropriate action conceding that we were.

It would be a military disadvantage even for a fully prepared nation to take on powerful enemies on both sides of its protecting waters, and we must admit that we are not as yet prepared. Our burocracy has brought some military misfortunes upon the nation at the very beginning. Part of our naval strength has been lost or seriously impaired and we are defending the Philippines gallantly but at great disadvantage.

A week ago we could not have anticipated that when war came we would be off to such a bad start, but our natural position is still strong and now that our destiny is committed the people will have the courage to face their immediate problems.

The native talent of the country will come to the front and war will be prosecuted, as it must be, for the defense of the land. The difficulties are greater than they were in 1917 and the enemy alliance is more powerful. But the resources of our country are greater.

We cannot afford to minimize the effort which must be made for the task which lies before us. Nor can we afford to dissipate our energies and our war effort by pointless alarms and excursions. We are now engaged in the greatest war ever fought by the American people. They must win it and win a peace which will protect them and their future. They can achieve both victories if they remain calm in meeting the stern facts that confront them. The nation must have a minimum of hysteria and running around in circles and a maximum of quiet determination.

THE FACTS.

[Birmingham Age-Herald.]

Many persons wishing, understandably, for the collapse of Germany as a result of substitution of materials—the use of "ersatz"—in military as well as civilian production inside Nazi Germany will do well to turn their attention to facts released last week by aircraft experts in California.

Detailed study of a Messerschmitt ME-110—one of Hitler's best combat planes—which had been shot down over England and shipped to the United States, reveals that the Germans are using nothing but the best in the construction of their airplanes. Highest quality alloy steels, copper, natural rubber, aluminum, nickel, and other materials go into the construction of these fighting ships.

It was pointed out that, in addition to fine quality materials, the German aircraft producers had reduced to a minimum the number of connecting fittings in the plane as compared with numerous American fittings requiring the most accurate production on similar type planes.

Of course, American aircraft experts will learn much from this plane—and from others which have been shot down in England. But, perhaps, a greater lesson is to be learned by the average American citizen who must realize that Germany is still very strong, altho there are many factors working toward some kind of eventual collapse within Nazi Germany.

FLOTSAM AND JETSAM.

The "stream of consciousness" plays strange tricks, as any one who has read a modern novel should know. After the news from Hawaii, the following lines from "Hamlet" have been an undercurrent of all our thoughts:

Sleeping within my orchard,
My custom always of the afternoon,
Upon my secure hour thy uncle stole,
With juice of cursed hebenon in a vial.

* * *

And also these lines from a poem of another war, "The Fighting Race," by Joseph I. C. Clarke:

"Read out the names!" and Burke sat back,
And Kelly drooped his head,
While Shea—they call him Scholar Jack—
Went down the list of the dead. . . .

Said Kelly, and Burke, and Shea.

There was an American writer named Lafcadio Hearn whose taste for the exotic caused him to become a Japanese citizen and to seek to interpret the soul of that race. He published a number of beautifully written books on Japanese customs and folklore that were, in their time, highly esteemed among the literati. After 14 years as a Japanese teacher and family man, he confessed disillusionment and died.

Of all living Americans who have been captivated by the art and customs of the Japan that lost its soul in industrialism and imperialism, Burton Holmes will probably feel disillusionment most keenly. His early travel lectures often dealt with the picturesque aspects of Nippon, and the collection of Japanese art objects in his New York apartment has high museum value.

If Americans thought with Japanese minds, the United States might have made a surprise attack on Sept. 2, 1923. It was the day after a great disaster to Japan by earthquake and fire: 150,000 dead, 100,000 injured, 700,000 houses destroyed. . . . We sent abundant aid.

HICKAM FIELD.

Blow softly, gentle island wind, here lies
The skull of Honor torn from Honor's frame,
And from this dust the voice of Honor cries,
Loud and distraught, most heinous Treachery's name.

This spirit-shadowed field, this barrack shattered,
Shall see her rise and bless the russet mud;
Shall see her rise anew and consecrate
This bourne of eagles with a hallowed fire,
And touch the dust and make it dedicate,
O Treachery, that brought these eagles low,

Sultry afternoon sun filtering thru palms. . . . Brilliant umbrella-shaped flame trees of heroic size, great banks of red bloom, almost unreal in their flamboyance. . . . Carromatas, two-wheeled and jittery, jogging along around the Luneta, where lithe little Filipinas and their wasp-waisted amigos stroll hand in hand listening to a band concert or watching a parade. . . . Sunday at the Polo club, the morning given over to the children splashing noisily in the swimming pool, observed from the sidelines by their sloe-eyed amahs, and the afternoon a cosmopolitan gathering at the polo match, sipping Singapore slings between chukkers.

The Intramuros, or Walled City, with its historic gates, where the conquistadores fortified themselves against privateers. . . . The sluggish Pasig strewn with floating hyacinth, and inter-island boats and barges tied up along the embankment. . . . Great open markets, where everything from fish to fabrics can be bought at nominal prices. . . . The rainy season, its typhoon signals, and old native women wading knee-deep and puffing on damp cigars. . . . The popular shopping street called the Escolta, with modern, air-conditioned shops side by side with Chinese bazars.

The big hotel on the bay, where celebrities of all shades, in saris, kimonos, satins and fez, regimentals and mufti, pause between Clippers. . . . The brilliant receptions at Malacañan palace. . . . The bay, bristling with warships of the Asiatic fleet, silhouetted against magnificent sunsets . . . this was Manila!

Tradition has ascribed to Abraham Lincoln, according to the high authority of the "Lincoln Lore" bulletins, 16 "sweethearts" besides Mary Todd, whom he married. Their names or identities:

A so-called "covered wagon girl," Polly Richardson, Elizabeth Tulley, Sarah Lukins, Caroline Meeker, Katy Roby, Julia Evans, Hannah Gentry, Elizabeth Wood, Polly Warnick, Martha Wilson, Ann Rutledge, Mary Owen, Mary Frances Vanderberg, Matilda Edwards, Sarah Rickard.

No doubt his "courting," in most cases, consisted of occasional remarks such as, "Howdy, Sis, how's your Paw?"

THE DISABLED STOMACH.

DYSPEPSIA is an imp of Satan. It upsets the entire system and indicates that food is not being properly handled by the alimentary tract. Nutrition cannot be maintained at par unless the process of assimilation is carried on normally.

No one should have the slightest consciousness that he possesses a stomach other than the fact that a well balanced meal brings satisfaction and a comfortable glow.

But there are countless victims of indigestion. With some an episode will pass quickly. With many, however, the trouble may return again and again until it becomes chronic.

What should we think of first? The stomach—especially in those who are older—may fail to secrete an ample quota of hydrochloric acid. It has been pointed out repeatedly that checks of a cross-section of the population disclose that nearly 20 per cent are either without this essential chemical or do not produce enough.

The cause is not difficult to understand. The gastric juice is manufactured by certain cells of the mucous membrane lining. If disease or abuse has destroyed the factories, the product will be missing. In other words, lacking a fair portion of this velvety layer we need not wonder when—after a test meal—the physician explains "Your acid is insufficient."

A recent survey of several hundred individuals complaining of dyspepsia showed atrophy [wasting] of the glands in 65 per cent. Now this condition did not arise suddenly. It probably occurred subsequent to repeated attacks of irritation with inflammation. The cells of the mucosa were, in the beginning, deeply congested. Later, some of the tiny blood vessels became plugged. With the circulation cut off, patches of the lining surface died—leaving bare the structures beneath. During the engorgement stage, huge quantities of mucus are poured out, some of which may appear in the bowel but most of which is vomited.

The characteristic symptoms are nausea, vomiting, and pain. After the contents of the pouch have been ejected many feel easier. However, a fresh craving for nourishment may come on rapidly. If the patient eats, griping may again occupy the center of the stage. It is well, therefore, to keep the sufferer quiet, give warm fluids, and apply heat to the abdomen.

These individuals are not ulcer victims. It is a question of failure of the gastric juice to do its part. But, back of this, lies a faulty selection of edibles or the excessive use of condiments, including alcohol.

How may we recognize this type of gastric atrophy? In the early stages, the seizures are occasional but as soon as the process becomes extensive the bouts will be more frequent—following every meal. The distress may then be steady and persistent. In such circumstances, neither food nor alkalies will bring relief.

The reason we should combat this disorder promptly is because—when allowed to go on for months anemia may develop. In addition, weight will be lost and strength will fade away. In some instances, a bland diet for a few weeks is all that is required. Of course, it must include all the necessary vitamins and minerals. If hydrochloric acid is absent from the digestive fluid, it should be supplied. No great burden accompanies the use of this simple medicine.

REPLY.

Frequently called "breast pang," this disease of the heart is characterized by paroxysmal attacks of pain in the chest. The feeling of suffocation, of collapse, may be due to the fact that the organ itself is receiving too little oxygen.

WATCH GERMANY!

Chicago, Dec. 9.—The United States and Great Britain should keep a watchful eye toward Germany for the next war movement. Only a few hours after the Japanese attacked American possessions Germany announces she is giving up fighting Moscow, one of their main objectives. Because it's too cold? Not too cold for the Russians or the Finns.

Why should German forces be backtracking slowly from the Russian front, giving an impression that they are beaten back, and at the same time, possibly, be strengthening other positions?

Will Germany spring another surprise on Great Britain or possibly on the United States, surmising that all eyes are turned with greater interest on the far east? It seems to be another typical Hitler movement to quiet down a bit before breaking loose with a mighty force.

As we all know, there is a lull before the storm. So beware!

FOR ALL-OUT UNITY.

Marquette, Mich., Dec. 8.—Now that war has come, every good American will unite to defeat the treacherous enemy. It's too bad that the government was not more suspicious of the enemy, and not better prepared. But we'll make up for all that—every one of us. Here's to good old America—"the Land of the Free and the Home of the Brave." We all want, and I know we're all willing, absolute unity. An all-out unity will secure the perpetuation of our liberties, so precious to us living, and for untold Americans yet to come.

SONGS IN THE CHURCHES.

Chicago, Dec. 10.—Since the people generally have shown their patriotic spirit by pledging allegiance to the flag of the United States and singing the national song, I wish to suggest that on Sunday morning, Dec. 14, all churches in their opening morning services unite in singing "The Star Spangled Banner" and "America," for the glory of God and freedom for all.

POLICE DUTY; THEIR PAY.

Chicago, Dec. 9.—Once again our policemen are asked to sacrifice, and they have responded willingly. They are now on a strict seven day week of 56 hours. What other line of work calls for such long hours today? Yet these men have not received a pay increase in 15 years. Instead they got a cut during the depression which has never been restored. Do the people know that a policeman has to buy his own uniform, revolver and ammunition, all the city supplies is star, cap shield, and club or night stick?

Stop and compare a policeman's pay and expenses with civilian workers today. They are being paid away below 60 cents an hour.

Houghton, Mich., Dec. 8.—When Lou H. Levine in his letter said he was a former resident of the copper country, I surmise he must have lived here during the "horse and buggy" days, because no one could make such silly statements if he knew much about the copper industry in recent years.

In one sentence he says the Mineral Range Mining company is operating here. We never have had a mining company of that name in this whole district.

Our mining companies have been as loyal to our government as any other industry in the country.

WILLIAM WALTER SCOTT.

CITIZENSHIP DENIED.

New York, Dec. 9.—According to the Associated Press, federal Judge William C. Coleman of Baltimore yesterday denied citizenship "until further notice" to Germans and Italians because, he said, the United States is "in effect, at war with those countries. . . . Japan is not merely an avowed ally of Germany and Italy. . . . It is apparent, even to a little child, that Japan is only a puppet of those countries." According to the dispatch Judge Coleman postponed naturalization proceedings including 17 Germans, 12 Italians, and others, while persons of certain other nationalities were permitted to take the oath of allegiance.

The fact that these people were willing to take the oath of allegiance to the United States ought to be the best evidence of their good faith, patriotism, and affection for this country and its institutions. Such people should be encouraged to become citizens and should not be made to feel that they are not wanted here. Their records could be investigated by the court and if nothing were found that would stamp such people as possible fifth columnists, their applications for citizenship should be granted.

The attitude of the court in this case is, unfortunately, not only a slur upon the character of these people but is also a reflection on millions of loyal Italian and German citizens who are residents of the United States. It is, therefore, hoped that not only will Judge Coleman reconsider his decision but that other federal judges will consider the above facts and not follow a similar attitude with respect to other applicants for naturalization. This is America, where a different psychology should reign than that which prevails in the totalitarian states.

UNPAID BALANCE.

Chicago, Dec. 4.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—1. Is there a kangaroo court?

2. Can there be anything done about this? A fellow had a car which he traded for a larger car. He could not keep up payments.

3. He returned the car. The dealer now has two cars, two payments.

4. The dealer took this to the kangaroo court a year ago without notifying this man. They want to stop his pay which means he will lose his job.

5. This lawyer said it was too old to reopen the case and that all he can say is that he got a bum break.

M. S.

1. No, in the sense that we have here and now no court to which such a title is commonly applied. It seems possible that your informant was using it as a disrespectful epithet to apply to a justice of the peace.

2. Depends on the facts.

3. If it was the understanding that he was being released he should have obtained a writing to that effect.

4. This terminology is unintelligible. You can try asking the dealer to give you the official title and address of the court, after which you can look up the record of what was done. If the debtor signed a contract containing a judgment clause, this would authorize entering a judgment against him without serving a summons.

5. The chances of opening a confession judgment depend in part on showing a meritorious defense and in part on showing diligence. Your letter is not clear on either point. In general, confession judgments are not entered before J. P.'s.

LIMITATION PERIOD.

Oak Park, Ill., Dec. 3.—[Legal Friend of the People.]—How long should we keep receipts of bills paid in full on repairs on property or improvements? Also on clothes, etc., paid in full each month?

C. E. P.

The Illinois limitation period is five years on oral agreements and 10 years on written contracts, but a creditor might claim that the period had been extended by part payment or a new promise. Hence it is not practicable to name a definite date for destroying receipts. The decision will depend on the nature of the debt and the reputation of the creditor, as bearing on the practical probability that a future claim may be made.

Test Your Horse Sense

BY DR. GEORGE W. CRANE.

Select the answers which you consider best. The last problem counts five points. Then look for the correct answers on page 41.

1. As people grow beyond the age of 50 years, they tend to become more Extravagant Frugal Athletic Extroverted
2. Which one of these age groups usually gets up earliest in the morning? 10 year old 20 year old 40 year old 60 year old
3. The average age at which infants start to walk is approximately 6 months 10 months 14 months 18 months
4. Which one of these age groups is most likely to be anemic? 10 year old 20 year old 40 year old 60 year old
5. Secondary anemia of middle age is often due to our failure to eat enough iron containing foods, but this in turn is frequently traceable to lack of good teeth for masticating tough meats and raw vegetables. The best permanent antidote for this anemia, therefore, is Calisthenics Dentistry Medicine Hygiene
6. As people grow older they tend to sever their connections with the external environment. This is partly due to their failing vision and hearing, plus their physical frailty, including the secondary anemia described above. If you want to give your parents or grandparents gifts which will help keep them young and able to enjoy the world around them, then select something besides the conventional presents. You deserve one point for each correct judgment below in selecting the gifts which will rejuvenate or revitalize your aged loved ones.

TRIBUNE STAFF TOASTS SINKING OF JAP WARSHIP

Dinner Closes Fortieth Ad Convention.

A dramatic interruption stopped the program of entertainment offered last night to the 360 guests who attended the dinner closing THE TRIBUNE's 40th advertising convention in the Palmer House.

Chesser M. Campbell, advertising manager, rapped for order and introduced THE TRIBUNE's editor and publisher, Col. Robert R. McCormick. With a spotlight trained upon the speakers' table, Col. McCormick proposed a toast. It was:

Applause Is Prolonged.

The 360 drank the toast and burst into prolonged applause. Later Col. McCormick made a brief speech. The program ended with the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner."

Present at the dinner were executives and staff members of other departments of THE TRIBUNE.

During business sessions of the convention the advertising men reviewed their record of 1941 and discussed problems that have arisen in connection with the war.

Veteran Organization.

"The war conditions," Campbell said, "are expected to be a stimulant to greater effort and more effective work."

During the dinner he asked for a show of hands of all present who were 20 year veterans in The Tribune organization. A large number responded. When he called for the employés of more than 10 years' service over half of the audience lifted their hands.

SNOW FORECAST TODAY; WARN OF DRIVING PERILS

Snow is promised Chicagoland today and tomorrow. Forecaster R. E. Gumpf said a moisture bearing mass of air is moving up from Texas, and that it had already caused snowfall in southern Illinois late yesterday afternoon.

Temperatures today are expected to range between 23 and 30 degrees above zero, low enough to keep the snow from melting as it falls.

The Chicago Motor club yesterday afternoon issued a bulletin that sleet and freezing rain had iced Missouri highways and some pavements in Iowa and Nebraska. This weather, according to the club, was moving eastward and was expected to cover much of Illinois by this morning.

The Inquiring Camera Girl

THE QUESTION.

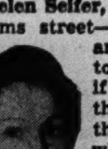
When, if ever, do you prefer being alone?

WHERE ASKED.

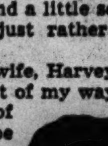
Randolph street Illinois Central station.

THE ANSWERS.

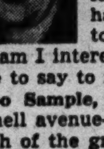
Mrs. John W. Whyte, housewife, 2618 North Francisco avenue—Whenever I get a new book that I've heard a lot about and one that I've been looking forward to reading I really want to be left alone. And in a nice comfortable place nothing exists as far as I'm concerned except me and my book.



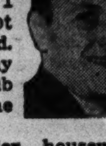
Helen Seifer, registered nurse, 5523 Adams street—I don't like to have any one around trying to pep and cheer me up if I feel blue or down in the dumps about something—even the one who put me there in the first place by not coming around a little sooner. I'd just rather go right on brooding.



Helen Kamm, housewife, Harvey—I often go quite a bit out of my way to shoo my husband out of the house so I can be alone to do my housework. I always try to think up a good one, too, so I'll have my solitude for about three hours. I can accomplish so much more when no one's around.



Faye Jones, housewife, 1246 Pratt boulevard—Every one who knows me ever so little knows when I want to be alone. And that's every morning of the year until about 10 o'clock. It takes me about that long to wake up and I haven't a thing to say to any one before that nor am I interested in anything they have to say to me.



Leo Sample, assistant buyer, 7722 Cornell avenue—I guess I'm just too much of the gregarious type to ever want to be alone. No situations have arisen yet where I thought I'd rather not have any one around. Of course I do enjoy my privacy in the bathtub and prefer to be alone there.

Mrs. Jane Brabander, housewife, 5130 Kenwood avenue—I think most people who have the privilege of dressing alone couldn't appreciate my predicament. But I would like to try it just once. As it is now my three babies—4, 3, and 2 years old—take in the whole performance. They hand me stockings and bobby pins and shoes all at the same time.

ROOSEVELT ASKS NEW DEVICE TO PREVENT STRIKES

Invites Labor and Capital to Confer on Means.

[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11.—President Roosevelt tonight issued invitations for a labor conference here next week which will consider means of settling labor disputes during the war period with the idea of avoiding mandatory anti-strike legislation.

Mr. Roosevelt invited the presidents of the American Federation of Labor [William Green] and the Congress of Industrial Organizations [Philip Murray] each to designate six representatives from different unions affiliated with their organizations. He invited the chairman of the business advisory council of the department of commerce to choose 12 representatives of industrial management. The meeting will begin early next week.

Quick Solution Sought.

"In view of the gravity of the emergency now confronting this country, the President urges that the conferees reach a conclusion, at least upon the primary agreement preventing interruptions to production, and report to him within a very few days after convening," the White House announcement said.

Consideration of pending labor legislation in congress to bar strikes in war industries has been held up until the results of the conference are seen. Secretary of Labor Frances Perkins consulted with Mr. Roosevelt prior to release of the White House announcement.

Several Courses Outlined.

Outline of the parley aims were:

"The first and essential objective of the conference will be to reach a unanimous agreement to prevent the interruption of production by labor disputes during the period of the war.

"The conferees doubtless will find it necessary to agree upon machinery by which these disputes may amicably and finally be settled. It is thought this machinery might include appropriate procedures for adjusting disputes, for mediation, and for resort in defense industries to some tribunal whose decisions will be binding by agreement on all parties."

Suits Filed to Collect $500,000 Realty Taxes

Assistant State's Attorney Marshall Kearney yesterday filed 125 tax foreclosure suits to collect $500,000 in real estate taxes. The suits are being filed in the Circuit and Superior courts under a plan whereby more than 16 million dollars in past due real estate taxes has been collected in the last two years. Under the plan, a foreclosure bill is filed only after a bid has been guaranteed by the realty owner or some other person and has been found sufficient by the state's attorney's office.

GOV. GREEN GOES ON AIR TONIGHT IN DEFENSE PLEA

Springfield, Ill., Dec. 11 [Special].—Gov. Dwight Green will go on the radio tomorrow night from the executive mansion here to appeal to Illinoisians to devote every effort to useful defense and patriotic activities.

Because of the impossibility of conforming the time of the principal broadcasting stations in Chicago and thruout the state, the governor will speak over several stations at various times during the evening. He will broadcast over W-G-N at 8:30 p. m.

HERE'S HOW YOU PRONOUNCE THE WARTIME NAMES

You Don't Call It "Yap"; It's "Yahp."

The new war in the Pacific brings out some familiar and some unfamiliar names of islands, cities, towns, and other places in the battle zones.

To help the reader following the war news, a list of places currently mentioned in the news has been prepared, with an effort to give correct or approximately correct pronunciations by means of phonetic spelling. It would be well to remember that most of the "a" pronunciations are soft, as in "ah."

The list follows, with accented syllables indicated by capital letters:

Aparri—Ah-PAHR-reh.
Baguio—Bah-gyoh.
Bangkok—Bang-COCK.
Bonin Island—BOH-nin.
Batan Islands—Bah-TAHN.
Cagayan province—Kah-gah-YAHN.
Cavite—Cah-VEE-tuh.
Corregidor—Cohr-RAY-heh-DORE.
Davao—DAH-vou.
Formosa—For-MOH-suh.
Hainan Island—HY-NAHN.
Kota Bharu—Kot-uh-BAHR-oo.
Kure—KOO-reh.
Lubang—Loo-BANG.
Luzon—Loo-ZON.
Mindanao—Min-dah-NEH-oh.
Oahu—Oh-AH-hoo.
Pampanga—Pahm-PAHN-ga.
Patani—Pah-TAH-nee.
Ponape—POH-nah-pay.
Saipan—Sy-PAHN.
Sasebo—SAH-seh-boh.
Taiwan—TY-wahn.
Truk—TROOK.
Tuguegarao—Too-gay-ga-RAH-oh.
Vigan—VEE-gahn.
Yap—YAHP.

In some of the above names the vowel variations are so thin as to make it difficult to convey the correct native pronunciation.

Bernard Krueger Leaves to Serve in Marine Corps

En route to enter the marines at San Diego, Bernard Krueger used the time between trains yesterday to say good-by to Chicago members of the general assembly and the press gallery at Springfield. He was on the staff of Hugh W. Cross in the office of speaker and the office of lieutenant governor. He was the first state employé at Springfield to enlist after the declaration of war on Japan. He received notice of his acceptance and his travel orders on Dec. 10, his 22d birthday.

DETROIT SUES 38 FOR $1,750,000 IN ECHO OF BRIBERY

Detroit, Mich., Dec. 11 (AP).—Suit for $1,750,000 against 38 defendant individuals and corporations to repay the city for losses in the Herman Gardens housing project bribery case was filed in Circuit court here today.

Corporation Counsel Paul E. Krause said the city's action resulted from a previous suit by the First National Bank of Chicago to recover its mortgage on equipment at the site of the $8,088,000 project.

Chief of the defendants, who include all individuals indicted for participation in the fraud, were former Councilmen John Hamilton, Robert G. Ewald and Harry I. Dingeman, all under sentence of 3 to 10 years for selling their votes in the Herman Gardens construction award. Ewald is at liberty under an appeal bond.

Twenty-five corporations were among the defendants.

NEWSPAPERS GIVE WORD TO DEFEND AMERICAN WAY

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—The American Newspaper Publishers' association, thru its president, Walter M. Dear, publisher of the Jersey City [N. J.] Jersey Journal, has pledged to President Roosevelt its "active support for the defense of the American way of life."

Dear sent the following telegram to the President: "On behalf of the newspapers of the United States may I assure you that we stand united to render all active support for the defense of the American way of life. We await your call for any service we can render."

The ANPA made public the following reply to Dear from Presidential Secretary Stephen Early:

"Please accept the President's thanks for your telegram of Dec. 8. The President is most appreciative of the pledge of active support for the defense of the American way of life which you give in behalf of the newspapers of the United States."

2 CHILDREN DIE IN FIRE; FATHER RESCUES SON, 4

Marilyn Moaks, 11 years old, and her sister, Doris, 9, were burned to death Wednesday night when fire destroyed the home of their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bryan Moaks, at 63 North avenue, Aurora. Moaks rescued his son, William, 4. He jumped from a window on the second floor of the two story frame house, suffering a fractured foot, and his son was burned slightly. Both were taken to St. Charles hospital. Mrs. Moaks was not in the home when the fire, believed caused by an overheated furnace, started.

NAVAL BOMBER CRASHES; ENSIGN DIES, 5 MISSING

Chicagoan Among 5 Hurt in Takeoff Accident.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—The navy announced tonight that one officer was killed, two officers and three enlisted men were missing, and five enlisted men injured as the result of a crash of an Atlantic ocean patrol bomber.

Ensign R. W. De Reamer.

Ensign Is Killed.

The officer who lost his life was Ensign Paul Harry Alter, 26 years old, born at Fort Plain, N. Y. The missing men were listed as:

Harry Hinton Sheep, 21, radioman third class; next of kin, mother, Mrs. Gladys Hall Sheep, Elizabeth City, N. C.

Carl Willard Pierce, 23, aviation machinist mate, third class; next of kin, mother, Mrs. Bertha Mae Pierce, North Wilkesboro, N. C.

Chicagoan Is Injured.

John R. McIntyre, 27, aviation machinist mate, first class, Columbus, O.; Robert Edward Dearen, 23, aviation machinist mate third class, New York; Robert Morris Smith, 20, aviation machinist mate, third class, Chicago; Oliver Lee Lawhead, 20, radioman, third class, Indianapolis, Ind.; George John Brown Jr., 23, radioman, first class, Portsmouth, Va.

Ensign Robert W. DeReamer of Griffith, Ind., had been in service since Sept. 15. He was graduated from Indiana university and the Northwestern university midshipmen's course. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. R. DeReamer were notified yesterday that his plane had crashed Monday in a storm off Halifax bay.

MILEY MURDER JURY HOLDS FATE OF CAFE OWNER

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 11 (AP).—The case of Robert H. Anderson, charged with murder in the slaying of Golf Star Marion Miley during a robbery in which her mother was fatally wounded, was turned over to a jury in Judge Chester D. Adams' court tonight.

Anderson, 36 year old part owner of a now padlocked Louisville cafe, is one of three men accused.

Commonwealth's attorney, James Park, in his closing statement, demanded that the defendant pay with his life. The defense urged the jury not to convict Anderson on the "flimsy" testimony of Tom C. Penney, 32, from whom police claim a confession implicating Anderson. Penney and Raymond S. Baxter, 27, a former greenskeeper at the Lexington Country club where the robbery-slayings occurred Sept. 28, are to be tried later.

Miss Miley's mother, Mrs. Elsie Ego Miley, died of bullet wounds three days after the robbery, which netted approximately $130.

FEAR 17 ARE DEAD AS NAVAL CRAFT SINKS FREIGHTER

Boston, Mass., Dec. 11 (AP).—Fears were entertained tonight that 17 members of the crew of the freighter Oregon perished when she sank after a collision with a naval vessel off Nantucket yesterday.

Of a crew of 42, the rescued totaled 25 and nine bodies were recovered, leaving eight missing.

Among the dead was Chief Officer D. C. McNaught. Survivors were under orders not to discuss the sinking, pending an inquiry tomorrow.

The list of survivors included Francisco Balaguer of Elmhurst, Ill.

There was reason to believe some of the missing men were in a lifeboat which capsized after drawing away from the Oregon. Some members of the crew leaped into the icy water when the Oregon sank. Many of the survivors showed signs of strain and fatigue.

1,000 ATTORNEYS TO ATTEND TAX SCHOOL TODAY

More than 1,000 lawyers from all parts of Illinois are expected to attend a one day income tax conference sponsored by the Illinois State Bar association in the Palmer House today.

The meeting will be a "school for lawyers," according to Benjamin Wham, president of the association. Experts will lead discussions of all phases of the income tax laws, individual, partnership, and corporation, and exemptions will be explained, said Warren B. Buckley, second vice president.

Mailbox Thief Gets Two Years in Federal Prison

John T. Gallagher, 25 years old, 6223 South Sangamon street, was sentenced to two years in a federal penitentiary yesterday by Judge William H. Holly in federal District court. Gallagher was convicted after a bench trial of stealing two pension checks amounting to $7.50 each from a hall letter box.

Rickert, for 25 years commander of the Walter Blanchard post of the Grand Army of the Republic in Naperville, died yesterday in a nursing home at 374 Anthony avenue, Glen Ellyn. Mrs. Rickert was born in Berks county, Pa., and came to Glen Ellyn 84 years ago when it was known as Danby. She remembered the Chicago fire, and maintained correspondence with persons in all parts of the country. She became seriously ill only two days ago. Surviving are a son by a former marriage, William F. Freeto of Oak Park, two sisters, Miss Rose Weidman and Mrs. Orrin Dodge of Glen Ellyn, and 11 grandchildren, 18 great-grandchildren and 1 great-great-grandchild. Services will be held at 2:30 p. m. tomorrow in the Dodge residence at 542 Hillside avenue, Glen Ellyn.

Mrs. Amalie Hofer Jerome.

Mrs. Amalie Hofer Jerome, former Chicagoan prominent in educational circles, died yesterday while visiting at the home of a friend at 1340 East 48th street. For the last five years Mrs. Jerome had lived in Lakeside, Mich. For 50 years she was known in Chicago in settlement and educational work. She was the author of a novel, and in 1924 she gave a collection of educational literature to the Crerar library. Surviving are two sisters. Private services will be held today.

James J. Riha Sr.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. for James J. Riha Sr., founder and owner of the Riha Cartage company, who died unexpectedly Wednesday evening in his home at 1811 South Highland avenue, Berwyn. The services will be conducted at the chapel, 6227 Cermak road, and burial will be in Bohemian National cemetery. Mr. Riha's widow, one daughter, and his son, James Jr., now in Panama on government construction work, survive.

Dr. Frank Conrad.

Pittsburgh, Pa., Dec. 11 (AP).—Dr. Frank Conrad, 67 years old, assistant chief engineer of Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company, and often called the "father of commercial radio," died last night in Miami, Fla., the company announced today. Conrad became interested in radio in 1912, and eventually established a station known as 8KX. From this grew the radio station KDKA. He also was credited with developing the watt hour meter, the one wire automobile ignition and lighting system, and with developments in power transmission for radios.

Mrs. Elizabeth Isherwood.

Services for Mrs. Elizabeth Isherwood, 84 years old, mother of Dr. Paul A. Isherwood, Du Page county coroner, will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in the family home at 130 East Washington street, West Chicago. Burial will be in Oak Hill cemetery, Geneva. He was 65 years old and a member of the firm of D'Ancona, Pflaum, Wyatt, Marwick & Riskind, 33 North La Salle street. He leaves his widow, Blanche; two sons, and two daughters. Funeral services will be held tomorrow at 2 p. m. in Springhill cemetery, Danville, Ill., the town of his birth.

Dr. Guy Edward Beard.

Services for Dr. Guy Edward Beard, a retired physician who formerly practiced in Chicago, will be conducted at 2 p. m. tomorrow in the Algonquin Congregational church. Dr. Beard died yesterday at his home at Haeger's Bend, north of Algonquin.

2 TRUCK DRIVERS FINED IN DYER ON PLEA OF GUILTY

M. L. Mathieu, 5602 South Francisco avenue, and Frank Marker, 4211 Ellis avenue, truck drivers for the Hayes Freight Lines, yesterday were fined $1 and assessed costs of $11.50 each by Justice of the Peace Frank Johnson of Dyer, Ind. The drivers pleaded guilty to charges of reckless driving.

Previously Mathieu had reported to his superior, Bliss Moody, that the Dyer police were picking on truck drivers. Police produced records to refute the charge and in court Mathieu denied making it.

He and Marker were accused of going between 20 and 25 miles an hour in a heavy fog and crossing into the wrong traffic lane.

WARNING: MAIL EARLY TO POINTS AWAY FROM CITY

Postmaster Ernest J. Kruetgen yesterday advised Chicagoans to get their out of town Christmas mailing done early. Possible grounding of commercial air lines and defense shipments on railroads, he said, might interrupt mail service at any time. All mail addressed to Japan or any Japanese possessions, he said, is being forwarded to a special exchange office in San Francisco, Cal., where it will be examined by authorities.

FEDERAL JUDGE, ONCE ACQUITTED BY SENATE, DIES

San Francisco, Cal., Dec. 11 [Special].—Federal Judge Harold Louderback, 60 years old, who presided at the manslaughter trial of film comedian Roscoe [Fatty] Arbuckle in 1921, died today. He was sitting in the state court at the time of the trial but had been on the United States District court bench here since 1928.

Judge Louderback's handling of receivership cases in 1932 and 1933 led to his impeachment by the house of representatives but he was acquitted in the senate, escaping removal from office by eight votes.

The judge was accused of having appointed friends and political supporters to lucrative receiverships and attorneyships in bankruptcy cases.

VOTE TO APPEAL ORDER TO PAY UP ASSESSOR'S AIDS

The county board over the protest of County Assessor John S. Clark yesterday voted to appeal from a Superior court mandamus directing payment of $29,000 in salaries to 344 of Clark's employés. The sum is for two weeks' salaries. The board contends that Clark did not enforce the two weeks' payless vacations as required in all county departments under the 1941 budget.

Clark told the commissioners yesterday that all the employés had worked for the pay and were entitled to it. He explained that they were laid off the regular roll for two weeks, but were hired on the "extra roll" and added that he did not exceed his budget appropriation. The 1941 assessment would have been delayed if the employés had been laid off entirely, Clark declared.

The Superior court mandamus upholding Clark's position was issued last week by Judge Francis B. Allegretti. The pay has been held up pending the possibility of an appeal.

POSTPONE QUIZ IN POLICEMAN'S DEATH IN HOLDUP

An inquest into the fatal shooting of Park Policeman Charles Williams in a holdup Tuesday was continued yesterday until Jan. 15 to allow the police more time to arrest the bandits. Williams engaged in a gun duel with one of three bandits who attempted to rob a tavern at 4301 North Western avenue.

Frank Pokol, 26, of 3500 Monroe street, who was seized by the North Damen avenue police as a suspect, was given a lie detector test during the day. Capt. Herbert Burns said that the police doubted his confession that he was one of the bandits. He was held for further investigation. Williams was 45 years old and lived at 4304 North Campbell avenue.

Funeral services for the slain policeman will be held at 1:30 p. m. tomorrow in the chapel at 3905 Lincoln avenue. Burial will be at St. Lucas cemetery. His widow, Nellie, survives.

MRS. MARY HENNING, TRIBUNE WRITER'S MOTHER, DEAD AT 88

Mrs. Mary Sears Henning, mother of Arthur Sears Henning, head of the Washington bureau of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE, died yesterday in the Virginia Hall Convalescent home, Evanston, after an illness following a stroke last July. Mrs. Henning was 88 years old. She was the widow of Edgar L. Henning, Plano, Ill., banker.

Mrs. Henning was born on a farm near Plano, the daughter of Archibald and Rachel Sears, pioneers in Kendall county. After the death of her husband in Washington in 1910, Mrs. Henning made her home with her daughter, Miss Ethel Henning, Chicago artist, 1137 Pratt boulevard.

Besides her son and daughter, Mrs. Henning is survived by two brothers, Charles M. Sears of Long Beach, Cal., and Sherman Sears of Sweeney, Tex. Funeral services will be held early next week in Plano.

PEDESTRIAN DIES IN CRASH CAUSED BY POLICE CHASE

Joseph Panczko, 23 years old, 2648 Iowa street, and Samuel Leoto, 21, of 1107 Erie street, were in the Racine avenue police lockup last night after their speeding automobile, pursued by police, crashed into a truck and caused the death of a pedestrian at Rockwell and Walton streets.

The victim was Marvin Malitz, 18, of 1912 North Washtenaw avenue, killed when the produce truck driven by Morris Portman overturned and crushed him. Portman, who is 18 and lives at 2643 Crystal street, was taken to Norwegian-American hospital, severely injured. Also seriously injured was Frank Forst, 21, of 1412 Huron street, who was in Leoto's car, driven by Panczko. Forst was taken to the Bridewell hospital.

The chase began at Milwaukee and Western avenues when Detectives Dwight Webb and Raymond Berg attempted to stop Panczko on suspicion. Panczko drove away at 60 miles an hour, and the police pursued him for two miles until the crash occurred.

WEATHER STAFF WILL TRANSFER BASE TO AIRPORT

O. T. Lay, acting chief meteorologist at the Chicago weather bureau, announced plans yesterday for removing the headquarters of the forecasting service from the United States courthouse to Chicago airport. The change will be made early in January.

Lay said that the need for prompt weather information for the flying services required the maintenance of a 24 hour staff at the airport and that much of the work at the courthouse duplicates that at the airport. The change, he said, would save both money and personnel. Services to the public, however, will continue to be available at the courthouse.

The airport will supplant the University of Chicago as the site of the principal recording instruments used in observing weather conditions. Secondary observations will be made, however, at the university and at the courthouse.

SYPHILIS IS EASY TO CURE

Don't let anybody tell you that syphilis is a disease that's impossible to cure. If it's caught in time and is treated continuously, it can easily be eradicated! Organized by public-spirited citizens as a corporation "NOT-FOR-PROFIT," the Public Health Institute makes a full examination for syphilis and gonorrhea at very low cost, and gives individual treatments at fees so small as to be within the reach of every wage earner.

ZAMORSKI—Elizabeth Zamorski, beloved mother of Monica Panka, Irene Bocian, Elizabeth Domanski, and Leonard, fond sister of Paul Mika. Funeral Saturday at 9:30 a. m. from chapel, 1845 N. Hermitage avenue, to St. Stephen's church and then to St. Adalbert's cemetery.

EXPECT POLITICS TO FLOURISH, BUT ON A LOCAL BASIS

Higher Taxes May Reduce Campaign Funds.

BY ARTHUR EVANS.

Politicians yesterday began to analyze the effect of the war against Japan upon politics and the election campaigns of next year. One general belief expressed was that the declaration of war and the immediate, nation-wide support of the country's war activities, removed the question of intervention as an issue, but that local campaigns will move along with plenty of contests. Issues concerning local government such as efficiency and economy—will play a part as usual in the campaigning, some of the politicians held.

Restricted Funds Seen.

Higher taxes next year may reduce campaign funds, in the opinion of Werner W. Schroeder, Republican national committeeman.

"But I think that's just as well," he said. "I believe that campaigns can be as well conducted—I don't believe in the raising and spending of large amounts.

"I don't think any one can predict how much of an influence the war may have on politics. Everybody is solidly behind the government in prosecution of the war, but we are still a two party system government, and the local campaigns will go along about the same as usual. No one knows how issues might change. It's too early now. But the old issues are always there."

Many Must Be Elected.

Next year, Illinois elects a United States senator and the entire Illinois delegation in the house, state legislators, and about one-half the county officials in the 102 counties. In Chicago, associate judges of the Municipal court will be named.

On June 1, five of the seven justices of the state Supreme court are to be elected. Governor Green has been urged by some Democratic leaders to place before the special session on state defense a proposal to combine the state-wide primaries, set for April 14, for congressional, state, county, and municipal court positions, with the Supreme court election on June 1. The special session has been summoned for Dec. 18.

The governor said yesterday he has not yet decided whether to include this proposal among the subjects for the legislature to consider. Advocates of the change say it would mean a saving of between $400,000 and $1,000,000. Others point out it would plunge the Supreme court election into a political primary fight. The avowed reason bench elections are held in June is to keep them separate from ordinary political campaigns.

Postpone Slate Making.

Slate making for the April primaries as yet has not been taken up. It will wait until after the Christmas holidays. Both Democrats and Republicans appear to oppose any early activity in such directions, because the voters are hard to interest amid the excitement and strain of war. Mayor Kelly, when asked how the war might affect politics, replied:

"I know of no politics and will know of no politics as long as the war is on."

Some recalled the political campaigns during the first World war. The primaries in September, 1918 produced intense battles between rival slates and rival groups. The election campaign, however, appeared destined to be a dull one. The voters, interested in the war, were little inclined to listen to speeches.

Republicans in congress had given solid support to President Wilson's war measures. But some 10 days before the November election, the President issued an appeal to the voters to return a Democratic majority to both the senate and house.

Politics had been adjourned so far as prosecution of the war was concerned, but President Wilson's plea turned the congressional election into a sensational one. The Republicans won majorities in both houses.

U. S. INDICTS 25 MEN, WOMEN ON ALCOHOL CHARGE

The federal grand jury yesterday returned 11 indictments accusing 25 men and women of violating internal revenue laws prohibiting manufacture and sale of unlicensed alcohol. Assistant United States Attorney Francis J. McGreal estimated that accused persons had deprived the government of more than $750,000 in taxes.

One of those indicted, Matthew J. Girolamo, 19, of 1015 South Hoyne avenue, was charged with diverting sugar to bootleggers. McGreal estimated that 56,000 pounds of sugar passed thru Girolamo's hands to illicit still operators.

The others were accused of manufacturing or possessing untaxed alcohol.

8,000 PRIZE FOWL HAVE SOMETHING TO CROW ABOUT

Open Poultry Exposition in Amphitheater.

BY GAIL COMPTON.

The first performance of the barnyard symphony yesterday in the International amphitheater at 41st and Halsted streets had the critics crowing.

The participants were 8,000 blue blooded fowl entered in the third annual International Poultry exposition which opened for a five day run.

Prominent among the soloists were huge gobbling turkeys, gigantic geese, flute voiced doves and pigeons, shrill bantam roosters, and clucking hens.

From 40 states, four Canadian provinces, and Cuba and Mexico the birds came to compete for national titles, cash prizes, and blue ribbos. Valued at more than $100,000, their pens and cotes filled the big arena.

Stress Economy, Quality.

The main emphasis of the show is upon egg and meat production. Breeders are stressing methods of economy and quality under the stimulus of war needs.

Some of the finest examples of the standard breeds of farm fowl are on display as well as hundreds of ornamental birds and pigeons. The Chicago Pigeon club is conducting a show in conjunction with the exposition and there are several pens of racing homers on display. These birds are the type now used by the army for carrying messages.

A bird that attracted attention is Royal Blue, a 36 pound goose shown by Harold Tesch of Waukesha, Wis. The bird is the world's grand champion goose.

Livers Bring Fancy Prices.

Tesch explained that altho his goose already is quite heavy, he could get it to weigh 45 pounds if he "noodled" it. Noodling is the method used in producing huge livers in the birds by stuffing noodles down their throats. The livers, ranging from 1½ to 3 pounds, are used in making pate de foie gras.

To get these big livers, Tesch said, one must stuff the geese every two hours for almost two weeks. At the end of this time the birds are killed and the livers sold for prices ranging from $2 to $5 a pound.

TOMAN CRITICIZES SURVEY; OPPOSES ANY CUT IN STAFF

County Treasurer John Toman said yesterday that the efficiency survey staff which last week proposed discharging 167 of the 637 men in his office had slipped on its arithmetic.

The staff, which is surveying all county offices at the request of the county board, figures the number of employés required on a basis of man-days, according to Toman. The staff figured each man works six full days a week, whereas the treasurer's employés work only three hours on Saturdays, Toman said.

This error in calculation would warrant hiring 76 more employés than the staff proposed, according to Toman. He also told the survey committee yesterday that his office cannot function properly with fewer employés than it now has. Survey reports are made to the committee, which will make recommendations to the county board for economies in the 1942 budget.

Defense Stamps and Bonds on Sale in City Hall

City Treasurer Thomas S. Gordon announced last night that defense stamps and bonds will be on sale in the city hall today in booths on the first floor and in his office on the second.

JURY WILL HEAR CONFESSION IN BAT DEATH CASE

A confession allegedly made by David Goldblatt, former hoodlum, that he was one of two cleaning company goons who fatally beat Anton Gorczak, rival company driver, with a baseball bat last spring, will be read this morning to the Criminal court-jury trying Goldbatt for murder.

Judge U. S. Schwartz yesterday ruled he would allow the jury to hear the confession which Goldblatt had repudiated, contending it was forced from him after ill treatment in the state's attorney's office. Judge Schwartz said he did not believe Goldblatt's story of "medieval torture."

For several days the defense, in support of its objections to the confession, presented an array of arguments and witnesses, including four physicians who examined Goldblatt after the confession was obtained. Yesterday, in rebuttal, the state presented First Assistant State's Attorney Wilbert F. Crowley, Prosecutor William Crawford, Lieut. Thomas Kelly, Sergt. Nicholas Disteldorf, Thomas Harvey, a court reporter, and Dr. Emmanuel Padnos. Their consensus was that Goldblatt was not harmed, but that after signing the confession he beat his head against the wall, belabored his body with handcuffs, and punched himself.

Lockport Has Accidental Blackout at Dinner Hour

Lockport was sitting down to dinner last night when all the lights went out. The word spread that it was a blackout, practice or real, and all the services, police, firemen, and utilities were swamped with calls. The Public Service Company of Northern Illinois said it was all caused when its main feeder line went out.

Industrial Plant Founder Dies at Wheel of His Car

Thomas R. Eddy, 65 years old, founder of the Eddy and Guyer Manufacturing company, makers of screw machine products, was found dead yesterday at the wheel of his parked car in a lot at Home avenue and Madison street, Oak Park. Police were told that the car was seen to move wildly over the curb a few hours earlier. They surmise that Eddy, who lived at 829 South 18th avenue, Maywood, had a heart attack and tried to get out of traffic. He was unmarried.

JACOB HEGI, 81, SWISS COLONY LEADER, KILLED

Victim of Collision; Cab Driver Arrested.

Jacob Hegi, 81 years old, considered the father of the Swiss colony here, was killed yesterday when an automobile in which he was riding collided with a taxicab at Webster and Racine avenues. Rescue Squad No. 10 lifted the wreckage with jacks in a rescue attempt, but found Hegi dead.

Daniel Phalen, 46, of 2147 Washington boulevard, the cab driver, who wandered away from the scene, was arrested by Hudson avenue police, who said he had been drinking. Paul Schweitzer, 53, of 3110 Greenview avenue, Hegi's companion, was seriously injured and taken to the Alexian Brothers hospital. Their driver, Oscar Vogel, 47, of 916 Agatite avenue, was unhurt.

Hegi had been well known in the Swiss community since his arrival here 51 years ago. He was a wine salesman for D. Recher & Son, and lived at 4546 North Hermitage avenue. Surviving are a son, Robert, and a daughter, Marie.

Two Pedestrians Killed.

A youth and a man were killed when they ran around moving street cars into the path of autos. Albert M. Fabian, 16 years old, 307 West 22d place, was struck in front of 2405 Wentworth avenue by the auto driven by Thomas Payne, 37, of 304 West 31st street, and Withrow J. Sumpter, 50, of 336 East 43d street, was killed at Archer and West 47th street by the auto of Edward J. Domuart, 41, of 4328 South Sawyer avenue.

George Howard, 81 years old, struck Sunday night at Drexel boulevard and 50th street by a car driven by Edward W. Buettner, 65, of 4523 Drexel, died in Chicago hospital. He lived at 5143 Cottage Grove avenue.

Four Injured in Crash.

Four persons were injured seriously in a collision between an auto and a truck at Maypole and Hoyne avenues. Walter Riley, 16, of 1926 Potomac avenue was the driver of the auto. His companion, also injured, was Milan Sliepka, 17, of 2009 Huron street. Those in the truck were Leroy Brooks, 20, of 2337 Warren avenue, and his companion, John Williams, 19, 2349 Maypole. All were taken to hospitals.

Peter Chopek, 65, of 3328 Le Moyne street, died in County hospital of injuries suffered Dec. 3 at North and Kimball avenues when he was hit by a car driven by Harry H. Stern, 32, of 3221 Hirsch street.

Up to 4 p. m. yesterday 900 persons had been killed by automobiles since Jan. 1. Of these, 631 were killed in Chicago, where 24,921 were injured in the same period.

1942 Automobile Plates Put on Sale in Chicago

Sale of 1942 automobile license plates was opened yesterday in the Chicago office of Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes at 334 South Ashland avenue and in the capitol at Springfield. New plates, orange figures on a black background, were mailed from Springfield in response to reassignment requests filed before Dec. 1.

SKIDMORE A PAL, CAPT. M'CORMICK SAID TO ADMIT

Linked with Gambling? He Never Knew It.

Capt. Martin McCormick, head of the police morals squad until it was abolished by Commissioner Allman on Nov. 29, was reported to have admitted to the grand jury yesterday that he had known William Skidmore, reputed gambling fixer, for 20 years. McCormick was said to have added that he did not know Skidmore was connected with gambling.

Skidmore is now appealing a federal court conviction for income tax evasion on money allegedly received for protecting gamblers.

Raid Another "Nerve Center."

Other developments in the anti-gambling campaign were:

2. Loop building managers met to plan ways of keeping handbooks out of their properties.

3. Frank Ryan, the $500 a week syndicate general manager, was charged with city and state gambling offenses and will be arraigned this morning in South State street court.

Squad Stale, Says McCormick.

McCormick, making his third appearance before the grand jury, was reported to have been asked why his squad was not active against gamblers. His reply was said to be that his men were "stale."

The jurors were said to have asked about the case of Peter Scotty, a newsboy at State and Van Buren streets, who told state's attorney's investigators that he posed as owner of handbooks in the vicinity 10 times to "take the pinch" at $5 an arrest.

The raid yesterday was on room 914 in the Mercantile Exchange building, 308 West Washington street. Thomas Tuite, 32 years old, 4907 North Wolcott avenue, and Adolph Kohn, 39, of 4902 North Monticello avenue, were found dispensing racing information over 12 telephones.

Refuse to Testify Before Jury.

Taken before the grand jury, Tuite was reported to have raised his hand in simulation of a Nazi salute. The jurors ordered him to take the oath in regular fashion. Tuite said he is a registered alien, born in Ireland. He was reported to have refused to answer questions and Kohn was vague in his replies. They will be taken before Chief Justice Robert J. Dunne of the Criminal court today and the prosecutors will be asked that they be held in contempt of court unless they answer grand jury questions.

The loop building managers were reported to have decided at their meeting on a canvass of their tenants to weed out handbook operators.

Ryan, who was seized in the gambling syndicate headquarters in room 1104 at 10 North Clark street on Wednesday, was released on bond yesterday. James Galligan, an employé in the office, was also released on a city gambling charge and will be arraigned with Ryan today.

FOOD SHOPPERS: BUY CALMLY IN USUAL AMOUNTS

Advice Is Offered to Help Prevent Price Spurt.

BY MARY MEADE.

You'll find little change in food prices since the declaration of war. Changes you do find are normal seasonal ones.

All of which makes this American proud of her homemaking compatriots. We homemakers hold much of the food price situation in the palms of our hands. There is no lack of food supplies in this country whatever, and if we all buy calmly in the usual amounts prices aren't likely to go spurting upward. Many a woman who rushed out to buy staples in large amounts a year ago last fall found herself on the short end of the deal a few weeks later.

Meat Bargains Attractive.

There are some wonderfully good meat bargains this week despite the fact meat prices are on the upgrade. For less than 20 cents a pound you can buy lamb shoulder roasts and pork loin roasts. Leg of lamb and beef chuck sell at less than 25 cents a pound in many stores. Round steaks, rib lamb chops, and beef rib roasts sell for less than 30 cents a pound. Steaks of all kinds are a good buy, porterhouse, the most expensive of the steak cuts, selling at from 35 to 37 cents a pound in the chain stores.

Wholesale meat prices are higher this week, and retail prices probably will be up next week. So enjoy those tender cuts this week while they're inexpensive, and be getting out your best recipes for economy cuts to use next week.

Fresh Produce Reasonable.

Fresh fruits and vegetables are all selling at about last week's prices. On the whole, fresh produce is quite reasonable for this unseasonable time of the year.

Oranges and grapefruit are very reasonable. Grapefruit is an especially good buy, and the quality is now excellent. There has been a downward price trend on all oranges, including the new navel oranges from California. Valencias are quite cheap but of only fair quality. It's curtains for them until next year.

Still rather high, but dropping in price, are tangerines. They're usually low priced around Christmas.

Apple prices haven't changed much lately. They are still moderately priced and, next to citrus fruits, the best buy on the fruit counter. There are only a few Florida avocadoes available at present; most of these fruit hail from California now. They're moderately priced.

Season Late for Grapes.

It's getting late in the season for table grapes and they're a trifle more expensive this week. Most of them come from cold storage these days.

If you've a mind for a bit of a splurge, serve fresh pineapple. It comes from Cuba [as does all our pineapple here in the middle west] and, while high priced, is of good quality. Cuba usually ships some pineapple the year around, tho the heavy season comes in the spring.

Pears are available and, while more or less expensive, are reasonable enough for December pears.

Best vegetable buys this week include cabbage, green beans, all topped root vegetables, carrots, celery cabbage, greens of all kinds [including spinach], sweet potatoes, dry onions, bunch beets, and turnips, and winter squash.

Head Lettuce Prices Fall.

Head lettuce, which has been a little scarce and expensive due to strikes in Arizona, is now cheaper again. Prices on lettuce are expected to be down to normal next week. The quality of this salad maker is super.

Prices are a little higher on cabbage, carrots, and cauliflower this week. But only cauliflower is high priced. Much of the cabbage now available is new cabbage. The higher prices on carrots are chiefly for the best quality.

Both cucumbers and tomatoes are pretty expensive about now, but there are plenty of low priced vegetables to take their place. I suggest shallots [second cousin to the green onion], celery cabbage, chicory, escarole, cabbage, carrots [try grating or shredding them], and spinach as likely substitutes.

No Alarm Is Necessary.

Have no alarms about fresh produce shortages due to the Japanese grown California items. There's no shortage so far. The only crops which might be affected in the future include celery, cauliflower, chicory, and lettuce. With such a wealth of variety in fresh vegetables available, these are too few in number and too unimportant to worry about. And it's still too early to tell whether or not even these items will be affected.

Both eggs and butter are up a bit from last week's low price. It's impossible to predict just how prices on these items will go, but they probably won't get much cheaper in the near future.

As for staples such as sugar and flour, there's a great plenty. Wheat flours of all kinds are even on the surplus commodity list.

We cooks may have to get along with last year's pots and pans, and we're paying a little more for some of our foods than we were a few years back, but there's plenty to eat in this land.

FRUITED BREAD GIVES BREAKFAST HOLIDAY SPIRIT

During holiday time, even breakfast must have something of the Christmas spirit. And nothing could carry it better than this fruity yeast loaf. Bake the bread the day before you serve it and do have plenty of it on hand.

FRUITED YULE BREAD.

1 cake compressed yeast
3 tablespoons lukewarm water
½ cup shortening
½ cup sugar
2 eggs, well beaten
¾ cup milk
5 cups flour [about]
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup white raisins
½ cup chopped candied pineapple
½ cup chopped candied cherries
½ cup chopped nut meats

Dissolve yeast in water and cream shortening and sugar together until well blended. Add eggs to creamed mixture blending well. Add milk and yeast and 1 cup of flour. Mix well. Cover and let rise in warm place for 1 hour. Add salt, fruits and nuts mixed with remaining flour. Knead thoroly. Place in 2 greased 8 inch round pans, cover and let rise in a warm place until doubled in bulk, about 2 hours. Bake in a moderate [350 degrees] oven for about 1¼ hours. Remove from pan and cool. Frost with confectioners' sugar icing if desired.

TO HOUSEWIVES: DON'T WORRY, U. S. LARDER IS FILLED

Bumper Crops Minimize Fears of Shortages.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—To housewives concerned over the possibility of wartime food shortages, agriculture department officials offered reassuring news today.

They pointed to America's bulging granaries and well stocked pastures, and confidently seconded President Roosevelt's declaration that "there is enough food for us all" and more left over to send abroad.

Winter Crops Excellent.

On top of a record production of summer food and livestock feed crops, farmers are anticipating a bumper output of perishable winter products, such as vegetables, milk, butter and eggs.

The United States entered the war with a two year supply of wheat. Its store of corn, the basic raw material for meat, dairy and poultry products, is the largest on record. Huge reserves had been accumulated under the farm program.

Only in the case of spices, cocoa and some luxury items imported from the far east is there the possibility of a restricted supply.

Citrus Fruits Plentiful.

First estimates on the entire crop of citrus fruits show prospects for about 141,000,000 boxes, a quantity nearly equal to the record crop of 144,000,000 boxes last season. The orange supply will be the largest on record, but the grapefruit and lemon supplies will be below.

The department said the winter vegetable crop was coming along well. With continued favorable weather, production may be 15 per cent greater than last winter. A 50 per cent increase in early cabbage and a 25 per cent increase in Texas spinach were indicated.

Vegetable Larder Full.

Already in the nation's larder is a record production of canned and processed vegetables from summer crops.

The department expects meat supplies to increase as the months advance, under the influence of favorable prices and bountiful feed supplies.

Egg production this year is expected to be 5 per cent greater than last year and 4 per cent above the record output of 1938. Milk production per capita was said to be the highest on record.

Supplies of sugar, the bulk of which is obtained from offshore producing areas, continue ample for months ahead, the department said. Officials conceded, however, that the war in the Pacific may cut off supplies from the Philippines. They expressed a firm belief, nevertheless, that sufficient supplies could be secured from Cuba, Puerto Rico, South America as well as from domestic production of cane and beets.

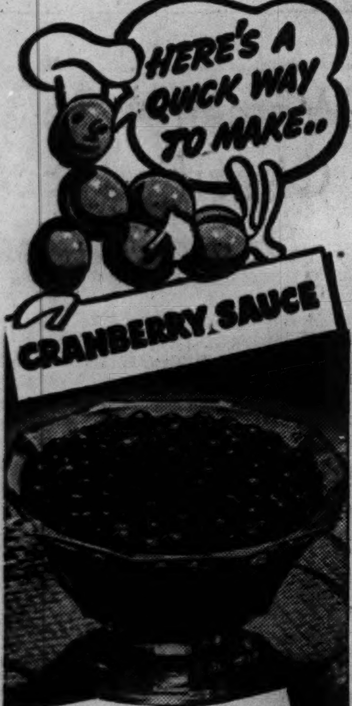
LITTLE ORPHAN ANNIE: Linger a Little Longer



TEN-MINUTE CRANBERRY SAUCE

2 cups sugar
2 cups water
1 pound (4 cups) Eatmor Cranberries

Boil sugar and water together 5 minutes. Add cranberries and boil without stirring until all the skins pop open (5 minutes is usually sufficient). Remove from fire and allow the sauce to remain in sauce pan until cool. Makes 1 quart sauce.

For a thinner sauce . . . Just bring sugar and water to a boil. Add cranberries and cook until they stop popping.

TODAY'S COOKING LESSON: HOW TO FOLLOW RECIPES

Steps to Take, Measures, and Terms Explained.

BY RUTH COOK STEWART.

No series of cooking lessons would be complete without a discussion of recipes and their use.

The modern recipe is as accurate as science can make it. It's a chemical formula so standardized that any cook from Maine to California can use it with assured results. Grandmother's recipe, with "size of a walnut," and "sifterful" specifications, was written for her own personal direction and could be used by another person only under her guidance and with her equipment. Today measurements and measuring equipment are standard for use by any one.

Today's ideal recipe should meet the following requirements:

IDEAL MODERN RECIPE.

1. Ingredients listed in order of use.
2. All measurements standard and level.
3. Directions stated simply in easy-to-follow sequence.
4. Time and temperature listed.
5. Number of servings [or the equivalent] given.

But even a perfect recipe won't give perfect results if the cook doesn't follow it correctly.

Steps in Using a Recipe.

1. Check recipe carefully to see that none of the ingredients or instructions are missing and to familiarize yourself with the method.
2. Check list of ingredients with your pantry shelf and get any additional items needed.
3. When ready to start, assemble all equipment needed—pans, mixing bowls, spoons, spatula, beaters, measuring equipment—and all ingredients to be used. In baked goods, results will be better if the amount of eggs and milk needed is removed from refrigerator an hour or two before mixing time.
4. In a recipe for a baked dish, prepare pans and, unless mixing will require more than 10 minutes, light and set oven. For cakes which require more time to mix, plan to light oven sometime during mixing, allowing about 10 minutes for the oven to pre-heat.
5. Measure amounts needed, leveling off dry ingredients with spatula.
6. Put ingredients together, following directions for mixing, cooking, baking, etc., exactly.

TIPS ON MEASURING.

FLOUR—Always sift flour before measuring. It packs down on standing and only after being lightened by sifting can it be measured accurately. Pile lightly—never pack—into measuring cup.

BROWN SUGAR—Other sugars are measured just as they come from the package, but moist brown sugar should be packed into the cup firmly enough to hold shape.

SHORTENING—Pack shortening tightly into spoon or cup, then level off with spatula. Graduated measures for ¼, ½, and ⅓ cup make measuring fractions of a cup of shortening easy, but if not available this method may be used. Subtract the amount of shortening called for from 1 cup, and put that amount of water into a cup measure; then add fat to bring water to brim. Pour off the water and you have the correct amount of fat. Shortening packed in pound cartons can be easily measured: ½ pound equals 1 cup; a ¼ pound stick equals a half cup.

SIRUPS—Sticky liquids should be poured into the measure. When the spoon or cup is dipped into the liquid, the sirup that clings to the outside of the measure gives an inaccurate measurement. When possible measure sirups just after measuring shortening.

Measuring can often be simplified if the cook has a simple standard of equivalents well in mind. Here are a few of the most useful:

One tablespoon equals 3 teaspoons.
One cup equals 16 tablespoons
One pint equals 2 cups.
One quart equals 4 cups.
One cup equals 8 fluid ounces.
Two cups [fluid] equals 1 pound.

Definitions of Terms.

Oftentimes terms used in the directions are confusing to the beginning cook. Perhaps these definitions of some of the more confusing terms will be a help to you:

TO BEAT—The use of a rotary movement of the wrist or a mechanical mixer to make a mixture smooth or to incorporate air into it.

TO STIR—The mixing of ingredients with a circular motion.

TO FOLD—The combining of ingredients by cutting down, across and up thru the mixture. This is more or less stirring on a vertical rather than a horizontal plane at slow motion.

TO WHIP—Rapid beating.

TO CREAM—The softening and smoothing of a mixture by stirring and rubbing with the back of a spoon. Usually used in combining fat and sugar.

TO MINCE—To chop finely.

TO PARE—The cutting away of an outside covering.

TO PEEL—The removal of an outer covering by stripping it off.

TO BOIL—Cooking in liquid at boiling temperature—212 degrees at sea level. The boiling point is reached when the liquid bubbles up rapidly over the entire surface.

TO PARBOIL—The partial cooking of food by boiling.

Oven Terms and Temperatures.

Any discussion of recipes must include oven temperatures. Some kind of an oven heat indicator is absolutely essential for baking success with modern recipes. An oven regulator which keeps the oven at the desired temperature is of course most desirable. If you don't have a regulator, get a reliable oven thermometer—it will pay for itself over and over again.

Terms used for oven temperatures are:

Very slow—200 to 250 degrees.
Slow—300 degrees.
Moderately slow—325 degrees.
Moderate—350 degrees.
Moderately hot—375 degrees.
Hot—400-425 degrees.
Very hot or quick—450 to 500 degrees.

The first lessons on baking in this series will begin next week.

HERE IS A FESTIVE HARD SAUCE TO GO WITH YULE PUDDING

Even hard sauce now comes to the table in a gala dress. For example here are these festive hard sauce pinwheels to serve with your favorite steamed pudding.

Hard Sauce Pinwheels.

¼ cup butter
1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
¼ teaspoon grated lemon rind
½ tablespoon cream
2 teaspoons orange juice
½ teaspoon grated orange rind
Orange food coloring

Cream butter until soft and gradually beat in sugar. Divide mixture in half and add cream and grated lemon rind to one portion and the orange juice and rind to the other portion. Add food coloring to orange flavored portion to tint a declicate orange. Spread lemon flavored portion on a cold damp cloth and spread orange mixture over it. Roll as for jelly roll and place in refrigerator. When hard, cut in slices and serve with steamed puddings or mince pie.

GUM DROP COOKY IS INEXPENSIVE HOLIDAY TREAT

Less expensive than candied fruits and just as festive in a cake or cooky, are small gum drops. Here's an orange gum drop cooky that's a quickie to make.

Orange Gum Drop Cookies.

2 cups brown sugar
3 tablespoons orange juice
Grated rind of one orange
4 eggs, separated
2 cups sifted flour
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 cup nut meats, chopped
1 cup orange gum drops

Combine sugar, orange rind and juice and slightly beaten egg yolks, mixing well. Sift flour with baking powder and add small or sliced gum drops and nutmeats. Add to first mixture, and beat thoroly. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites. Turn into 2 greased and floured 9 by 11 inch pans and bake in a moderate [350 degrees] oven for half an hour. Cut in strips while hot and roll in confectioners' sugar.

Deft Fingers Keep the Movie Stars' Hair Chic, Beautiful

BY ANTOINETTE DONNELLY

[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

Within three days recently we met three of the screen's bright lights. Linda Darnell, Joan Bennett, and Carol Bruce, each different from the others, but each a personality and beauty in her own right. We sat in while these stars were preparing themselves for a camera test.

We never get over being struck with the finger dexterity of these Hollywood girls. Theirs being the kind of vocational life it is, naturally they have more practiced study at their command. Also, their continued box office attractiveness urges them on to more and more skilled use of cosmetics, comb, brush, and makeup tools.

In one matter in particular are they all extremely adept. It is in hair arranging. Their hair, of course, is brushed and groomed to the highest degree. That's screen "property," you might say. You couldn't imagine for an instant a screen glamor girl with dry hair, "sick" hair, shoddy hair. As we say, the hair is lovely to begin with, but prolonged care and dexterity go into the shaping of those usually longish bobs so that there's individual and distinctive "line" the better to complement the facial contour. They work away at it for front, for side, for back effect, pinning up or back here, there and all round; raising a pompadour puff atop the head or lowering it after a bit of study.

So, with makeup, mouth and eye makeup especially. It's a studied, precise procedure. No slipshod practice such as you and I may be guilty of at times. It all may take fifteen minutes, a half hour, or more, but the time spent is thoroly justified by the finished product.

FASHIONS By ANGELA

This latest dip in the thermometer is the last call to arms for your winter coat. And not alone the arms . . . the rest of the body will get awfully chilly without it. It you haven't provided yourself with a winter coat, don't put it off much longer. Even now the southern wear merchandise is coming in and coat sales are starting. And while buyers admit reduced stocks and broken lines, there are coats to be had, three samples of which are illustrated today.

First is a dress coat [practical tho] of a soft light green color trimmed in flattering gray fox. In addition to the fur collar there are tabs of fox on the skirt which give an additional touch of elegance and an added flare.

Horizontal tucks give the dressmaker touch to the second model. It is a very feminine coat with a slim fitted bodice and a full skirt gathered into the narrow waistband. The color is a light brown wool. And the fur trimming the neckline and the edge of the sleeve is sable blended squirrel. Less than $50.

For casual or sports wear there's a little plaid number with a red fox collar. In profile the coat appears to be on the bias. But from the front everything is on the square. The coat is tan with cross bars of green and brown. Leather belt.

★ THRU THE LOOKING GLASS ★

There is always the problem of what the Smiths will give at Christmastime to their good friends the Joneses. Ordinarily the gift intended for both the wife and the husband is a little on the uninspired side, but the situation can be much improved this year by some judicious shopping for a new and exciting combination set of toiletries.

In this set, which seems to us one of the best gift ideas of the season, half of the toiletries are superlative beauty and bath essentials for the wife; the other half are fine and famous preparations for the husband! It's a stunning box, large and square, and the price for the whole novel and completely practical present is less than $10.

You needn't have a moment's doubt about the quality of the preparations. They're excellent, deserving of the prestige they've enjoyed for many years.

For the wife there is complexion cream, face powder, half a dozen little tablets used to soften and perfume the bath water, three cakes of fine lavender scented soap, a generous bottle of cologne in lotus fragrance, and a bottle of lavender. We don't think there's a woman alive who wouldn't find these irresistible.

And the men will be just as weak for the preparations assembled for them. There is a shaving bowl, for example, of wood, filled with fine, quick lathering soap that men have been mad about for years. In addition to this, the man of the house finds after shaving lotion, hair tonic to help keep the hair healthy and glossy and some invisible talc that dulls the shiny skin without giving it the dreaded powdered look.

Don't you think it's a grand gift idea for the Smiths who want to remember the Joneses.

Women Expected to Aid Shipbuilding and Airplane Work

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Uncle Sam soon will be depending increasingly upon women to help build his airplanes and battleships.

That was the prediction today of Miss Mary Anderson, chief of the women's bureau, after her appointment as chairman of an OPM labor subcommittee to make recommendations on how woman power can be used to win the war.

Miss Anderson, a Swedish immigrant who began her career in this country as a servant girl, is now one of the top ranking women in governmental positions.

Miss Anderson anticipates a rapid increase of women workers in the airplane industry. Right now a California airplane manufacturer has an assembly line made up 95 per cent of women, she said.

Women are showing excellent ability as welders—in some instances better than men, Miss Anderson continued. She forecast that the ship building industry soon will take them on.

Women have proved skilled instrument makers, Miss Anderson said, and their labor will go into the gadgets that send a destroyer plowing thru the seas. They have been found valuable in the manufacture of small arms and likely will be employed on the larger weapons soon. Soon women may be used on aviation ground work and serve as air raid detectors as they do in England.

Slips Offered as Acceptable Holiday Gifts

BY REA SEEGER.

There should be many a slip 'twixt the dress and the hip, of course only one at a time, but the well planned wardrobe has room for as many as possible. Gift items of superior distinction, new costume slip showings around the shops and stores, assure a wide range of styles, decorative trim, as well as an interesting price range. For around the $5 limit you can buy some of the most mouth watering confections ever assembled, made of gleaming silks and satins, lace and embroidery. Some are lavishly trimmed, with a double frill around the hem and deep applique encrustations along the deep vee cut top.

For more cash you can find even more luxurious models in shimmering white or in pastel shades of blue and pink. Some are of white lace in dainty val patterns, extremely effective Alencon, and some are of pale pink, blue, and white satin trimmed with two inch bands of eyelet embroidery, the edges of which have that faint pale-bluelsh cast.

Princess line slips, bias cut slips, and the slips with carefully and expertly fitted bra tops are obtainable. Some very French looking slips feature flesh colored sheers with a wicked accent of fine black lace. Some cool, smooth white ninons with especially effective contrast feature coral red pipings along the edges in scalloped formation and in the shoestring shoulder straps and the tiny appliqued designs along the front.

Slim tailored slips in dark street colors are attractive contrasts for all dark suits or dresses. The trickier ones have fine pleated hem ruffles, bias cut skirt streamline, and expertly fitted smooth bra tops with triangular cut outline.

Black satin costume slips have dainty sheer inch bands along the upper edge which is fagoted to the satin. All white and all flesh colored easy sliding silk slips have bands of machine made fagoting that is so flattering and effective as to appear hand worked. One clever new idea for the people with monogramia is to have the name embroidered on a spot just below the left knee, white on black, blue on pink, red on white, and so on.

Streamlined taffeta slips in blending shades can be found in an interesting color range, bright, subdued, and strictly street colors, brown, navy, and black. These taffeta slips are particularly well fitted to reduce the bump and bulge resistance under figure revealing dresses of crêpe or wool.

Did you know there's a very easy-to-apply remedy for scratches that mar the beauty of your furniture? [We are not referring, of course, to deep scars that go beneath the finish, but to minor scratches.] This remedy is a specially prepared "almond" stick and you simply rub it gently over the blemish. Watch the ugly scratch fade away! Keep one of these handy little sticks on the shelf with your furniture wax or polish, and see how many times you are called upon to use it.

Crocheted Pillbox Hat

BY ELLEN BRUCE.

Here is another crocheted pillbox hat which is extremely popular this season. The stitches are easy to do, and the yarn required is one skein of knitting worsted. The directions include instructions for making the tassel or the fringe which is attached to the back. This may be crocheted by the beginning needleworker or by the expert with equal facility.

For instructions in crocheting the pillbox hat, No. 1025, send 10 cents in stamps or coin to the Needlework Bureau, Chicago Tribune, 220 Fifth avenue, New York City.

Front VIEWS and PROFILES

Proudly We Sing.

In case you wonder, there are several versions of The Star Spangled Banner. The version which the Chicago Symphony orchestra has been playing at each performance this fall is one of the two official versions; the other is the service version, adapted especially for brasses, service bands having no stringed instruments. John Alden Carpenter, Chicago composer, points out that altho some song books contain variations which may be all right from a musical standpoint, they are not official. The only modern version is that of Igor Stravinsky; his orchestration was published six weeks ago and seems to have a few touches of his Petrouchka in it. In his preface Stravinsky writes that he did it "when searching for a vehicle thru which I might express my gratitude at the prospect of becoming an American citizen." . . . Incidentally, several strains from the anthem are in Madame Butterfly. Remember?

The Human Race.

The shop was astonished when the Chicago matron who a month ago had ordered six silk nightgowns with Natalie embroidered over the heart came in and ordered six more, Natalie this time in a larger size. But when she returned for a third order, asking that the name be even larger, the salesgirl was shocked into backstage speech. "She certainly must want to know who she is when she wakes up!" she cried.

Metropolitan Mosaic.

The Michigan avenue psychic leaning out her window, head on arms, a pitcher of cream beside her, as she gazed into a baffling future. . . . The Red Cross bulletin that it is in desperate need of women to make surgical dressings. . . . The high-clipped trees growing before Lilly Dache's hat shop, their crests now silvered and strung with Christmas lights. . . . The soda jerker at Walgreen's who, when given several orders at once, retorted, "What do you think I am—an octopus?" . . . Phil Fein, stage manager of the Chicago Opera company, who, asked how he feels, says, "I Phil Fein." . . . The 200 boys from the senior class at a north side high school who advanced on the school principal in a body Monday and demanded, "Give us our diplomas now. We want to enlist." . . . The fragrance of the heavy garlands of evergreens strung thru the second floor corridors of the Merchandise Mart. . . . The Chinese garland of orange, green, red, and purple paper hung at the entrance to a Carolyn Wilson's importing shop as a Christmas touch; in Peking, where the garland was found, it is used for weddings or funerals. . . . The girl from Lake Forest college who said her classmate had come into Chicago to see "Canada Dry in Native Son" that actor's name usually being given as Canada Lee.

Tragedy of Errors.

The girl at boarding school wrote:

"We had a little excitement last night. Dot was doing her exercises, and as the lights were out, she didn't see the chair, thereby striking her head on its edge, cutting her lip, disjointing an upper tooth and bruising her lip.

"This morning her eye was black and blue, her nose bruised and her lip swollen. But she went to church, where she promptly fainted. In the afternoon she knocked her lip again with a big tray, causing it to swell in a new place. And then, this evening, she dropped some dishes, breaking them, and as she picked them up, cut an artery in her wrist. The day isn't done yet . . ."

One in Your Attic?

Herma Clark, THE TRIBUNE'S When Chicago Was Young specialist, is looking for an old-fashioned framed cardboard motto, "God Bless Our Home." She has been offered a "For-Get-Me-Not" motto and another saying, "The Lord Is Risen," but needs the home touch for her lecture, Bustles and Bangs, Sunday at the Drake.

Women to Be Classified for Defense Jobs

BY INDIA MOFFETT.

Mrs. Clark J. Lawrence, Mrs. William H. Stanley, Mrs. L. Robert Mellin, Mrs. Mark W. Trude, and Mrs. John Paul Welling were hostesses yesterday at a tea at the Chicago Service Men's center, 174 West Washington street, that was a sort of curtain raiser for the work that will start on one floor of the center today.

This morning 150 volunteers will be at desks in the same 4th floor room in which the tea was given to start classifying the 300,000 women who already have signified their willingness to register with the Chicago Commission on National Defense. They will be sorted according to districts and vocation and avocation so that each woman will do the thing for which she is best fitted. More women will be registering every day, of course, so more volunteers will be needed to do the work of classification.

Mrs. Lawrence is chairman of the women's committee for the center, and Mrs. Stanley is chairman of the women's division of the commission. Mrs. Mellin is her co-chairman, and they, with Mrs. Trude, Mrs. Welling, and Mrs. G. Corson Ellis comprise the executive committee that will assist Mayor Kelly in coördinating women's defense work. Mrs. Ellis did not attend the tea yesterday, for she was busy in the offices on the 10th floor interviewing some of the women who will do the classifying work.

Following the tea, at which Mrs. Loyal Davis and Mrs. Robert Arnold poured, the guests were taken on a tour of the center with various members of the women's committees as guides. Among them were Miss Marie Plamondon, Mrs. William Waller Jr., Mrs. Daniel C. Smith, Mrs. Sartelle Brooks, Miss Betty Jane Norcott, and Miss Kay Nelson.

At that time of the day there were only a few soldiers and sailors taking advantage of the recreational features offered in the center, but it did not take much imagination to people the great rooms on eight floors with boys eager for a little pleasure when they were off duty. The hostesses reported that they have enough girls signed up to provide dancing partners thru Jan. 5 and that refreshments for every Saturday night thru April are provided for. But there are other nights each week and many boys to be fed, so cakes and cookies are welcome gifts.

Next Monday Mrs. Stanley and her committee will give a reception and tea for 500 women at the center following the celebration in Grant park of the 150th anniversary of the ratification of the bill of rights.

Your Handwriting

BY SHIRLEY SPENCER.

Benito Mussolini's handwriting has gone thru a series of changes which show his changing character. What makes handwriting analysis so valuable in psychological work is that it is such a sensitive register of our mental and emotional states.

The first signature was written by Mussolini about 1924, when he was only the premier of Rome, and it was written below the signatures of the king and queen of Italy. In comparison with the royal signatures, his lacks poise and assurance. It sprawls across the page. But look at the difference in 1928! Here we see the writing has become vertical, with heavy up and down strokes, and is compact and written with force and confidence. And those i-dots are put down with a dictator gesture which is unmistakable. The pen pressure has thickened up and the letter forms are now very angular and end abruptly. This is a picture of the hard-jawed Mussolini we knew.

His recent signature [not illustrated here] now sprawls out in exaggerated gestures that are ineffectual and lack that direct, disciplined, accurate punch that this 1928 signature reflects.

Invitations Wait Arrival Today of Junior William H. Mitchells

BY JUDITH CASS.

A STACK of invitations is waiting at the J. Bernard Mullens' house in Lake Forest for Mr. and Mrs. William H. Mitchell Jr., who will arrive this morning from Alameda, Cal. Just how many of the invitations will be accepted by the young couple is a matter of conjecture, according to her mother, Mrs. Mullen, who feels strongly the impropriety of too much festivity during war time. Mrs. Mullen just returned on Wednesday from the United States Naval academy at Annapolis, where plans for the placing of her murals on steel in Bancroft hall were discussed. If present plans are carried out, the murals will be installed in January. Mrs. Mullen has been invited to have a one-man or one-woman show at the Smithsonian institution in February, but whether or not she will accept the treasured invitation will depend on war developments.

Mr. and Mrs. Mullen have planned a cocktail party for their daughter and son-in-law and his father and his bride-to-be, Mrs. Wood Tullis, for Sunday, Dec. 21, but that may be canceled, Mrs. Mullen said yesterday. Mr. Mitchell Sr. and Mrs. Tullis are to be married on Jan. 1. Young Mr. and Mrs. Mitchell will be here until Jan. 3, when they will return to Alameda, where he is studying at the Boeing School of Aviation.

Casino to Be Transformed Into a Night Club Tonight.

Mrs. Tullis and Mr. Mitchell Sr. are being given a party tonight by Mr. and Mrs. Charles C. Renshaw, who will be among those entertaining at the Casino's dinner-dance. Sophisticated decorations, planned before the war struck all thought of frivolity from every one's heart, will transform the club tonight, and from 8 o'clock on limousines will be drawing up before the door of El Casino, "Chicago's newest night spot," according to the invitations. Mrs. Ambrose C. Cramer, who has planned the cabaret show, is keeping the entertainment features a dark secret.

Mr. and Mrs. Cramer, her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Meeker; the Bryan S. Reids, the George A. Ranneys, the Wilbur C. Smiths, the Howard Peabodys, the Freeman Hinckleys, the James Ward Thornes, and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Crompton Bangs are among others who will have guests at the party.

Dinner to Be Given Tonight at Woman's Athletic Club.

The Woman's Athletic club is to be bright with lights tonight, too, for a dinner, followed by a program of games, has been arranged for the pleasure of members and guests.

Mrs. Nicholas Starosselsky has been in charge of the party. Among those who have made reservations are Mrs. Charles W. Seabury, Miss Lillian and Miss Myrtle Lampert, Mrs. John L. Clarkson, Mrs. Robert Burrows, Mrs. Robert H. Richie, Mrs. Bruce MacLeish, Mrs. Daniel Boone, Mrs. Frederick Watson, Mrs. Edward M. Adams, and Mrs. Harold Moore.

Next Friday night more serious things will occupy W. A. C. members, for they will hear an illustrated lecture entitled "Your Navy—What Do You Know About It?" Eric M. Silver, marine engineer and traveler in the south Pacific islands, Asiatic lands, and South America, will be the speaker, assisted by Petty Officer Linver of the Navy District Public Relations office of Chicago. Mrs. Averill Tilden is chairman of the committee that has planned this interesting event.

Square Dance to Be Held at Country Day School.

Parents and faculty members of the Lake Forest Country Day school will don their oldest clothes tonight for an evening of square dancing in the school gymnasium. The party starts at 8:30 o'clock. Beforehand there'll be several dinner parties, including those of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Wilson Jr., Mr. and Mrs. George Corson Ellis, Mr. and Mrs. Keith Carpenter, and Mr. and Mrs. William R. Odell Jr.

There will be no dinner parties before tonight's Fortnightly, for the only one that had been planned had to be called off yesterday because of the illness of the youthful guest of honor, Jennifer Turner. Mrs. Wayne Wills was giving the party, which is postponed until after Christmas. Jennifer is the elder daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Turner of Highland Park.

The Kenilworth club will give an informal dance tonight for young people of high school age. Arrangements for the party were made by Mrs. W. Marshall Branch, Mrs. Harold O. Barnes, and Mrs. Stephen Chase IV.

Bach Chorus Will Present Christmas Oratorio Tonight.

Christmas wouldn't be Christmas in Chicago without a performance of Bach's Christmas Oratorio by the Chicago Bach chorus. The oratorio will be included in the concert which the chorus will give in Orchestra hall tonight. The chorus, which is under the direction of Theodore Lams, will be accompanied by members of the Chicago Symphony orchestra.

Among those who have taken boxes for the concert are Mrs. William A. Nitze, Mrs. Edward L. Ryerson, Dr. and Mrs. Frederick Stock, Dr. and Mrs. Phillip Miller, Mr. and Mrs. Albert F. Madlener, Oscar Mayer, and Gaylord S. Morse.

In view of the present crisis, the junior board of Northwestern University settlement has resolved to drop its current projects and to swing promptly into war work. The board has been divided into three sections. The knitting and sewing group, under Mrs. Ernest E. Freeman Jr., fills orders for handmade articles, and a second group, headed by Mrs. D. Wendell Fentress, makes and sells needle-point objects. Hereafter the two groups, meeting weekly in the homes of members, will devote their energies to the Red Cross chapter at the settlement, which has classes in physical dressings, knitting, and infant sewing. The junior board plans to send instructors for these classes down to the settlement.

The third junior board group, which does volunteer work at the settlement under Mrs. Joseph W. Sharp, will continue its duties. Mrs. Robert G. Pearse is president of the board.

Emile Cooper, Russian composer and one of the conductors of the Chicago Opera company, will be the special guest at tea at the Cordon after the symphony this afternoon. Miss Willa Dryden will sing, accompanied by Mrs. Adrienne Cooper. Mrs. Harrison H. Havner, president of the Lake View Musical society, and Mrs. Marshall H. Jones, president of the Musicians' Club of Women, will pour.

Mrs. Chester M. MacChesney will be hostess at the Cliff Dwellers' tea this afternoon. Mrs. MacChesney will be assisted by Mrs. John Hooker, Mrs. George T. Buckingham, Mrs. William M. McGovern, and Mrs. Frank Burney.

"Army Supply" will be discussed by Maj. Francis W. Parker Jr. at the Cliff Dwellers tonight.

The Chicago College club will make a tour of some of the galleries of the Art institute this morning at 10:30 o'clock under the direction of Mrs. Mia Stanton Munger of the institute's educational department. Mrs. Munger will discuss the decorative arts.

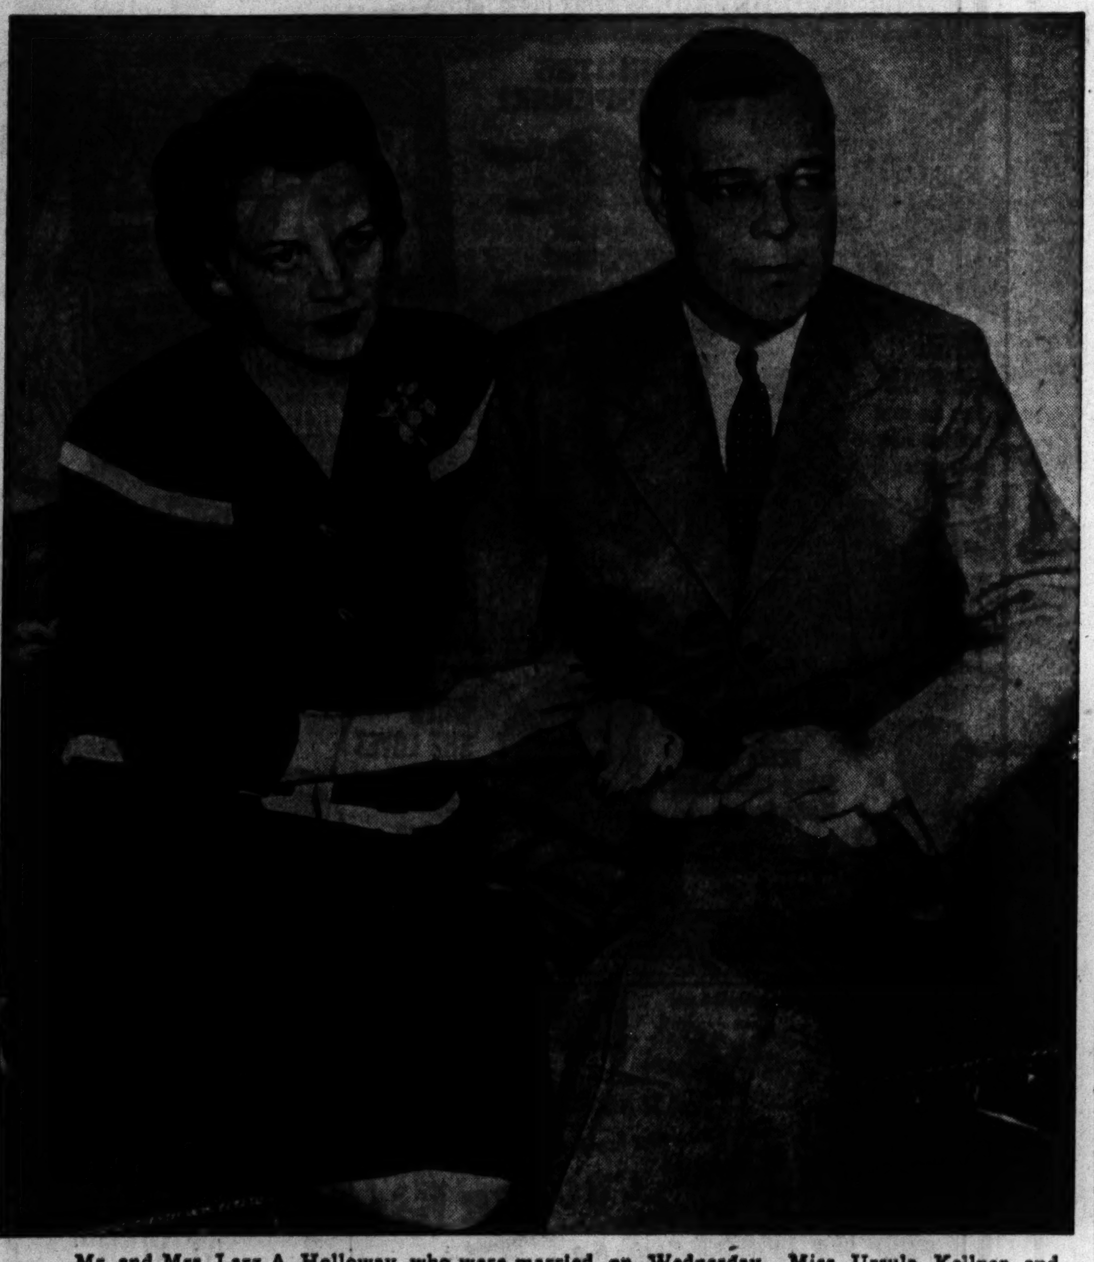
Il Circolo Italiano of the Chicago Musical college, a group of young singers studying Italian, will sing at the after-the-symphony tea at the club this afternoon. Mrs. A. Frank Cuneo and Miss Annette May Cuneo will pour at tea.

Engagements

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald B. Stephens of Winnetka announced yesterday the engagement of their daughter, Margaret, to John William Crawford of Evanston, son of Mrs. Francis Crawford of Omaha, Neb. The wedding will take place in February. Miss Stephens attended Briarcliff college and the University of Wisconsin. Mr. Crawford was graduated from Northwestern university.

Mrs. George D. Milne of Oak Park announces the engagement of her sister, Myrtle Albee Buss of La Grange, to Andrew S. Hurter of Oak Park.

Married After a Brief Engagement



Mr. and Mrs. Larz A. Holloway, who were married on Wednesday. Miss Ursula Kellner and Mr. Holloway, whose engagement was announced the preceding Wednesday, decided to be married suddenly because of the war. Mr. Holloway, a son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry C. Holloway of Glencoe, is awaiting orders to re-enter the United States army, having just returned from nearly a year's service. The wedding ceremony was performed by the Rev. Douglas H. Cornell of the Glencoe Union church in the presence of Mr. and Mrs. Holloway and Mr. and Mrs. Walter A. Kellner of Glencoe, the bride's parents. [TRIBUNE Photo.]

Blind Persons Offered Chance for Guide Dog

BY SALLY JOY BROWN.

[Activities of the Sally Joy Brown department are sponsored by Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc.]

In a troubled world we're happy to be able to present good news for some sightless person—an opportunity to obtain the companionship of a faithful dog, the use of his keen eyes and instincts, and consequently a chance to walk freely and without fear.

A local organization which bends all of its efficient and varied efforts toward assistance of the blind recently forwarded to me an interesting offer of this latest type of help. Money has been set aside for purchasing guide dogs, and there now are several available for the use of persons who can qualify.

The dogs are of German shepherd breed and are purchased in a distant state. All applicants are sent there for training with the animal, at no personal expense, since the agency pays for railroad fares and hotel expenses during this period, which is about six weeks. Persons between the ages of 15 and 50 are best suited for such training and eventual use of a dog.

Any blind person who can fulfill such qualifications and who is able, physically and socially, to care for a dog and house it properly may write to the agency in care of this department. Applicants will be investigated personally by a committee, hence those living in Chicago or the nearby suburbs are considered preferable. Persons sponsored by institutions or agencies will be considered, as well as individuals, without regard to race or creed.

Interested persons may send applications to this department. All will be forwarded to the organization for selection. Please do not telephone or call in person at this office in regard to this offer.

Wedding

Miss Caroline Bartsch, daughter of Paul V. Bartsch of East 84th place and Mrs. Mary Hand of South Dante avenue, will become the bride of Robert C. Dempesy, son of Mr. and Mrs. John S. Dempesy of Flossmoor, this afternoon at Kelly Field, Tex. Lieut. Dempesy will receive his wings at the field at noon. Both Miss Bartsch and Lieut. Dempesy were graduated from Knox college. He was also graduated from Morgan Park Military academy and studied at Dartmouth college.

Observing Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. William Recht will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary tomorrow at their home, 1702 Albion avenue.

Defense Recreation Plans Are Announced by City Commission

Eleven major recreation objectives for Chicago in 1942 were announced yesterday by the Chicago recreation commission thru its acting chairman, Judge John P. McGoorty of the Superior court. The annual report containing the objectives stated that wartime recreation, both for service men and civilians, will be cared for immediately.

Among the goals listed by the commission were the following: Sponsorship of a national defense recreation project; promotion of recreation for civilian morale; preparation for postwar recreation projects; promotion of bequests to the city for recreational purposes, and the encouragement of youth in citizenship responsibilities.

Judge McGoorty praised the work done at the Chicago Service Men's center, 176 West Washington street, established by Mayor Kelly's Chicago Commission on National Defense, which is used each week by nearly 3,000 men from army and navy posts within 100 miles of the city.

Dr. Stock Offers New Work of Rachmaninoff

BY EDWARD BARRY.

This reporter, always on the prowl for news, found last night's Chicago Symphony orchestra concert a singularly uneventful one. The two hours spent in Orchestra hall netted nothing more sensational than a first Chicago performance, under Frederick Stock's direction, of Rachmaninoff's new set of three symphonic dances.

This work, like other of Rachmaninoff's compositions, falls into a curious category. It is contemporary music which shows no contemporary influence. It could with very minor changes be a product of 1890, 1940 or —for that matter—1970.

But music should be judged on its intrinsic merits, not by its conformity or nonconformity with any arbitrarily set up standards. The truth is that the second of these symphonic dances has the graciousness and the dark suavity which we have long associated with its composer. It has one of those slow, suspense creating, gradually unfolding melodies which was delighting the world back in the early days of Rachmaninoff's fame and which will doubtless continue to do so for as far into the future as any one would dare prophesy.

The first movement, generally rather strong and rhythmic, boasts some beautiful lyrical episodes full of the familiar Rachmaninoff gravity and thoughtfulness. The final division of the piece, despite an air of bustle and bigness, seems less significant than the other two.

The program was all-Russian, and included works of a czarist, a soviet and an émigré composer. The czarist piece was Tschaikowsky's Symphony after Byron's "Manfred," an example of blasted heath and haunted forest romanticism. Musically, it is a quaint souvenir of the day when a diminished seventh was supposed to represent extreme terror and a slow suspension to the common chord the sadness of remembered love.

Why this work should turn up as frequently as it does is one of Chicago's major musical mysteries. Certainly it displays the orchestra's sonorities beautifully and it has a certain historical interest [as an especially striking and characteristic product of an outmoded type of musical thought], but its actual artistic merit does not seem very great.

Soviet Russia was represented by Glière's "Fête Ferganaise," an attractive and effectively scored piece based on the folk melodies of Fergana, in Asiatic Russia. It is one of the works commissioned for the orchestra's golden jubilee season and given its first performance here last year.

White Collar GIRL

BY RUTH MACKAY.

What Men Don't Like.

Additions to the File on What Men Don't Like About Us:

Strong perfume during business hours. [A fresh cologne, clean smelling soap, or a faintly scented talcum powder goes over better with the boss than "Scent of Araby" or "Cleopatra's Secret."]

Endless chatter, particularly on the telephone. ["I'll call you back, Mame, in a minute," may be the very minute the inconspicuous gentleman walking in the door has a $40,000 contract in his pocket.]

Interoffice rivalry. [Men flee, as from a plague, women's trifling disputes. Never tell a man you don't like another woman unless he asks you. . . . And don't tell him then!]

Credit Women.

Priorities and changing economic conditions throw special emphasis on the work of women in the credit field. . . . According to a department head in the Chicago Association for Credit Men, the qualities which contribute to the value of credit women are: A knowledge of finance and an understanding of financial statements, a knowledge of bookkeeping, commercial law, marketing, and inventory, an ability to handle correspondence, a knowledge of general psychology.

Spelling Test.

Can you spell? The following paragraph contains six incorrectly spelled words:

"And therefor, first of all, I tell you earnestly and authoratatively [I know I am right in this] that you must get into the habit of looking intensley at words, and assuring yourself of their meaning, syllable by syllable—nay, letter by letter. . . . You might read all the books in the British musuem [if you could live long enough] and remain an utterly illitterate, uneducated person; but if you read ten pages of a good book, letter by letter, that is to say, with real accuracy, you are for evermore in some measure an educated person."—Ruskin.

Ways of Saying It.

There are all ways of expressing it. . . . A writer a half century ago stated it this way: "Work brings its own relief." A good trouper, when clouds are gathering, says: "The show must go on." And the white collar girls, with war clouds overhead, square their shoulders, sharpen their pencils and say: "The job's the thing."

Courtroom Scene.

Two young court reporters at a recent trial were jolted out of their usual decorum by the lawyer for the defense. The previous evening he had left the courtroom feeling somewhat ill. The next morning, however, he reappeared looking quite cheerful. . . . When the opposing counsel asked him how he felt he made no answer. Instead, he opened his coat and revealed, beneath his vest, a hot water bag, slung over his stomach and fastened by a cord around his neck.

Chicago Esperanto Group Will Hold Dinner Monday

The Chicago chapter of the Esperanto Association of North America will hold a dinner at 7 p. m. next Monday at Maxwell's restaurant, 404 South Wabash avenue, in memory of its founder, Dr. Ludwig L. Looking at Hollywood . . . By John Chapman

Hollywood, Cal., Dec. 11.—This town, like any other American town, has had time enough to get used to things and to find some humor in new circumstances. It also has had time enough to get back to work after a couple of strange days of radio toting, dial twisting, and talking. Sound stages operate as usual; the assistant director hollers, "Quiet!" And you stay quiet until the director says, "Cut."

Wittiest remark I have encountered so far is Irving Hoffman's offhand comment: "I understand they're starting a California society in Iowa."

Outwardly, movieland has changed hardly at all. There's a tighter restriction on visitors to studios, and in some plants a correspondent is checked in and out by guards. Studios have always been thoroly policed, having more cops than the communities they are in, and the police function normally.

The most noticeable change in the valley, in Beverly Hills, and on west, where the actors mostly live, is the absence from street sides of jalopies which have no counterpart elsewhere in the country. They are the vehicles of the Japanese gardeners.

These machines are vastly ancient crates which must have traveled at least 150,000 miles. Some are little half ton trucks, others are converted passenger cars. . . . From the rear corners of a truck body stick up two short poles, on which are coiled great battered lengths of red and green garden hose. In the bodies are piled hand mowers of various sizes and a power mower. Stuck in the V's of the front fenders are rattan rakes, hoes, tree trimmers, and other implements. Between the front bumper and the radiator may be stacked another mower or two.

These catchalls long have inspired anger and terror in the heart of the Hollywood motorist, for a Japanese gardener is a flutter headed driver at best. He rattles along very slowly, always in the middle of the road, looking about as tho he doesn't know which way to turn—and you know well enough he doesn't.

The first day of the war somebody—one supposes the FBI—skimmed thru the residence districts and by noon there wasn't a jalopy anywhere, or a Mongolian gardener working. The process was repeated the following day, to catch those who weren't working the first day, and now there aren't any anywhere. . . . Many whose citizenship is established doubtless will reappear, but Hollywoodians may have to get out and cut their own grass. This will be exciting because nobody owns a lawn mower.

There are Mexican gardeners, too, and if the experience of Abbott and Costello is any sample there's going to be a different kind of trouble about them. Bud, Lou, and their writing sidekick, John Grant, have neighboring houses in the valley, and they share a head gardener who has three Mexican assistants. These three helpers were working merrily when word came that Mexico was on our side. They promptly dropped their tools and departed. "We're going to join the Mexican army," they said happily.

William Saroyan is the mystery man of Metro. He has an office with no name on the door, and the switchboard has orders to plug in nobody who hasn't the password. He has free run of the studio and is deciding whether he likes the movies. . . . He's getting something like $300 a week for this period in which Metro is on trial, which is enough to feed all the Saroyan relatives. Any day now he may decide to write a film story, and when he does—and if M-G-M likes it—the studio will pay him lots more than his present small fee.

Army and navy will soon begin drawing off Hollywood's top technicians. Gregg Toland, for instance, is a navy man and probably will be in service long before Sam Goldwyn is ready for him to shoot the Gehrig picture. . . . Studios have abandoned all outdoor night shots. . . . Sid Sutherland, on the air the other night, suggested a war slogan: "Let's fight dirty." . . . From a local chatter column: "Gloria Jean must be a smart little girl. She turned down $1,500 weekly on a personal appearance tour because she was behind in her school work." Smart?

SYNOPSIS.

Jack Waugh, who, when a small boy, saw his father ambushed and murdered in Santa Rita, returns there 20 years later determined to bring the murderers to justice. He rescues Mary Lane from a holdup and possible kidnaping, and finds she is the stepdaughter of Corbett Carey, his father's friend. But Abner Clinton III., grandson of old Ab Clinton, who instigated the Waugh murder, is Mary's suitor, and since the murder, most of the Clinton tribe have become law abiding and prominent. The unscrupulous member, besides old Ab, is his son Brad, who manages the Clinton ranch altho his father still owns controling interest. Carey's son, Carl, tells Jack that Jim Fallon, now employed by Brad, was the first to arrive on the scene of the murder. Jack questions Fallon but is interrupted by two of Brad's men, Warren Tracy and Ike Parker. Tracy starts a fight trying to take Fallon away, but Jack gives Tracy a terrific beating. Jack hires Fallon to protect him from Brad and his men. Fallon tells Jack he saw Tracy and Brad leave the scene of the murder and Jack learns that old Ab was seen taking his father's money belt. A bullet narrowly misses Jack and he thinks Tracy fired at him. He encounters Ike Parker and Clem Peake, another one of Brad's men, and Jack recognizes them to be the men who held up Mary. He notifies young Abner, who investigates and finds it is true. Summoning his grandfather to the ranch, young Abner recommends they turn Parker and Peake over to the police. Old Ab pretends to agree but instead offers Parker $500 to get rid of Jack. A note supposedly from Carl Carey, summons Jack to the Carey ranch. En route, Jack rescues a man who, being mistaken for Jack, was attacked from the ambush. He sends the man back to town by Fallon, and alone, he trails the men and finds they are Tracy, Parker, and Peake. He captures them and takes them to the Carey ranch where Mary identifies Parker and Peake as her two assailants. Then Jack delivers them to the sheriff who is waiting at the Clinton ranch.

INSTALMENT XXIX.

ARREST DEMANDED.

Brad's narrowed little black eyes were like obsidian. "I don't get you, fellow, but I don't need to. You've come with a gang to make trouble. My advice to you is to light out sudden. You can't raid our ranch and get away with it."

His father lifted a hand wrinkled with age. "Just a moment, Brad," he wheezed. "This young man claims he has come to see Sheriff Wilmore. He mentioned some prisoners. Maybe we had better go out and have a look at them."

"They are not very presentable," Jack apologized ironically. "They had a long walk thru the dust and the cactus. I hadn't time to brush off my specimens. But you'll excuse that."

"You might send Mr. Tracy to do that," advised Waugh.

"Don't get on the prod, Brad," the old man said, with a rather toothless smile as false as Satan. "Mr. Waugh is just now a guest of the ranch. He is the son of an old neighbor of mine. The stories we hear about his being a troublemaker may not be so. I hope they ain't, on account of that folks get their come-uppings. Come on, sheriff. Let's sashay out and see what this young fellow has got to show us."

"Sure," the sheriff replied. "No harm to look. But I came up here to get these holdup guys. I can't take on a raft of other fellows right now."

The four men walked from the room to the porch. As soon as they came in sight Tracy broke into loud and angry explanations designed to save face. The three of them had been riding to the ranch, molesting nobody, when this fellow Waugh with a bunch of other toughs held them up, took their guns away, and made them walk six or seven miles to the Three Prongs. Explosively and profanely he announced his intention not to put up with such treatment for a minute.

When the spate of words subsided Jack made a few corrections. "It didn't take any posse to bring in these tame wolves. I was alone, and I just asked them to behave nicely, and they did. I took away their guns and tied them up and herded them to the Seven Prongs. A schoolboy could have done it. The reason I did it was because they had shot a traveling salesman half an hour before in mistake for me."

"Who would want to kill you, Mr. Waugh, a stranger in the neighborhood?" old Abner asked blandly. "Doesn't sound reasonable to me."

Bluntly Carl cut in with information. "I can name two or three who might, Mr. Clinton," he said. "Warren Tracy, for one. Jack whipped him in a fair fight and afterward he swore he would kill him."

"Shucks, he was mad right then. But Warren wouldn't hold a grudge. You'd be willing to shake hands with Waugh right now, wouldn't you, Warren?" old Abner asked, turning to him benignantly.

"Not after what he did to me tonight," Tracy answered vehemently.

"Then there were these two holdups, Peake and Parker, whom Jack had identified and meant to send to prison," Carl went on. "They might want to rub out his evidence."

Corbett Carey added his word. "Why were these men carrying rifles in the boots beside their saddles, Abner, if they weren't up to any deviltry? We examined those rifles. All of them had been fired recently. I am not trying to make trouble with a neighbor, but I haven't any doubt that these men shot the salesman thinking he was Waugh. Another thing. Here's a note some one sent him. It is signed with Carl's name, and it asks Jack to come out soon as he can to the Three Prongs. Carl did not write it. The note was a trap. Whoever sent it waited in the brush and got the wrong man."

Abner shook his head. "No. Look at it this way. This man Waugh wants to get something on the A. C. He writes this note to himself, knowing some of our boys are in town, then shoots up the salesman and tries to put it on my riders. That's how it shapes up to me."

"Fallon was with me when we scared off these killers," Jack mentioned. "I have even a better witness, the salesman. He was not even very badly wounded. Your warriors aren't giving you value received, Mr. Clinton. I don't know what you pay them, but they ought to be more expert shots."

The old man turned on him for a moment the bleak blaze of malignant eyes. "Don't get funny with me," he rasped. "Before you were born I wiped out fellows who got in my way."

"And some after that time. By proxy. My father, for one." The ice-blue eyes of Jack, hard as marble, looked straight into those of Peter Waugh's enemy.

"You can't prove it," snapped Abner.

"After you stand up in court to plead 'Not guilty' you'll find out about that," the young man retorted.

"Now look here, Mr. Waugh, you hadn't ought to talk that way to Mr. Clinton," the sheriff protested. "He's one of our leading citizens, an old-timer of whom we are all proud. We honor him as one of our earliest pioneers and as——"

"You just heard him say he killed men who got in his way," Jack said.

"Rustlers," Abner cut in. "I don't make no bones about it. I'd do it again."

Sheriff Wilmore mopped his pink perspiring face with a bandanna. "Those were wild days, Mr. Waugh," he explained. "Most everybody carried a gun and there was a lot of shooting. But we've got law now."

"So we have," Jack told him. "And peace officers. By the way, what do you mean to do about an innocent man shot down tonight within 10 miles of here, sheriff?"

"I'll look into it, of course."

Wilmore was rather on the spot. He meant to take the two holdups back with him to Santa Rita, but Tracy offered a more difficult problem. The man was foreman of the biggest ranch in the county. The Clintons were important people, influential politically, and there was an election coming up in the fall. If the sheriff offended them he probably would not get the nomination. This was the best job he had ever had and he did not intend to lose it.

"I know my duty, young man," he said stiffly. "You don't have to tell me what it is."

"What's this cock and bull story about somebody being shot tonight?" Brad demanded. "I don't believe a word of it. All poppycock."

"Unfortunately it's true, Brad," Corbett Carey informed him. "Carl talked with the clerk at the hotel."

"All right. It's true. Does that mean our boys did it? Course I know some nitwits blame us for everything that is wrong in the district. But it doesn't have to be so. If they had been out to bump somebody off I would know it, wouldn't I?"

"The old man must have been holding out on you, Brad," Jack said, thin, insulting smile mocking the bloated ranchman. "He ought to have let you in on this. Looks as if he can't trust you. Why not? This wouldn't be the first time you had shot a man down from ambush. You handled the killing of my father at the Longhorn corral all right, didn't you?"

"You're off your nut, fellow," Brad flung back. "That killing was done by the Millers or some other bunch of outlaws in the Chiricahuas. They did it to rob him. The sheriff and the police were satisfied of that."

"But maybe the old man is right," Jack continued, just as if Brad had not spoken. "You had my father six or seven to one, and he was wounded to death before his gun ever smoked, but he drove the whole bunch of you away except for the fellow he killed. Old Abner had to come to the corral himself and steal the saddlebags with the money. He hasn't any luck in the killers he hires. They don't deliver."

Good Cooking Still Helps a Girl Win Love

BY DORIS BLAKE.

[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

Do we see signs of the young man caller being met at the door by a girl not hatted or asking: "Where do we go from here, Bill?"

Do we see, instead, a hostess frocked miss inviting Bill in to enjoy one of her culinary specialties?

We are led to suspect something is in the air after reading Eleanor Early's breezy volume, "She Knew What He Wanted" [Waverly House], one chapter of which explains:

"This chapter is written for the benefit of girls who, like myself, not only love to eat, but love to entertain, and for every girl who loves a man and wants to make him happy."

Being the girl who is a wonderful cook and gives grand parties, Miss Early opines, still is a good route to masculine affections.

"Knowing how to cook is a pleasant way of getting what you want, because a well fed man, like any other well fed animal, is so good natured that a child can handle him. Most men have a frank and sensuous appreciation of food and, since nothing is sweeter to a woman than admiration, gratifying the boys is a lovely circle. First we make them happy. Then they make us glad.

Woman's place is still, I believe, in the vicinity of the kitchen, only now its the kitchenette and more fun. Many of us are better cooks than our grandmothers, and achieve triumphs that would have kept the old women in the kitchen from sun-up. Men in Grandma's day brought home the bacon, but they never cooked it."

Those men who can cook today are nice men to have around, Miss Early thinks. They bring you funny gifts in paper bags and, when a girl rolls up her sleeves, she likes a little co-operation. Anyway, Miss Early gives you some pretty snappy recipes that have been tried on men and earned: "Baby, how do you do it?"

DORIS BLAKE'S LETTER BOX

Have you a perplexing problem on which you need friendly counsel? Write to Doris Blake in care of the Chicago Tribune, Tribune Tower, Chicago, Ill. If you wish a personal reply, inclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Forget Petty Hurt.

"Dear Miss Blake: A girl I know snubbed me and we did not speak for a couple of months. We eventually made up, but our friendship is not the same. Should I write her first, or should I wait for her to write me? ANDY C."

Forget about feeling hurt. Write her a nice letter, telling her how you miss her, and suggesting a future meeting.

Child Is the Victim.

"Dear Miss Blake: My wife left me because I was not faithful. Now I realize it's she I love. But she doesn't want to forgive me. We have a child, age 9. My wife lets me see him, but she refuses to come back. What shall I do? FRANK."

For the child's sake you might be able to convince her to come back to you. Then you'll have to prove to her how much you care for her only.

Shy on Conversation.

"Dear Miss Blake: When I go skating, dancing or any place else with a fellow, I don't know what to talk about, I can't think of anything to say, especially if I like the fellow. "CHIPPI."

Talk about skating, dancing, sports of all kinds, music, art, the theater, the radio, current events, yourself; and encourage him to talk about himself.

Style No. 3002 is designed for size 16 and 36, 38, 40, 42, 44, 46, 48, and 50 inch bust measurements. Size 36 requires 3⅝ yards of 39 inch material.

Each pattern costs 10 cents.

Address orders for Clotilde patterns to Chicago Tribune, P. O. Box 537, Grand Central annex, NEW YORK CITY, including 10 cents in stamps or coin (coin preferred—wrap it carefully) for each pattern ordered. IMPORTANT! Be sure to state clearly the number of the pattern and the size desired and write your name and address plainly. The fall and winter pattern book costs 15 cents, 10 cents if ordered with a pattern.

According to CULBERTSON

[Copyright: 1941: By Ely Culbertson.]

It is safer to speak about chickens before they are hatched than about tricks before they are cashed. In today's hand West felt sure he would make two trump tricks whatever happened. But, to use a colloquialism, he "found out different."

South, dealer.
Neither side vulnerable.

The bidding:

South	West	North	East
1 spade	Pass	2 clubs	Pass
2 spades	Pass	4 spades	Pass
Pass	Double	Redouble	Pass
Pass	Pass

North's redouble was a shade on the optimistic side, inasmuch as he already had shown an excellent hand and a spade fit.

West opened the diamond king and East gave an encouraging signal with the eight spot. The ace and another diamond followed, the latter being ruffed in dummy. Declarer then led a low spade to the ace and saw the bad break. Apparently West had two trump tricks in the guarded Q-10, but declarer did not give up and admit defeat. He led a club to the ace and ruffed a club, then led a heart to the ace and ruffed a second club, thus deliberately reducing himself below West's trump length. He then cashed the king and queen of hearts. Now the stage was set for the grand finale. Declarer had left only three cards, the K-J of spades and the jack of diamonds. He knew West still had the Q-10 and one spade, and that success was assured. All he had to do was exit by leading the jack of diamonds. West had to ruff and, of course, had to return a trump from the Q-10 up to declarer's K-J tenace.

This type of trump end-play comes up more frequently than might be imagined, and it will repay all students of the game to study the technique involved. Obviously, West must be stripped of side suit cards and, coincidentally, declarer must reduce his own trump length to no more than the equal of the defenders'. Sometimes this involves the ruffing of perfectly good tricks. The only difficult thing is to cash and ruff the tricks in the correct order so as to avoid an overruff. For example, if South had led his fourth diamond before ruffing two clubs and cashing his hearts, West could have ruffed in with the spade 10 and exited with a side suit card.

Tomorrow's Hand.

Odd Objects Serve Child as Playthings

By GLADYS HUNTINGTON BEVANS.

[Copyright: 1941: By News Syndicate Co. Inc.]

Small children love many objects for what we call "play" that are not listed as toys.

Since your money, or that of loving friends and relatives, is going to be invested in toys this next week or so, I am going to add here a more conventional plaything list. Today's group will be for:

THE BABY AND CHILD UP TO 3 YEARS OF AGE.

Coal shovels, pails, sand shovels, sink shovels, wooden spoons, trowels, footstools, low tables, solid; low solid chairs, big soft balls, hammer, nails, blocks, large, solid, 6"x4"x3"; blocks, large, solid [paving blocks], 8"x4"x4"; blocks, large, hollow, 8"x8"x4"; smaller round corner blocks, animals, soft; dolls, soft; scraps or squares of cloth in primary colors to wrap dolls in.

Wagons, four wheeled, with sides and without; pieces of wood and other objects to load in wagon, wheelbarrow, slide, kiddie cars, two planks nailed together, raised an inch, which can be laid flat or inclined to increasing degrees of steepness; sandboxes, pebble boxes, swings made of big squares of wood, hung by parallel ropes at four corners, about a foot from ground or less; loops of heavy rope suspended from beam about seven feet high, loop to be about two to three feet long, bottom of loop about one foot from ground.

There seems to be room also for a list for:

CHILDREN FROM 3 TO 4 YEARS OF AGE.

Household utensils in miniature, watering can, furry, or hair, or cloth animals, on wheels or not; rubber balls, dolls and doll equipment, small wagons, trucks, etc.; small sailboats, crayons, large; pencils, soft; large sheets paper, blunt pointed scissors, colored paper, paste, clay and clay board, blocks, large, slight variety in shape, obtainable now in sets or can be made by carpenter.

Blocks, multiples and divisions of unit—unit block being 1⅜"x2¾"x5½". They range in sizes from half units to blocks four times the unit in length. Can be made of white wood by carpenter or bought ready made from manufacturer; wooden engines, wooden trains, iron or tin trains with broad base, iron fire engines, dump trucks, slide, sand box and sand toys, large wagons, low swing, nonball bearing roller skates, velocipede, wheelbarrow.

How the children will like them!

How can you amuse the convalescent child? What is the most difficult age? How may stubbornness be prevented? These and other problems are discussed in "You and Your Young Child." Mrs. Gladys Bevans' latest booklet, on sale at the Tribune Public Service offices, 1 S. Dearborn street and Tribune Tower. Price, 15 cents; postpaid, 18 cents.

TODAY'S PRIZE RECIPES

Charlotte Fay Lehne, 1124 Salem avenue, Dayton, O., makes coffee praline patties each year at Christmas time. She wins today's $5 recipe contest prize with this:

COFFEE PRALINE PATTIES

2 cups brown sugar
½ cup strong coffee
1 cup coarsely chopped nuts
1 teaspoon vanilla

Boil coffee and sugar together until a little dropped in cold water forms a soft ball [240 degrees, by candy thermometer]. Remove from heat, beat until creamy, add flavoring and nuts. Drop by tablespoons onto waxed paper. When cold and hard pack in attractive Christmas boxes or arrange on candy plates.

Send in your own favorite recipe. Perhaps it will win you a prize, too. Address Recipe Contest, Chicago Tribune.

THE Kitchen Kibitzer

by MARIAN CARTER

A look over the shoulder of the kitchen manager in an attempt to speed, lighten and add some novelty to her daily routine.

Ouch! Another burn! If you get burnt fingers in the oven in spite of hot pan holders, what you need is a pair of ovenproof mittens that resemble husking mits. You can make them yourself if you can't find 'em.

• • •

Sure, you can cut up the beets before cooking them. It saves a lot of time. And you won't need to lose the color. Cook them in a small amount of water, with a cover for the first ten minutes. Let the water cook down and serve the beets in their red juice. A little vinegar in the cooking water helps the color. And use plenty of salt, pepper, and butter.

• • •

Are you going to cream those potatoes? How about adding a little extra flavor in the form of a tablespoonful of chopped pimiento and another of cut chives or green onion tops? M-m-mm, good!

• • •

Better empty that half used can of tomato juice into a glass dish for storage. No, it doesn't hurt the juice to let it stand in the can, but it may get a metallic flavor.

• • •

If there's going to be unplanned-for company for dinner, you'd better stretch that meat loaf a bit. Cornflakes or bread crumbs will do it. So will boiled rice, macaroni, noodles or spaghetti. Be sure to season it well. Chili sauce helps.

• • •

Those are right handsome fruit cakes. Are you going to baste them with wine or brandy? 'Sa good idea. But don't use too much. Just about 2 tablespoonfuls over each cake at a basting. Baste every day, or less frequently.

Did you know that the two secrets of perfect Hollandaise sauce are: 1, Beating the egg yolk until thick, very thick. 2. Never allowing the water in the bottom part of the double boiler to boil. To serve mock Hollandaise admits defeat.

BY C. H. BEUKEMA.

Memphis' Ray Newton, an unassuming bowler with a good working ball, led the field of 12 shooters competing in the All-Star tournament in the Coliseum for the world match game challenge title by knocking down 2,156 pins and scoring 50.06 points in 10 games yesterday and last night. Newton rolled totals of 1,075 and 1,081, beating first Joe Sinke of Chicago and then Lowell Jackson of St. Louis.

Each of the 12 bowlers, 11 of whom are survivors of the preliminary round which ended Wednesday night, is to roll 55 games during the closing four days of the tournament sponsored by the Chicago Tribune Charities, Inc., and the Bowling Proprietors' Association of America. Each man will meet every other man in the field in one five game match and the challenger who is to emerge Sunday night will be the bowler who has scored the largest number of points under the Petersen system. Points are to be figured on a cumulative basis over the whole competition.

Ray Was Really Hot.

Newton rolled only one game of less than 200, his opening game in the Sinke match. Then he went out and won the next four from Sinke, rolling up 20.25 points in the doing. A little later he encountered Jackson, who had entered the competition carrying a sore thumb and finger. Jackson won three of the five games, but Ray's 1,081 pins plus two game victories and one point for having rolled the higher total while winning the lesser number of games, gave him 24.31 points to Jackson's 23.20.

Newton was 39 pins ahead of Detroit's Joe Norris, who took part in the day's most spectacular match, a battle with his fellow townsman, Johnny Crimmins. That was a match Detroit had long hoped to see, but never could be arranged and simply fell into the laps of the All-Star tournament fans when the two shooters both made their way into the tournaments finals.

Joe Fights Back.

In that match Norris hit 1,093 to Crimmins' 1,039. John won the first game, 200 pins to 194, but Joe evened it up in the second with a 207 to 198 triumph. Joe took the third, 204 to 201, but Crimmins came back to win the fourth, 235 to 233. Then, leading by only four pins in the totals, Norris stepped out to a 255 final game, while Crimmins' tally was just 205. Joe scored 24.43 points to John's 22.39.

Norris went out later to defeat

BEN HOGAN'S 64 LEADS 1ST ROUND IN MIAMI GOLF

Miami, Fla., Dec. 11 (AP).—Ben Hogan of Hershey, Pa., after starting out with a bogey 5, today turned in a 6 under par 64 which gave him a 2 stroke lead in the first round of the $10,000 Miami Open golf tournament.

He tied the Miami Springs course record shared by Bill Mehlhorn, Willie Klein, and Sam Snead, but did it on a layout changed this year to make the going tougher for the professionals.

First Hole a Jinx.

The first hole, which has jinxed Hogan to the extent that he never has made a par 4 there in tournament play, got him off on the wrong foot—but he changed step on the third. He fired birdies on the third, fourth, and fifth, with putts of eight, six, and two feet, then rammed home a four footer for another on the seventh.

Making the turn in 3 under par, 32, Hogan caught fire again on the 12th, when he laid a pitch within 18 inches of the pin for a birdie three. A five footer dropped on the 13th for another birdie, and he ended with a fine 15 footer for a deuce on the short 16th.

Ky Laffoon Second.

Second place in the field of 218—largest group ever to tee off in one day for one round of an open event—went to Ky Laffoon of Chicago. Pressing Laffoon with 67s were Jim Ferrier of Elmhurst, Ill., and Bill Heinlein of Noblesville, Ind. Snead, Ben Loving of Miami, and Paul Runyan of White Plains, N. Y., were next with 68s.

De Paul Quintet Invades Purdue Tonight Seeking Fifth Straight

BY WILFRID SMITH.

De Paul university's basketball squad, victorious over four opponents this season, invades Lafayette, Ind., tonight to meet Purdue university in one of the most important nonconference games in the midwest. The Boilermakers defeated Wabash in their season opener, while De Paul has whipped Concordia, Kalamazoo, Mich., Teachers, Chicago Teachers, and Arkansas Teachers' college.

Capt. Bob Wozny, ambidextrous hook shot expert, is the key to the Blue Demon offense which Coach Bill Wendt, a former De Paul star, has built around the famous fire department style of basketball popular in Indiana. It is taken for granted that Coach Ward Lambert's boys, as usual, will play basketball in the Hoosier style.

Beat Purdue Last Year.

De Paul was the only nonconference quintet to whip Purdue last year and the 37 to 33 defeat rankles, altho, at the time, it forecast Purdue's eventual position in the conference race. Purdue won six and lost as many in the Big Ten.

As a result of their victory over Wabash, four Purdue veterans are expected to start tonight against De Paul. Capt. Don Blanken, whose passing is the base of the Boilermaker attack, will team with Bob Riley at guard. Forrest [Frosty] Sprowl, senior forward, and John [Mickey] Tierney, formerly a guard, are probable fixtures at the forward positions. Al Menke, sophomore center, is the other probable starter.

Charles Caress and John Conrad undoubtedly will see action at the guard positions. George Fields, junior reserve; Howard Hoffman, whose height is of value under the backboards, and Floyd Larson, another sophomore, are among the reserves at forward.

Sprowl's seven field goals against Wabash are indicative of his value to the Purdue attack. Additional height and the characteristic speed may lift Purdue to contendership for the Big Ten title.

Frailey Is Out.

Three De Paul players may not be available for the game tonight. Most serious loss is Mel Frailey, a sophomore forward who was expected to win a starting berth, but has not played since injury in practice last month. Others who may not play tonight are Bill Ryan, ill with influenza, and Bruno Jezierski, who wrenched his knee in the Arkansas game. Ryan is a sophomore guard. Jezierski is a forward.

De Paul will leave by bus at noon today. Coach Wendt will take the entire squad. Wendt expects to start Jimmy Cominsky and Tony Kelly, forwards; Frank Wiscons, junior sensational center, and Wozny and Marsh Webb, guards.

PACKERS' EGGS IN ONE BASKET? COACH SAYS 'NO'

Don't Forget Some of the Unsung Heroes.

BY EDWARD PRELL.
[Chicago Tribune Press Service.]

Green Bay, Wis., Dec. 11.—Curley Lambeau wants it known that the Packers of 1941 do not begin and end with two fellows named Cecil Isbell and Don Hutson.

"Sure, Isbell is the best passer and Hutson the best pass catcher," the Green Bay coach said this afternoon while his athletes were prancing around on the half-frozen practice field, getting ready for Sunday's play-off game with the Chicago Bears in Wrigley field, Chicago.

"There are only so many plays in a game," he continued, "so naturally we try to use Isbell and Hutson all we can. But we have some other good players. Take Harry Jacunski, the end from Fordham. He's really the fellow who beat the Bears last month in Chicago. He's the one who charged in and caused Luckman to fumble twice."

That last fumble, incidentally, was late in the fourth quarter, and it ended the Bears' last chance to win.

10,000 Aroused Fans.

George Calhoun, who has been the Packers' publicitor for the 23 years of their existence, declares this is the strongest Green Bay team since 1929. That one was the first of five championship Packers teams and it won 12 of 13 games, tying the other.

The tenor of the newspaper stories up here is that the Bears are confident of a decisive victory and that Luckman has declared the Packers won't beat the champions again with a seven-man line. This, of course, is calculated to fire up the Packers and the 10,000 Wisconsin fans who will accompany them to Chicago.

On Lambeau's desk are a number of slightly indignant wires from his Wisconsin constituents who were unable to obtain tickets. He estimates that requests for at least 10,000 tickets could not be filled.

Try Basketball Shoes.

Before this afternoon's practice, Lambeau and his aid, Red Smith, conducted another long classroom session. The Packers' coach is a believer in sparing his men on the practice field by spending more time teaching them how to go thru their maneuvers. The ground was so hard that several of the players complained of sore feet from the pressure of their cleats and substituted basketball shoes.

Asked about the Packers' probable defense in this western division title game, Lambeau answered:

"It wouldn't be smart to repeat with the same defense, would it? What we'll do is throw up a defense the Bears won't be expecting. We have used perhaps eight different defenses trying to stop the Bears' T formation plays since 1930, and six of them in the last three or four seasons."

Chicken Hearted, Eh?

Then Curley told a touching story of the Packers' tender heartedness.

"Our boys don't have that killer instinct like the Bears," he said. "They get a lead and then start feeling sorry for the other team. That Pittsburgh game where we ran up those 54 points? Most of 'em were made by third stringers on recovered fumbles or intercepted passes."

The strongest asset of his team, the veteran coach continued, is its ability to come from behind or make points in the clutch. The latest evidence of this is the 17 point half time deficit they overcame in Washington. In the first game of the season with the Bears, the Packers also wiped out a 15 point lead by scoring 17 before the Bears got going again.

"No one's mentioning anything about the New York game," said Curley in referring to the Dec. 21 game between the Giants and the winner of the Packers-Bears battle. "None of us think there will be any occasion for a fifth quarter in Chicago Sunday, either. If it does go into extra time, one of us will score within 10 minutes."

Mize—Traded for Battery and $$$$

In the WAKE of the NEWS

BY ARCH WARD.

THE selection of Quarter Back George Ceithaml of Chicago as captain may presage a happy year for the University of Michigan in 1942. . . . Wolverine elevens led by quarter backs have been uniformly successful in the past. . . . In 1940, with Forest Evashevski at the helm, they won seven out of eight games, losing only to Minnesota, 7-6. . . . Benny Friedman sparked them to seven out of eight in 1926, the lone defeat being inflicted by Navy, 10 to 0. . . . In 1905 it was Fred Norcross, and the Wolverines hung up 12 straight before losing, 2 to 0, to Chicago on Thanksgiving day. . . . The greatest record ever compiled by a squad piloted by a quarter back, however, was in 1902 when 11 straight victims fell as Michigan registered 644 points to 12 for all opponents. . . . The scores included 119 to 0 over the Michigan Aggies; 107 to 0 over Iowa; 88 to 0 over Albion; 86 to 0 over Ohio State [and how the old time Michigan fans like to recall THAT one]; 48 to 6 over Case, and 23 to 6 over Minnesota. . . . The captain that year was Harrison S. [Boss] Weeks. . . . Paul Hinkle is serving his 16th year as head coach at Butler university. . . . Baseball, football, polo, and tennis are the only sports legalized by the change in the Pennsylvania Sunday blue law several years ago. . . . Clyde Milan has been on the Senators' pay roll for 23 years as player, manager, scout, and coach. . . .

When Minnesota's Golden Gophers won the 1941 Big Nine conference championship they regained the lead in total championships won, which had been held for 14 years by Michigan. . . . Minnesota now has taken the title outright or has tied for it 14 times. . . . Michigan's total is 13, Illinois' 8, Chicago's 7, Ohio State's 5, Northwestern's 4, Wisconsin's 4, Iowa's 3, and Purdue's 2. . . . Indiana never has won a championship. . . . Sam Kennedy, right wing of the Mansfield sextet, scored four goals against Windsor in a Michigan-Ontario Hockey league game in Detroit the other night, and still his club was beaten, 5 to 4. . . . A California fight manager, who is trying to raffle off his boxer at $1 a throw, says that if the stunt is successful he will start selling chances on himself. . . . Lou Little, Columbia coach, suggests that George Halas should issue diagrams of some of the Bears' most dumbfounding plays and pass them out to the fans with the game programs. . . . "It's all right to fool the opposition," explains Lou, "but George should let the fans in on some of his secrets."

"One of Those Days."

Sometimes on getting out of bed
Then everything goes wrong.
And clear until the end of day
It is the same old song.
The coffee doesn't taste much good,
And some one spills the cream;
A tragedy supreme.
The back door bell—the front door bell—
Deliveries from the store.
The gas man pounding to get in
Down at the basement door.
And then the telephone will ring.
"Wrong number"—so it goes.
Why must it happen all at once?
The answer no one knows.
The children argue, dad is cross,
And mother's smiles grow less.
It's good that days like this are rare
Or life would be a mess.

To palliate monotony and oil
The hinges of the mind, gives easy birth

CARDINALS ALSO GET CASH FOR FIRST BASEMAN

Majors Vote $25,000 for Army, Navy.

BY IRVING VAUGHAN.

The annual major league meetings came to a close in the Palmer House yesterday with formal business transactions by the club owners and a climax that relieved the St. Louis Cardinals of First Baseman Johnny Mize who now is the property of the New York Giants.

The transaction, simmering for days because the Cardinals couldn't locate a buyer, was closed after most of the 16 magnates had gone back to roost for the winter, bringing to a conclusion a protracted session that was clouded from first to last by speculation on what the war may do to the immediate future of the game.

Giants Give Up Two and Cash.

To land Mize, in whom other susceptible National league managers evinced only passing interest, the Giants gave Pitcher Bill Lohrman, Catcher Ken O'Dea, a former Cub, and a modest amount of cash.

The Mize-to-New York move set at rest all rumors about the portly first baseman going either to Brooklyn or Chicago. The Cubs refused to go high in their bids on him and Larry MacPhail, the doubly wise Dodger operator, laughed off the terms given him by Branch Rickey, head salesman of the Cardinal farm system. The Giants have a short right field wall, especially suited to Mize's hitting talents, and, besides that, had to pick up front door insurance for Norman [Babe] Young, a 1-A draftee scheduled to grab a gun and helmet next month.

While in their formal meeting before Commissioner K. M. Landis, the owners were torn between business and possible developments because of the war. They decided to go right ahead for 1942, but at the same time promoted recreational equipment for the armed forces and warned each other that baseball might be halted sooner or later by government decree duplicating the work or fight order of 1918.

Other Deals on Fire.

The Cardinals-Giants trade may prove to be more unfinished business, of which there was plenty when the magnates and their retinues began searching pockets for the home going portion of round trip tickets. Most important in the unfinished business group are the Cardinals and Dodgers. The Cardinals are overloaded with pitchers, among which are several left handers. The Dodgers crave a southpaw, so the potential developments are obvious. Brooklyn wanted Cliff Melton, the Giants' lefty, but that matter didn't materialize, so some Brooklyn money may go to St. Louis for a left hander.

Mize batted .317 for the Cardinals last year and hit 16 home runs. Lohrman won nine games and lost ten for the Giants. O'Dea played in only a few games in 1941.

Along the business as usual line, the owners in their session elected to turn the annual All-Star game receipts into a bat and ball fund for the service training camps. The game will be played in Brooklyn, as previously announced, probably the second Tuesday in July. To assure a better gate than in the past, the regular season prices will be doubled or MacPhail will auction off the box seats. MacPhail has decided the game must be a $100,000 event and will arrange accordingly.

Vote Service Equipment Fund.

The two leagues also took steps to provide baseball equipment immediately. Following the idea in which the Baseball Writers association took $1,000 from its skimpy bank roll for contribution to training camp activities, each league came up with $2,000 and $20,000 was "loaned" from Commissioner Landis' baseball account. The $25,000 will be expended as soon as the bat and ball manufacturers can produce the goods at cost.

As a further gesture, the owners decided to let the leagues foot the cost of transporting the players to and from the All-Star site, thus eliminating the biggest dig into the gross receipts.

Altho ignorant of what war time orders may come at any time in 1942, the magnates talked at length of night games, but finally voted to con-

MARSHALL BEATS SULLIVAN; ACKER GETS 30 POINTS

Scoring Star Leads Way to 47-31 Victory.

Israel Acker, eagle eyed sharpshooter on Marshall High's junior basketball team, hasn't changed his scoring habits. Acker, who scored 450 points to lead the squad to the Public School league championship last season, yesterday collected 30 points on 14 baskets and two free throws as Marshall defeated Sullivan, 47 to 31, in Marshall gymnasium. It was the team's 41st straight victory. Acker now has scored 95 points in five games this season. Coach Louis Weintraub also found an opportunity to test new players, 20 seeing action against Sullivan. Lineups:

LANE TO DEFEND CITY SWIMMING TITLE TONIGHT

North Side School Has 18 in Finals.

Lane Tech's junior and senior swimming teams are expected to retain their Public School league swimming championships in the University of Chicago pool tonight. The north side juniors qualified five swimmers in the individual preliminary events yesterday, following the Lane seniors who placed 13 in the finals last Tuesday. The junior team also established the best time in the medley and relay events.

The junior and senior diving trials will be held this afternoon and the finals in both divisions for all events in the evening.

160 YARD RELAY—Lane, Du Sable, Schurz, Austin, and Lake View. Best time by Lane, 1:24.

Three teams, St. Mel, St. Patrick, and De La Salle have been added to the list of teams competing in the eighth annual St. George Catholic High school preseason basketball tournament which opens in St. George gym, 350 Sherman street, Evanston, Dec. 19. With the addition of the three teams the total has now reached 12, according to Brother Bernard, director of St. George High school. The field will be limited to 16 but, among those already accepted are all of the past winners of the meet.

ZIVIC TO MEET McCOY TONIGHT IN TEN ROUNDER

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Fritzie Zivic and Young Kid McCoy will fight in Madison Square Garden tomorrow night in a 10 round welterweight bout which has given Promoter Mike Jacobs more trouble than all the howls about his so-called monopoly.

McCoy, whose real name is Adam Pianga and who was given his ring name by the original Kid McCoy, is 5 to 7 in the betting to top the Pittsburgh boxer and take another step along the welterweight title trail. The winner will take on Ray Robinson in New York next month for the right to get a shot at Red Cochrane's championship.

Tomorrow night's affair started out as an overweight bout between Cochrane and Ray Robinson, but Robinson came down with the grip and McCoy was substituted. Then Cochrane found out he couldn't get a furlough from the navy in time to do any serious training, so he withdrew. Jacobs then came up with the present lineup between the Detroit youngster and Zivic.

Chicago Offers to Take Over Rose Bowl Game

Chicago's Soldiers' field will be available for the Duke-Oregon State football game in the event the Rose bowl contest in Pasadena, Cal., New Year's day is canceled as a military measure. Announcement was made yesterday by Evan Kelly, director of the lake front arena.

Newton Takes First Place in Bowling Meet

another Joe, Chicago's Wilman, by piling up 242 pins in the last game after they had split the first four. Norris shot 1,034, Wilman 1,010. To prove he was far from thru, Crimmins took on another Detroiter, Ernie Soest, and outscored him, 1,054 to 1,002.

John suffered a pulled leg tendon in the 10th frame of the first game, which he won, 223 to 178, nevertheless, he got 213 in the second game, 188 in the third, 191 in the fourth, a tie encounter, and came back with 239 in the fifth. He was limping badly at the finish. After the two rounds he was in third place, with 2,093 pins and 47.18 points.

An Attorney Rallies to Win.

Charley Lausche, Cleveland attorney, showed a remarkable reversal of form during the evening after being beaten in the afternoon. Connie Schwoegler, the Madison, Wis., star who battered down 1,178 pins for a tournament record Wednesday, defeated Lausche in the afternoon, shooting a 255 game in the process. Lausche got but 941 pins on that try. He opened his evening series with 236 and 246 games and finally finished with 1,042 to rout Marty Cassio of Rahway, N. J.

Sinke won only three of his 10 games, dropping four of that first set to Newton while shooting 1,019, and three to Bill Hargadon, a fellow Chicagoan, while getting 1,006 pins to Hargadon's 956. His high pin counts put him in fifth place in the standings, however, 1.08 points behind Lausche.

Victory's Important, Too.

The accumulation of points, rather than victory or defeat in the match, was significant, the tournament being scored from this time on by the point basis and the final accumulation of points, rather than the number of games won and lost, in determining the challenger.

Victory in each game is important, of course, as it adds a point to a bowler's total. The remainder of the points come from actual pins knocked down, with one point given for every 50 pins in the entire match.

Secreet Arrives Today for Bout with Joyce

TABLE TENNIS STARS TO HELP GOOD FELLOWS

Billy Holzrichter will defend the E. L. Schnadig trophy in a table tennis meet opening tonight at 5 o'clock in George O'Connell's Table Tennis Salon, 131 South Wabash avenue. Proceeds of the tournament, which will continue tomorrow afternoon, will go to THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE's Good Fellow fund for the purchase of food, toys, and candy for the unfortunate at Christmas time. George F. Koehnke of 920 Walnut road, Lombard, Ill., is in charge of the meet.

Holzrichter, twice Illinois champion, who ranks No. 5 nationally, will compete in a field including Dan Kreer of Princeton, intercollegiate champion, and Don McCrossen, Wisconsin champion. Leading women contestants will be Mildred Wilkinson Shipman of Lombard, twice National Doubles champion. Her strongest opponent will be La Vera Weber of Chicago, Illinois champion.

Barney Kingston, Nick Sommerio, Frank Cerrito, Thomas C. Veale, Emoly Gaffney, Ed Haskins, Dorsey Day, John Gaduskas, Lew Mathis, Art Barron, Lew Schuster, Dick Finn, Harmon Ginsburg, Bob Meyer, George Davis, Arthur Barron, George Paches, Irving Green, Frank Johnson, Gene Corrigan, Carter Hodney, Don Dibble, Bud Vanden, Chase Mix, George Johnson, Dan and Paul Dory, Chuck Rosenthal, Ray Shalleroso, Howie Cosyns, Sam Cook, Kenneth McAndless, Bill van Doren, Richard Schaaf, Wes. HAWKS RETURN; GET SET TO PLAY BRUINS SUNDAY

The Blackhawks arrived yesterday from Boston to prepare for their next encounter with the Bruins Sunday night in the Stadium. The Chicago team had added five out of a possible six points to their standing in the last three National Hockey league games.

The Bruins, who won the Stanley cup last spring, have beaten every team in the league this season except the Blackhawks. Previous to Tuesday night's 2 to 2 tie the Chicagoans had scored a 3 to 2 victory over their rivals.

Manager Paul Thompson said that he would restrict the squad to skating exercises this afternoon and tomorrow on the Stadium ice. He is conserving their energy for some particularly difficult engagements in the near future. The next five games are considered tough ones.

After the clash with the Bruins Sunday the Hawks will meet the Rangers Thursday. Then they will go to Toronto to play the Leafs on Saturday. They come right back to Chicago for another meeting with the Leafs the following Sunday and then move to New York to engage the Rangers on the following Thursday.

CANADIENS BEAT LEAFS, 2 TO 1, IN OVERTIME GAME

Toronto Misses Chance for First Place Tie.

MONTREAL, Dec. 11 (AP).—Montreal's last-place Canadiens snapped a five-game losing streak in the National Hockey league here tonight by beating the Toronto Maple Leafs, 2 to 1, in overtime. Gerry Hefferman fired the overtime goal that gave the tailenders their second league victory in 13 starts and kept the Leafs from regaining a first place tie with Boston. A crowd of 7,000 saw the game.

RANGERS WIN, 5-3

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Lynn Patrick scored three goals—two of them in the final minute—to lead the New York Rangers to a 5 to 3 victory over the Brooklyn Americans in a national hockey league game before 10,104 in Madison Square Garden tonight.

The victory, fifth in a row for the Rangers, lifted them into a tie for third place with the idle Chicago Blackhawks. For the Americans it was the seventh straight loss.

The Americans brought up Joe Krol and Regis [Hep] Kelly from the Springfield Indians for the game.

SEASON ON DUCKS IN CENTRAL ZONE TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Cold Blasts May Spoil the Final Days.

BY BOB BECKER.

Only a couple more days and the curtain comes down on the 1941 waterfowl season in Illinois and other states in the central zone, for the final day of hunting is this Sunday. During the closing days of this year's season the ducks are being given the "freeze out" play by winter, so thousands of them left the Illinois river for warmer and more desirable feeding grounds.

Frank C. Bellrose Jr. reports that the mallard population along the Illinois dropped from a peak of 3,300,000 last week [largest flight in many years] down to about 1,850,000. Most any of us who hunt ducks along the Illinois would be glad to settle for the 1,850,000 concentration figure any time there is hunting in the valley, but in recent weeks the sport was just about as bad when there were more than 3,000,000 birds feeding on corn at night as it was during the last few days when the bird population dropped to almost 2,000,000.

"Hunting Is Poor."

Bellrose says that despite the large number of birds in the valley "hunting picked up very little, only a few hunters bringing in a limit of birds." The way the marshes froze this week was another blow at the hunting game, for the mallards always prefer to swim rather than skate around sloughs in which blinds are located.

Mallard: From a peak of 3,300,000 last week the mallard population of the Illinois river valley has decreased to 1,850,000. The numbers along the central Mississippi remain about the same. Mallards are now making extensive use of cornfields in the Illinois river region and should remain into the winter provided snow does not cover the food supply, Bellrose believes.

Pintail: Approximately 10,000 pintails remain in the Illinois river valley, about the same as a week ago.

Decrease in Bluebills.

Bluebill: This duck decreased in numbers in the last few days from 130,000 to 115,000 in the Illinois river valley. Principal concentrations are on Peoria lake and on Chautauqua and Clear lakes above Havana. A decrease in the numbers of this duck occurred along the central Mississippi.

Canvasback: A slight increase in numbers of this duck has occurred in the last few days. About 3,500 are reported in the Illinois river region and a few along the central Mississippi.

Two dollar mutuels paid: College Widow, $5.00 straight, $3.00 place, $2.80 show; Hedda Gab, $3.80 place, $3.40 show; Marcharl, $5.40 show.

COLLEGE WIDOW, off alertly, forced pace of SWEET ZACA, took command approaching stretch and was tiring at end. HEDDA GAB was forwardly placed from start, came out for racing room and was wearing winner down at close. MARCHARL lacked early speed and closed a gap. ABBOT CHANT went evenly.

SECOND RACE—Purse $600. Three year olds and up. Six and one-half furlongs. Start good. Won driving, place same. Went to post at 2:01¼. Off at 2:03. Winner b. f., 4, by Espino-Glorify, by T. R. Ball. Owner, Mrs. L. E. Crowell. Trainer, W. J. Hughes. Net value to winner, $425; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:19 4-5.

Two dollar mutuels paid: Randle's Queen, $11.20 straight, $6.00 place, $3.60 show; Rancho's Girl, $7.20 place, $4.60 show; My Baby, $2.80 show.

RANDLE'S QUEEN cut over in front of field to take command at first turn, opened good lead and was under drive to end to stave off bid of RANCHO'S GIRL. The latter was closest to pace, came out nearing stretch and was gaining at end under drive. MY BABY showed even effort but was no match for other two. GRIMALDI had good early speed and weakened in final stages. WEB FOOT flashed speed and stopped.

THIRD RACE—Purse $600. Three year olds and up. Mile and an eighth. Start good. Won driving, place same. Went to post at 2:30½. Off at 2:31. Winner br. g., 6, by Sand Mole-Vexnow, by Marvex. Owner, B. Two dollar mutuels paid: Mystic Man, $48.60 straight, $20.40 place, $12.00 show; Takitfrome, $5.60 place, $5.20 show; Busy Fingers, $12.80 show.

MYSTIC MAN took command in early stages, saved ground while setting pace and held on with good energy under drive. TAKITFROME, rated close up to stretch, could not menace winner while under punishment. BUSY FINGER lacked early speed, improved position on outside after a half and showed good effort. JAMES, well placed, moved up, then faltered. ORINOCO had no excuses. REPELLER stopped. SCHLEY AL, closest to pace early, quit.

FOURTH RACE—Purse $500. Three year olds and up. About four and a half furlongs. Start good. Won easily, place driving. Went to post at 3:01½. At post 1 minute. SIR BROADSIDE, off slowly and allowed to settle into best stride, improved position steadily after a half and wore down leaders to win going away. Jockey Dattilo's foul claim against winner was not allowed. WAKE shook off OVANDO to take command, could not resist winner and held on gamely. ROUGH GOING was steadied while running in first flight, moved up boldly on backstretch and weakened gradually. SAY JUDGE closed some ground. OVANDO was hustled while closest to pace early. WAHCOO weakened gradually. HIJO'E RADIO was thru after a half.

Loyola Plays Tall Denver Five Tonight

Loyola university's basketball team, satisfied with victory over the University of Chicago, tonight faces a sturdier foe in Denver university in Loyola gymnasium.

Denver will have the disadvantage of competition last night in Omaha against Creighton university but four veterans, and a team average of 6 feet 2 inches, indicates possible trouble for the Ramblers. Denver brings a squad of 16 players.

Loyola never has been beaten by a team from the far west. In seven games with teams from that section, the Ramblers have scored 255 points to opponents' 192 and defeated, among others, Santa Clara, California, Utah, Oregon State, Montana State, and Brigham Young.

Loyola's starting lineup will not be altered. Denver will use Dick Murray, center; Dick Berger, guard, and Bobby Wilson and Greg Browning, forwards, with the other position unnamed. Denver's veterans finished third in the Big Seven Rocky Mountain conference last year.

HOLD FUNERAL RITES TOMORROW FOR JOE COFFEY

Services will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in St. Laurence church, 72d street and Dorchester avenue, for Joe Coffey, former boxing and wrestling promoter, who died Wednesday at his home, 1436 East 68th street. Requiem mass will be sung by the Rev. Lawrence Daly, pastor at St. Patrick's church in West Lake Forest, uncle of Coffey.

Survivors include the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Rosemary Bordenet and Mrs. Catharine Russell, and three sisters, Mrs. Patrick Daly, Mrs. Loretta Chrisman, and Mrs. Margaret Dritsch. Coffey, once matchmaker at the Chicago Athletic association, Illinois Athletic club, Elks club, and Lake Shore Athletic club, was a member of Father Perez council, Knights of Columbus.

Illini Switch Dates in Two Football Games of 1942

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 11 [Special]. —Dates of the first two football games in the University of Illinois stadium in 1942 have been switched, Director Doug Mills announces. University of South Dakota will play on Sept. 26 instead of Oct. 3. Butler will appear Oct. 3, instead of Sept. 26.

Perhaps.

I think sometimes it takes a war,
With all its pain and sorrow,
To make a nation lift its eyes
Toward a better morrow.

I think sometimes it takes the sound
Of guns above a hill
To make a city know there is
A sanctuary, still.

Perhaps it takes the bombing planes,
The fire, and the sword
To make a boastful people bow,
Humbly, before their Lord.

Perhaps it takes the grief and tears,
To cleanse our hearts of lust and hate
And lift us up to God.

EXPORTERS SEEK NEW OUTLETS IN SOUTH AMERICA

Advised to Forget First War's Experiences.

Chicago exporters and importers, their activities stalemated by war, were told yesterday to disregard foreign trade experiences of the last war in planning for this one and then agreed they should "sit tight" for the present and wait for "adjustment of things."

Their discussions, in round table forum, were at a luncheon meeting of the foreign trade division of the Chicago Association of Commerce in the Hotel Sherman.

"We must forget what happened in the World war because conditions are entirely different," John C. Hill, secretary of the Chicago Association of Credit Men, asserted.

Recalls Past Mistakes.

"In this war the government will tell us what we can do, more than in the last. We must remember that it was during and immediately following the last war that this nation made its greatest mistakes in the field of foreign trade."

Similar views were expressed by Charles I. Horowitz, export manager of the Gibson Electric Refrigerator corporation, M. C. Hesse of the Continental-Illinois National Bank and Trust company, who presided, and others. They expressed confidence "there always will be a way to carry on some foreign trade."

The exporters devoted a major part of their discussions to trade with Latin America, which more than before must provide their markets.

Credit Little Curtailed.

Only one of the exporters said he contemplated a further curtailment of credit in Latin America as a result of the new war developments, and only four reported they had curtailed credit in the last six months.

"Latin America is in better condition than at any time in 10 years," Horowitz said. "South American countries are exporting more to the United States than in recent years and are entitled to more credit and other considerations. This situation gives United States exporters and importers a chance to make a real contribution to hemisphere economic defense."

Investment Firm Plans 10 Million Debenture Issue

American Investment company of Illinois disclosed yesterday from its St. Louis headquarters that it proposes to issue 10 million dollars in 2¾ per cent 10 year debentures. It was reported the debentures would be sold to an institution and not publicly distributed. Proceeds would be used for general corporate purposes, including reduction of bank loans.

SINCE REORGANIZATION.

Has the National Radiator company showed profits since the reorganization of a couple of years ago? What were the general details of the reorganization and what is the capitalization of the present company?—W. S.

Answer: The National Radiator company, successor to the National Radiator corporation in 1939 thru reorganization, has been operating profitably. The predecessor corporation had losses every year from its organization in 1932. Comparative results for recent years follow [1940 and 1941 are fiscal years ended March 31 and other years are for predecessor corporation and end Dec. 31]:

	Net sales.	Net income.	Per com. share.
1938	3,550,061	*229,422	......
1937	5,735,893	*810,345	......

*Loss.

The reorganization, which became effective June 1, 1939, gave holders of the old company's 5 per cent debentures of 1946 outstanding 32 shares of new common stock for each $1,000 and accrued interest. One share of new common was issued for each $41.90 of general claims and creditors were allowed until Oct. 31, 1944, to participate in the distribution. Nothing was provided for the old common and preferred shares.

Present capitalization is 153,190 shares of $10 par common stock. The shares are traded on the Pittsburgh Stock exchange. Dividends totaled 40 cents a share in 1940 and 20 cents has been paid so far this year.

National Radiator, a large manufacturer of cast iron steam and hot water radiators and boilers, had total assets of $5,592,000 at the end of the 1941 fiscal year. Net working capital was $1,906,000. Plants are in Johnstown, New Castle, and Lebanon, Pa., and Trenton, N. J. Offices are in Johnstown.

WELL COVERED.

To what extent has the Cleveland Electric Illuminating company covered the charges on its 3s of 1970? Are there any other bond issues outstanding? Are the 3s callable and where are they listed?—E. K. F.

Answer: The Cleveland Electric Illuminating company, which is controled by the North American company, covered its interest charges an average of 4.97 times for the nine years thru 1940, and 6.51 times for the 12 months ended last September. The first mortgage 3 per cent bonds, due in 1970, are outstanding in the amount of $50,000,000 and are the company's only funded debt. The bonds are callable at the option of the company upon 30 days notice at 108¼ per cent of principal if redeemed on or before June 30, 1942, and at decreasing amounts in subsequent years. The 3s are listed on the New York Stock exchange.

BROAD RECOVERY IN BOND MARKET PACED BY RAILS

Federal Agencies Support Government List.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—The bond market today gave its best performance since the outbreak of war with Japan under leadership of rails and industrials.

Completely ignoring war declarations by Italy and Germany, except as these actions affected their obligations and those of axis dominated powers, the main corporate group and United States government bonds felt the effects of selected buying right at the start of trading and gains of small fractions to a point or so were distributed thruout the list at the close.

Rail Bond Index Rises.

The Associated Press average of 20 rails bounded up .8 of a point to 59.1 after sinking to new 1941 low levels in the two preceding sessions.

Transfers were the lowest of any day since the war broke out at $10,031,500, face value, compared with $13,042,350 Wednesday.

Better performers in the corporate groups included many issues battered severely in the three day selling spree which hit the market Monday.

Support Federal Bonds.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau said today that the federal reserve system and the treasury have been buying government bonds in the open market since Tuesday.

He said that the government bond market had generally maintained a favorable condition, "but there were some nervous people and we stepped in to keep an orderly market."

He declined to say how much buying had been done. However, he said, no use was made of the 2 billion dollar stabilization fund.

$11 HOG RETURNS AS FARMERS CUT RUNS TO MARKET

Declaration of war on this country by Germany and Italy, coupled with the fact that many farmers are holding back shipments in the belief that further price advances will result, brought the $11 hog back to the Chicago market yesterday. Top sales at this price showed an advance of 25 cents for the day and were highest since Oct. 13. It was a new 15 year peak for the month of December.

Only 70,000 hogs arrived at the 11 principal packing centers during the day, a decrease of 37,000 head or 34 per cent compared with Thursday of last week, and buyers bid actively for supplies.

Prices for the session averaged 30 cents higher, at $10.65 a hundred pounds, compared with $6.10 a year ago.

The cattle market as a whole stood highest since 1937, and highest for the month of December since 1929. Top steers reached $14.35.

CAMP GRANT AND IAC TEAMS MEET IN LEAGUE CARD

Army Squad Is Host in Program Tonight.

BY FRANK MASTRO.

The Illinois Athletic club fighters, who fought draw matches last week with Fort Sheridan and Madison Athletic club, will attempt to improve their No. 5 position in the Chicagoland Amateur Boxing league standings by beating Camp Grant representatives in an interclub show tonight in the Service Men's club in Camp Grant.

William and Gene Cravens, brothers and two of the most promising prospects on the Chicago team, will lead the IAC in quest of its second victory. Bill is scheduled to meet Bob Matthews and Gene is booked to face Tom Partridge. Other matches:

Tony Patano, IAC, vs. Kirkland Polacca, Camp Grant, 112.

Joey Pierone, IAC, vs. George Hackey, Camp Grant, 145.

Eddie Bozek, IAC, vs. Pete Sickich, Camp Grant, 140.

Camp Grant Second.

Camp Grant is resting in second place as a result of scoring two triumphs and one deadlock and suffering one defeat in four earlier appearances. In their last start the soldier fighters held a Milwaukee team to that tie decision. Capella, Partridge, Swan, and Matthews were responsible for Camp Grant's points.

A decision in favor of the men in uniform this evening will not endanger the Catholic Youth organization's hold on first place, but a victory for the IAC will give the Chicagoans a share of the No. 2 spot.

Record of the IAC consists of one victory, one setback, and two draws. The big downtown club's lone victory was realized at the expense of the Ashland A. C. In addition to the Cravens boys, the IAC will rely on Cassidy, Pieroni, and Winters to come out on top. Cassidy, who is 5 feet 10 inches tall, a fact which makes him one of the tallest featherweights in America, is expected to give Capell a merry time of it.

Pieroni, also a rangy lad, is a terrific puncher for his weight. Only 16 years old, Joe has displayed signs of making a name for himself in amateur competition. He is a sophomore at Crane Tech High school.

Madison in Cellar.

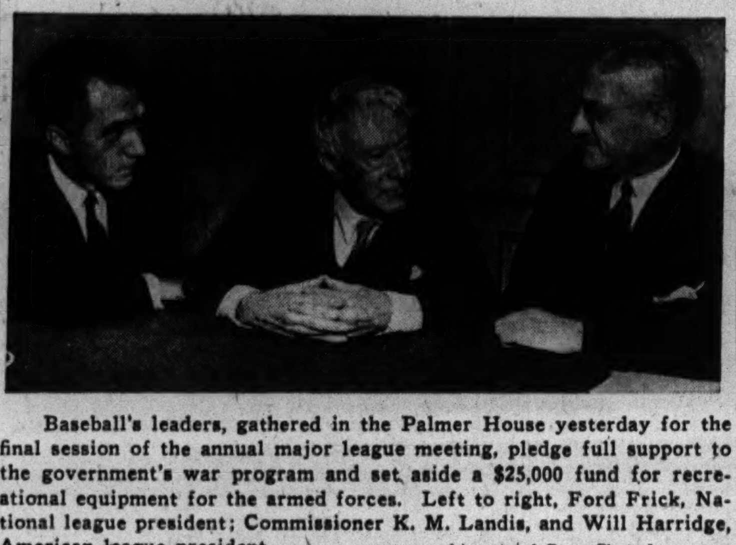
By absorbing its second setback against the Ashland club on Wednesday, the Madison A. C. was pushed from seventh to last position in the standings. In an additional league show that night, Fort Sheridan and the CYO battled to a deadlock verdict. This achievement lifted Fort Sheridan from the cellar to eighth place, but did not change the CYO's status in the No. 1 spot.

A nonleague card will be offered this evening in Madison Athletic club, 4711 Madison street. Pete Blouir, Gary light heavyweight, will meet Jackie Woods in a five round headliner. Pat Maloney, Madison A. C. welterweight, is paired with Vern Alvarez in an additional contest of five rounds.

Georgia Tech-California Game Is Called Off

Berkeley, Cal., Dec. 11 (AP).—The Georgia Tech-University of California football game, scheduled here Dec. 27, was called off today at the request of the southern school. The requested action was taken because of the probability of some Georgia Tech players being called to military duty and the desire of squad members to remain home during the Christmas holidays.

Baseball Joins the Military Parade



Baseball's leaders, gathered in the Palmer House yesterday for the final session of the annual major league meeting, pledge full support to the government's war program and set aside a $25,000 fund for recreational equipment for the armed forces. Left to right, Ford Frick, National league president; Commissioner K. M. Landis, and Will Harridge, American league president.

tinue with seven for each club instead of 14 as proposed by the St. Louis Browns.

The American league favored the expansion, but the National was opposed and so was Landis for the second straight year.

Clark Griffith of Washington was strong for the 14 night game program and, while he was voted down, the owners agreed that, if during the summer he could show that he was losing money because government workers couldn't take time off in daylight, he could request relaxation of the seven game restriction.

Sox, Tigers May Deal Yet.

Manager James Dykes of the White Sox heard nothing from the Detroit club about giving them Infielder Billy Knickerbocker and Pitcher Lee Ross for Outfielder Bruce Campbell and Pitcher Paul Trout. However, the proposition is not entirely defunct.

The Cubs and Cleveland Indians officials sparred a bit more on the latter's possible purchase of Pitcher Bill Lee and made no headway, altho this didn't create any alarm in the mind of Jim Gallagher of the Cub forces. Several other clubs are interested, but to date the Cleveland offer is reported to be the choicest.

The Cubs, so far as Cleveland is concerned, are asking $25,000 and Lefty Joe Krakauskas. The Indians have a $17,500 check in readiness. Their interest in Lee may have diminished as the result of purchasing Pitcher Vern Kennedy from Washington, presumably at a bit over the $7,500 waiver price, early yesterday.

Kennedy's transfer to Cleveland stirred up a report that he and Roy Weatherly eventually would go to the White Sox for John Rigney, but Dykes claimed that, while the story had its humorous features, he hadn't heard of it.

Whitehead to Minors.

First Baseman Dolph Camilli is still with the Dodgers but seemingly is destined for transfer as soon as arrangement can be completed for a successor. The Boston Braves now are reported willing to consider a swap for the fellow who was voted this season's most valuable National league player.

Early in the day the Giants announced the sale for an undisclosed sum of Infielder Burgess Whitehead to the Toronto club.

Testimonial Dinner Is Off at Ross' Request

The Barney Ross testimonial dinner, scheduled in the Stevens hotel Jan. 8, has been canceled at the request of the former lightweight and welterweight champion, Harry G. Green, secretary of the banquet committee, said last night.

Propose $10 Levy on Examinations of Race Horses

A resolution to set up a county veterinarian who would examine race horses before each race for a fee of $10 was introduced at the county board yesterday by Commissioner Maurice F. Kavanagh. It was referred to the budget committee.

Kavanagh said the examinations of the horses would be made compulsory to safeguard the public against racing of doped or ill horses. Saliva tests would be required for this purpose.

The resolution called for an appropriation of $20,000 for the veterinarian and staff. Kavanagh estimated $300,000 a year in revenue could be obtained from the fees and proposed this money be used to help support the County hospital and Oak Forest institution.

ZUPPKE WILL BE COACHES' GUEST AT LUNCHEON

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 11 [Special].—Bob Zuppke, retired University of Illinois football coach, will be guest at a luncheon in his honor by the American Football Coaches' association in Detroit, Dec. 31.

The luncheon, which replaces the annual banquet, will be attended by between 600 and 700 coaches and others interested in the gridiron, who will pay tribute to Zuppke, Herbert O. Crisler, Michigan director and coach, who is president, announces.

Dubuque Basket Team Beats Wartburg, 45-23

Dubuque, Ia., Dec. 11 [Special].—University of Dubuque's defending Iowa conference basketball champion tonight opened its season with a 45 to 23 victory over Wartburg. The champions held an 18 to 4 lead at the end of the first half. Emil Lussow was Dubuque's leading scorer, with five baskets and one free throw.

Louisville Signs Kress as Player and Coach

Louisville, Ky., Dec. 11 (AP).—Ralph [Red] Kress, deposed St. Paul manager and former major league infielder, has been signed by the Louisville Colonels of the American Association, President Bruce Dudley announced today. Dudley said Kress would be used in the dual rôle of utility player-coach.

VALPARAISO CAPTAIN.

7 BIG TEN MAT TEAMS BID FOR MIDWEST TITLE

Purdue Again Is Favorite in Meet Tonight.

Seven Big Ten teams headed by Purdue, defending champion, feature the list of entries in the fifth annual Midwest Wrestling championship tournament which will get under way tonight at 8 o'clock in the McKinley park fieldhouse, 39th street and Western avenue, and will continue thru tomorrow afternoon and evening.

The tournament is sponsored by the Chicago park district under the direction of Charles Mutter, McKinley park physical director and Big Ten light heavyweight wrestling champion at the University of Illinois in 1937 and 1938.

Competition for Purdue.

Most of the teams entered in the tourney, which is sanctioned by the Amateur Athletic Union, will compete in all weight divisions, with the strong Purdue squad favored to retain the title it won last year.

Other Big Ten entries include Indiana, Ohio State, Michigan, Illinois, Chicago, and Northwestern. Principal competition for Purdue is expected to be provided by Michigan, Chicago, and Northwestern.

Cleveland Team Entered.

Other team entries have been filed by Wheaton and Cornell colleges; the Duncan, Lincoln-Belmont, and Joliet YMCA's; the Inland Steel company of South Chicago, and the Cleveland, O., Boys' club.

"Our spectator facilities are extremely limited," Mutter said. "At most we can accommodate only 300 persons, and it is simply a question of first come first served, since seats are not reserved."

Admission to the tournament each day will be 25 cents.

ILLINOIS TECH FIVE DEFEATS WHEATON, 37-32

The Illinois Tech basketball team, paced by Guard Tom Byrne, defeated Wheaton college yesterday in the Wheaton gymnasium, 37 to 32. At the half the score was tied, 20 to 20. Lineup:

National A. A. U. Sets Boxing Tourney Dates

Boston, Mass., Dec. 11 (AP).—Dates for the 1942 National AAU boxing tournament were set tonight for April 13, 14, and 17 at the Boston Garden by Eugene W. Driscoll, chairman of the New England AAU boxing committee.

Beloit Quintet Defeats Arkansas State, 48 to 21

Stampede for Tickets Snows Under Halas and Assistants

Between calls on the telephone and personal visits to his office, George Halas yesterday managed to attend to his most important task—getting the Bears mentally and physically ready for their third meeting of the season with the Green Bay Packers.

It seemed like every one in Cook county was trying to get tickets for the finish battle in Wrigley field and those who were lucky enough to get the Bears' owner-coach on the phone did so only after long waits. The usual answer was no.

Halas, the owner, is pretty sore and disgusted with Halas, the coach, who has got him into all this trouble. Halas, the coach, has made the team so popular that never before has there been such a box office crush as this one. Halas, the owner, is afraid he will lose a lot of friends, which makes him unhappy.

Sunday's playoff was awarded to Chicago, but it is almost as much a home game for the Packers as for the Bears. As a result, Halas, the owner, felt duty bound to accede to Green Bay's ticket requests. In all, 11,700 tickets were sent to Wisconsin. Promises he made before he knew such a large number would go out of the state now cannot be fulfilled. He really is disturbed about it.

Halas, the coach, tho, got a lift out of the squad's enthusiasm in yesterday's practice. He limited his comment to the simple statement that "we'll be ready Sunday."

The Bears put some hard thought and effort in trying ways to cut down the efficiency of Don Hutson and the Green Bay attack in general. The champions had worked on offense the first part of the week. It is their creed that you can't score without the ball, so this phase of the game comes in for the first, and most, consideration.

McAfee vs. Hutson.

The outcome of Sunday's game rests on which of the two has the biggest day—George McAfee of the Bears or Hutson of the Packers—in the opinion of quite a few. Here's what these two spectacular gents did during the last season:

McAFEE—Carried the ball 65 times from scrimmage for 474 yards, a 7.3 average; caught seven passes for 144 yards, three for touchdowns; led the Bears with six interceptions for 78 yards; punted 12 times for an average or 35.8 [a blocked kick cut down his yardage]; returned five punts for an average of 31.6 yards; brought back seven kickoffs for an average of 31.8 yards; scored 12 touchdowns in all.

HUTSON—Carried the ball four times for 22 yards; caught 58 passes for 738 yards and 10 touchdowns [one against the Bears]; intercepted one pass and ran it back 32 yards; returned one kickoff for eight yards; kicked one field goal in one attempt; made 12 touchdowns, and kicked 20 out of 24 tries for the extra point.

Bears Better at Passing.

The league's final figures show that the Bears used the forward pass as a scoring weapon more effectively than the Packers. Sid Luckman and five other Chicagoans completed 98 out of 196 passes for 2,002 yards and 19 touchdowns. Cecil Isbell threw 206 of the Packers' 253 passes and completed 117 of the 133. Their total yardage was 1,731, and 17 touchdowns came directly on aerials. The answer to this is that the Bears throw longer passes, which cuts down their percentage of successes, but nets them more yardage when they do connect.

War Creates More Need to Help Caddies

War has made more imperative than ever a national program for caddy welfare, T. C. Butz, president of the Western Golf association, said yesterday as plans were being completed for the annual WGA meeting tomorrow in the Chicago Athletic association.

"When the board of the WGA decided last month to make a program for aid to caddies our paramount interest," Butz said, "we recognized a growing need. Now, with the war centering our attention on the nation's youth, the necessity for assistance to the young men and boys who serve as caddies becomes a problem for national concern. The unprivileged boys need guidance, direct help, and improved working conditions if they are to take their full places in the nation's defense.

"The job boom and now the war have taken from the ranks of the caddies the older men, and have returned the caddy shacks to the boys. We must do everything we can to improve their condition, to offer guidance, and to further their education and welfare. Our program, under the new plan which will be brought up during tomorrow's meeting, will involve education of the public to their responsibilities to the caddy—the developing boy who is a companion on the course and a bulwark of the nation in a time of emergency."

The nation's 1,000,000 caddies, most of whom are old enough to be drafted or accepted in the armed forces, afford a large cross-section of the youth the nation will call upon during the war, Butz further declared. Helping these young men is no longer the responsibility of a group of sportsmen, but of the entire country, he added.

EX-HOOSIERS AID GREAT LAKES IN BEATING INDIANA

Menke and Andres Star in 41-36 Victory.

Bloomington, Ind., Dec. 11 [Special].—With two former Hoosier stars as chief gunners, the Great Lakes Naval Training station basketball team defeated Indiana, 41 to 36, here tonight.

It was Bill Menke and Ernie Andres night, so-called by the Indiana students, who welcomed the return of the former Hoosier stars, and they responded with 20 points between them.

Navy Takes Lead.

Menke was given a great ovation by the Indiana crowd of 4,000 as he left the floor early in the second half. He was forced out for fouls. Capt. Andy Zimmer of Indiana and George Rung of Great Lakes also were ejected on fouls.

The Navy lads sprang into an 18 to 11 lead with five minutes to play in the first half, but an Indiana rally sparked by Irvin Swanson, Ralph Hamilton, and Dick Wittenbraker, the latter two sophomores, put the Hoosiers ahead, 19 to 18, at half time.

Anderson Leads Way.

Bob Anderson's scoring spree in the second period, aided by Andres' and John Lobsiger's accurate shooting, soon sent the Great Lakes boys into the lead again. They held a 10 point margin with six points to go in the last period when the Hoosiers again spurted, but could not close the gap. Hamilton played an outstanding floor game, as well as leading the Hoosier scoring with 10 points.

Between halves members of Sphinx club presented Menke and Andres, alumni of the honorary social organization, with scrolls of merit for their athletic careers both here and in the service. Lineup:

SEASON ON DUCKS IN CENTRAL ZONE TO CLOSE SUNDAY

Cold Blasts May Spoil the Final Days.

BY BOB BECKER.

Only a couple more days and the curtain comes down on the 1941 waterfowl season in Illinois and other states in the central zone, for the final day of hunting is this Sunday. During the closing days of this year's season the ducks are being given the "freeze out" play by winter, so thousands of them left the Illinois river for warmer and more desirable feeding grounds.

Frank C. Bellrose Jr. reports that the mallard population along the Illinois dropped from a peak of 3,300,000 last week [largest flight in many years] down to about 1,850,000. Most any of us who hunt ducks along the Illinois would be glad to settle for the 1,850,000 concentration figure any time there is hunting in the valley, but in recent weeks the sport was just about as bad when there were more than 3,000,000 birds feeding on corn at night as it was during the last few days when the bird population dropped to almost 2,000,000.

"Hunting Is Poor."

Bellrose says that despite the large number of birds in the valley "hunting picked up very little, only a few hunters bringing in a limit of birds." The way the marshes froze this week was another blow at the hunting game, for the mallards always prefer to swim rather than skate around sloughs in which blinds are located.

Mallard: From a peak of 3,300,000 last week the mallard population of the Illinois river valley has decreased to 1,850,000. The numbers along the central Mississippi remain about the same. Mallards are now making extensive use of cornfields in the Illinois river region and should remain into the winter provided snow does not cover the food supply, Bellrose believes.

Pintail: Approximately 10,000 pintails remain in the Illinois river valley, about the same as a week ago.

Decrease in Bluebills.

Bluebill: This duck decreased in numbers in the last few days from 130,000 to 115,000 in the Illinois river valley. Principal concentrations are on Peoria lake and on Chautauqua and Clear lakes above Havana. A decrease in the numbers of this duck occurred along the central Mississippi.

Canvasback: A slight increase in numbers of this duck has occurred in the last few days. About 3,500 are reported in the Illinois river region and a few along the central Mississippi.

Two dollar mutuels paid: College Widow, $5.00 straight, $3.00 place, $2.80 show; Hedda Gab, $3.80 place, $3.40 show; Marcharl, $5.40 show.

COLLEGE WIDOW, off alertly, forced pace of SWEET ZACA, took command approaching stretch and was tiring at end. HEDDA GAB was forwardly placed from start, came out for racing room and was wearing winner down at close. MARCHARL lacked early speed and closed a gap. ABBOT CHANT went evenly.

SECOND RACE—Purse $600. Three year olds and up. Six and one-half furlongs. Start good. Won driving, place same. Went to post at 2:01¼. Off at 2:03. Winner b. f., 4, by Espino-Glorify, by T. R. Ball. Two dollar mutuels paid: Randle's Queen, $11.20 straight, $6.00 place, $3.60 show; Rancho's Girl, $7.20 place, $4.60 show; My Baby, $2.80 show.

RANDLE'S QUEEN cut over in front of field to take command at first turn, opened good lead and was under drive to end to stave off bid of RANCHO'S GIRL. The latter was closest to pace, came out nearing stretch and was gaining at end under drive. MY BABY showed even effort but was no match for other two. GRIMALDI had good early speed and weakened in final stages. WEB FOOT flashed speed and stopped.

THIRD RACE—Purse $600. Three year olds and up. Mile and an eighth. Start good. Won driving, place same. Went to post at 2:30¼. Off at 2:31. Winner br. g., 6, by Sand Mole-Vexnow, by Marvex. Owner, B. Two dollar mutuels paid: Mystic Man, $48.60 straight, $20.40 place, $12.00 show; Takitfrome, $5.60 place, $5.20 show; Busy Fingers, $12.80 show.

MYSTIC MAN took command in early stages, saved ground while setting pace and held on with good energy under drive. TAKITFROME, rated close up to stretch, could not menace winner while under punishment. BUSY FINGER lacked early speed, improved position on outside after a half and showed good effort. JAMES, well placed, moved up, then faltered. ORINOCO had no excuses. REPELLER stopped. SCHLEY AL, closest to pace early, quit.

FOURTH RACE—Purse $500. Three year olds and up. About four and a half furlongs. Start good. Won easily, place driving. Went to post at 3:01½. At post 1 minute. Winner, ch. f., 3, by High Strung-Mae Skilling, by Pompey. Owner, F. Beloin Jr. Trainer, F. Waring. Net value to winner, $350; second, $75; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, :49 4-5.

Two dollar mutuels paid: Junior Prom, $9.20 straight, $4.00 place, $4.00 show; Highland Song, $3.40 place, $2.60 show; Satin Royce, $3.80 show.

JUNIOR PROM had keen early speed to open long lead and was not threatened, winning with speed in reserve. HIGHLAND SONG, off alertly, was hard ridden, raced well, but was no match for winner. SATIN ROYCE dropped back immediately after start and closed ground on outside. CHARMING BOY, forward factor early, weakened. VIVACIOUS came willingly at end. WAR TARGET raced in close quarters along rail early, then stopped.

FIFTH RACE—Purse $800. Three year olds and up. About seven furlongs. Start good. Won handily, place easily. Went to post at 3:31. Off at once. Winner b. g., 4, by Grand Time-Duncaid, by Dunlin. Owner, B. F. Christmas. Trainer, R. Holland. Net value to winner, $600; second, $125; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:23 4-5.

Two dollar mutuels paid: Here Goes, $2.80 straight, $2.80 place, $2.20 show; Bluestring, $4.80 place, $3.40 show; Mason Dixon, $3.40 show.

HERE GOES, first away, stumbled directly after break, drew out, saved ground and was not threatened while winning handily. BLUESTRING lacked early speed, rallied when placed to drive and closed willingly. MASON DIXON closed a gap from slow beginning. BECOMLY moved up menacingly approaching the stretch and then weakened. ADOLF had early speed. DUPLIKET quit.

SIXTH RACE—Purse $600. Three year olds and up. Mile and a sixteenth. Start good. Won easily, place driving. Went to post at 4:00½. At post ½ minute. Winner, br. g., 4, by Rhinock-Chiz, by Wrack. Owner, R. B. Hall. Trainer, D. P. Veneziano. Net value to winner, $425; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 1:45 4-5.

Two dollar mutuels paid: Residue, $6.40 straight, $4.00 place, $4.00 show; Strumming, $16.60 place, $8.40 show; Ara-Ornis, $8.20 show.

RESIDUE lacked early speed, came out for racing room, gained boldly on backstretch, took command, and won easily. STRUMMING moved to front after a quarter, could not resist winner, but was best of others. ARA-ORNIS closed with good energy. TWO PLY set early pace and held on gamely in final stages. WELSH LAD dropped back early, was sent wide, and was not a factor.

SEVENTH RACE—Purse $600. The Roddy Thomas. Three year olds and up. Mile and a quarter. Start good. Won driving, place same. Went to post at 4:31. Off at 4:32. Winner br. g., 3, by Broadside-Easy Girl, by Blondin. Owner, M. Belasco. Trainer, N. J. Fillman. Net value to winner, $425; second, $100; third, $50; fourth, $25. Time, 2:06.

Two dollar mutuels paid: Sir Broadside, $6.00 straight, $3.40 place, $2.60 show; Wake, $4.40 place, $3.20 show; Rough Going, $3.80 show.

SIR BROADSIDE, off slowly and allowed to settle into best stride, improved position steadily after a half and wore down leaders to win going away. Jockey Dattilo's foul claim against winner was not allowed. WAKE shook off OVANDO to take command, could not resist winner and held on gamely. ROUGH GOING was steadied while running in first flight, moved up boldly on backstretch and weakened gradually. SAY JUDGE closed some ground. OVANDO was hustled while closest to pace early. WAHCOO weakened gradually. HIJO'E RADIO was thru after a half.

Loyola Plays Tall Denver Five Tonight

Loyola university's basketball team, satisfied with victory over the University of Chicago, tonight faces a sturdier foe in Denver university in Loyola gymnasium.

Denver will have the disadvantage of competition last night in Omaha against Creighton university but four veterans, and a team average of 6 feet 2 inches, indicates possible trouble for the Ramblers. Denver brings a squad of 16 players.

Loyola never has been beaten by a team from the far west. In seven games with teams from that section, the Ramblers have scored 255 points to opponents' 192 and defeated, among others, Santa Clara, California, Utah, Oregon State, Montana State, and Brigham Young.

Loyola's starting lineup will not be altered. Denver will use Dick Murray, center; Dick Berger, guard, and Bobby Wilson and Greg Browning, forwards, with the other position unnamed. Denver's veterans finished third in the Big Seven Rocky Mountain conference last year.

HOLD FUNERAL RITES TOMORROW FOR JOE COFFEY

Services will be held at 10 a. m. tomorrow in St. Laurence church, 72d street and Dorchester avenue, for Joe Coffey, former boxing and wrestling promoter, who died Wednesday at his home, 1436 East 68th street. Requiem mass will be sung by the Rev. Lawrence Daly, pastor at St. Patrick's church in West Lake Forest, uncle of Coffey.

Survivors include the widow; two daughters, Mrs. Rosemary Bordenet and Mrs. Catharine Russell, and three sisters, Mrs. Patrick Daly, Mrs. Loretta Chrisman, and Mrs. Margaret Dritsch. Coffey, once matchmaker at the Chicago Athletic association, Illinois Athletic club, Elks club, and Lake Shore Athletic club, was a member of Father Perez council, Knights of Columbus.

Illini Switch Dates in Two Football Games of 1942

Champaign, Ill., Dec. 11 [Special].—Dates of the first two football games in the University of Illinois stadium in 1942 have been switched, Director Doug Mills announces. University of South Dakota will play on Sept. 26 instead of Oct. 3. Butler will appear Oct. 3. instead of Sept. 26.

Perhaps.

I think sometimes it takes a war,
With all its pain and sorrow,
To make a nation lift its eyes
Toward a better morrow.

I think sometimes it takes the sound
Of guns above a hill
To make a city know there is
A sanctuary, still.

Perhaps it takes the bombing planes,
The fire, and the sword
To make a boastful people bow,
Humbly, before their Lord.

Perhaps it takes the grief and tears,
To cleanse our hearts of lust and hate
And lift us up to God.

EXPORTERS SEEK NEW OUTLETS IN SOUTH AMERICA

Advised to Forget First War's Experiences.

Chicago exporters and importers, their activities stalemated by war, were told yesterday to disregard foreign trade experiences of the last war in planning for this one and then agreed they should "sit tight" for the present and wait for "adjustment of things."

Their discussions, in round table forum, were at a luncheon meeting of the foreign trade division of the Chicago Association of Commerce in the Hotel Sherman.

"We must forget what happened in the World war because conditions are entirely different," John C. Hill, secretary of the Chicago Association of Credit Men, asserted.

Recalls Past Mistakes.

"In this war the government will tell us what we can do, more than in the last. We must remember that it was during and immediately following the last war that this nation made its greatest mistakes in the field of foreign trade."

Similar views were expressed by Charles I. Horowitz, export manager of the Gibson Electric Refrigerator corporation, M. C. Hesse of the Continental-Illinois National Bank and Trust company, who presided, and others. They expressed confidence "there always will be a way to carry on some foreign trade."

The exporters devoted a major part of their discussions to trade with Latin America, which more than before must provide their markets.

Credit Little Curtailed.

Only one of the exporters said he contemplated a further curtailment of credit in Latin America as a result of the new war developments, and only four reported they had curtailed credit in the last six months.

"Latin America is in better condition than at any time in 10 years," Horowitz said. "South American countries are exporting more to the United States than in recent years and are entitled to more credit and other considerations. This situation gives United States exporters and importers a chance to make a real contribution to hemisphere economic defense."

Investment Firm Plans 10 Million Debenture Issue

American Investment company of Illinois disclosed yesterday from its St. Louis headquarters that it proposes to issue 10 million dollars in 2¾ per cent 10 year debentures. It was reported the debentures would be sold to an institution and not publicly distributed. Proceeds would be used for general corporate purposes, including reduction of bank loans.

SINCE REORGANIZATION.

Has the National Radiator company showed profits since the reorganization of a couple of years ago? What were the general details of the reorganization and what is the capitalization of the present company?—W. S.

Answer: The National Radiator company, successor to the National Radiator corporation in 1939 thru reorganization, has been operating profitably. The predecessor corporation had losses every year from its organization in 1932. Comparative results for recent years follow [1940 and 1941 are fiscal years ended March 31 and other years are for predecessor corporation and end Dec. 31]:

	Net sales.	Net income.	Per com. share.
1938	3,550,061	*229,422	......
1937	5,735,893	*810,345	......

*Loss.

The reorganization, which became effective June 1, 1939, gave holders of the old company's 5 per cent debentures of 1946 outstanding 32 shares of new common stock for each $1,000 and accrued interest. One share of new common was issued for each $41.90 of general claims and creditors were allowed until Oct. 31, 1944, to participate in the distribution. Nothing was provided for the old common and preferred shares.

Present capitalization is 153,190 shares of $10 par common stock. The shares are traded on the Pittsburgh Stock exchange. Dividends totaled 40 cents a share in 1940 and 20 cents has been paid so far this year.

National Radiator, a large manufacturer of cast iron steam and hot water radiators and boilers, had total assets of $5,592,000 at the end of the 1941 fiscal year. Net working capital was $1,906,000. Plants are in Johnstown, New Castle, and Lebanon, Pa., and Trenton, N. J. Offices are in Johnstown.

WELL COVERED.

To what extent has the Cleveland Electric Illuminating company covered the charges on its 3s of 1970? Are there any other bond issues outstanding? Are the 3s callable and where are they listed?—E. K. F.

Answer: The Cleveland Electric Illuminating company, which is controled by the North American company, covered its interest charges an average of 4.97 times for the nine years thru 1940, and 6.51 times for the 12 months ended last September. The first mortgage 3 per cent bonds, due in 1970, are outstanding in the amount of $50,000,000 and are the company's only funded debt. The bonds are callable at the option of the company upon 30 days notice at 108¾ per cent of principal if redeemed on or before June 30, 1942, and at decreasing amounts in subsequent years. The 3s are listed on the New York Stock exchange.

BROAD RECOVERY IN BOND MARKET PACED BY RAILS

Federal Agencies Support Government List.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—The bond market today gave its best performance since the outbreak of war with Japan under leadership of rails and industrials.

Completely ignoring war declarations by Italy and Germany, except as these actions affected their obligations and those of axis dominated powers, the main corporate group and United States government bonds felt the effects of selected buying right at the start of trading and gains of small fractions to a point or so were distributed thruout the list at the close.

Rail Bond Index Rises.

The Associated Press average of 20 rails bounded up .8 of a point to 59.1 after sinking to new 1941 low levels in the two preceding sessions.

Transfers were the lowest of any day since the war broke out at $10,031,500, face value, compared with $13,042,350 Wednesday.

Better performers in the corporate groups included many issues battered severely in the three day selling spree which hit the market Monday.

Support Federal Bonds.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Secretary of the Treasury Henry Morgenthau said today that the federal reserve system and the treasury have been buying government bonds in the open market since Tuesday.

He said that the government bond market had generally maintained a favorable condition, "but there were some nervous people and we stepped in to keep an orderly market."

He declined to say how much buying had been done. However, he said, no use was made of the 2 billion dollar stabilization fund.

$11 HOG RETURNS AS FARMERS CUT RUNS TO MARKET

Declaration of war on this country by Germany and Italy, coupled with the fact that many farmers are holding back shipments in the belief that further price advances will result, brought the $11 hog back to the Chicago market yesterday. Top sales at this price showed an advance of 25 cents for the day and were highest since Oct. 13. It was a new 15 year peak for the month of December.

Only 70,000 hogs arrived at the 11 principal packing centers during the day, a decrease of 37,000 head or 34 per cent compared with Thursday of last week, and buyers bid actively for supplies.

Prices for the session averaged 30 cents higher, at $10.65 a hundred pounds, compared with $6.10 a year ago.

The cattle market as a whole stood highest since 1937, and highest for the month of December since 1929. Top steers reached $14.35.

EXPERT VISIONS DYNAMIC BOOM AHEAD FOR CITY

Sees Chicago as Hub of War Industry.

BY HAL FOUST.

Chicago is headed for a big war boom. This is the studied opinion of Prof. William L. Bailey of Northwestern university's department of sociology, an authority on city planning for the last 25 years.

Prof. W. L. Bailey.

The professor foresees Chicago rising from a quarter century of comparatively poky progress as dramatically as it rose from the ashes of the great fire of 1871. He bases his conclusion on extensive research for a report he will shortly present to Mayor Kelly.

Sees Great Opportunity.

"The defense program," Prof. Bailey said last night, "is an opportunity for Chicago comparable with the opportunity it capitalized so well more than a generation ago when the railroads were opening new frontiers to the west.

"Chicago, safe from enemy raids, will become the hub of America's defense industries. Beyond the range of sea borne bombers, it is the likely inland site for the national government.

"As sea lanes are closed to trade, Chicago's central location will dominate commerce.

"This generation will see a new, bigger, and better Chicago."

The professor's inventory of Chicago today is depressing. He made public some of his findings yesterday, he said, as a challenge to the community to better itself in preparation for improvements in the early future.

Cites Fall in Ranking.

"During the last 25 years," he said, "Chicago has declined in ranking more than any other great city in the world. Today there is a larger blighted area in Chicago than in any other city. In 1890 she was the model of the world. Today she is 10th among large American cities in ranking based on 189 factors of living desirability.

"Focus of the problem is the great midtown area, an extensive slum. The exodus of population from this area to outlying neighborhoods and suburbs has been the greatest cause of deterioration. It required 70 years to create the extreme centralization of 1910; only 30 years for the extreme decentralization of today.

"Chicago is threatened with loss of population and increasing decline of living conditions. We have an exceptional opportunity to stop this skidding and return to the upward swing in the city's conditions.

Career Still Lies Ahead.

"New York seems to have completed her metropolitan rise. Chicago has her career still largely before her. There is every indication that Chicago is now about to enter upon a period of growth more exceptional than that of the '80s.

IDLE FUNDS OF BANKS DECLINE 20 MILLIONS; BUSINESS LOANS RISE

A 20 million dollar drop in excess reserves [idle lendable funds] of member banks of the federal reserve system in the week ended Wednesday, reducing the total to 3 billion 840 million dollars, was reported yesterday by the federal reserve board.

The board's weekly report showed that the banks added 12 million dollars of treasury bills to their holdings of direct obligations of the government. These bills are the type of treasury financing having the shortest term. The board observed, however, that the 12 million dollar addition was less than the weekly changes frequently reported in peacetime.

Chicago member banks had 691 million dollars of business and agricultural loans outstanding as of Wednesday, 12 millions more than a week earlier. New York banks reported a gain of 24 millions.

The board's report follows:

Canadian Price Control Holds Interest as U. S. Plans Curbs

With the United States moving toward wartime control of prices, renewed interest has developed in the system employed by Canada to regulate prices and wages.

The dominion on Dec. 1 installed a sweeping, overall program to keep prices under strict control. Under this law, housewives and wage earners were assured that their living costs would be stabilized at the price level existing during the period from Sept. 15 thru Oct. 11. Canadian retailers were forbidden under penalty of a $5,000 fine from charging prices higher than the maximum reached in the four week period last fall.

Cost of Services Frozen.

Fresh fruits and vegetables were exempt from the general price ceiling but the order embraced all other goods as well as certain services, such as utilities, laundering, cleaning, tailoring, heating, plumbing, decorating, movie entertaining, and serving of food.

Adjustments under the general price control may be made by the Wartime Price and Trade board, which already has relaxed the restriction on the price charged by farmers on a wide list of dairy, meat, and other food products.

Altho Canada hopes to stabilize living costs at the fall level, a separate order was adopted to guarantee to wage earners a bonus if these costs should increase. Automatic wage increases of this type were provided to compensate for the freezing of wage rates as of Nov. 15.

The cost of living bonus is paid only to Canadian workers who earn less than $3,000 a year and do not rank above foremen. The bonus is calculated on the basis of the living cost index with August, 1939, prices represented by 100.

For each point the index rises, all male employés over 21 years old and women workers earning a basic wage of at least $25 a week will receive a bonus of 25 cents a week. Others will get 1 per cent of the basic weekly wage each week.

LICENSE ALL DEALERS

OTTAWA, Ont., Dec. 11 (AP).—Canadian dealers in all commodities are being granted licenses by the Wartime Price and Trade board and a detailed explanation of this general licensing system will be issued soon, the board announced today.

Donald Gordon, chairman, said the board might find it had sufficient control of all branches of industry to enable it to discontinue the specific form of licensing which was adopted before the price ceiling policy was decided upon.

No definite decision had been made and the general licensing ruling was made to give the board further time to study the facts. The board emphasized that it was not abandoning licensing in principle but was seeking a simpler method of enforcement in order to relieve business of the extra work involved in original regulations.

Business Men Find Prospect Is Not All Dark

BY THOMAS FURLONG.

Alert business men sizing up the prospects for the next six months are not discouraged despite the obvious readjustments that will come as the country moves to a full wartime economy.

Some goods will be scarce. Prices already reflect the shortages in certain lines in which heavy government buying has absorbed a large part of available supplies. More than a third of the woolen fabrics being produced are going to the government. The government is also taking 15 to 20 per cent of the cotton fabrics. In neither case is there a shortage of the basic raw material, but civilian demands will wait until available machines and skilled workmen are able to fill the government's requirements.

Prices to Rise More.

Retail prices will be higher. Advances up to 50 per cent have already occurred in certain types of merchandise since the war started in Europe. In others the increases amount to only 15 per cent. The price level next year will be higher than in 1941 even tho the government adopts stringent prices fixing legislation.

Fewer automobiles will be sold as factory production is curtailed further. Automobile owners, however, will be in the market for more parts as they seek to maintain their cars in top condition. The supply of many other articles will be greatly diminished or entirely unavailable, particularly those which require metals on which government needs have a prior lien.

Civilians Still Must Live.

Recognizing the inevitable adjustments, merchandisers do not lose sight of the fact that there will be a civilian population of more than 120 million people whose living needs must be supplied.

The income of a large part of the population will be greater than it has been for several years. After allowing for taxes and savings that will flow into war bonds, there will still be greater purchasing power in the hands of the great mass of the people.

Merchandisers are shaping their selling programs with this in mind.

PLAN NEW ACTION TO EXTEND AIR ROUTE OF UNITED

United Air Lines announced yesterday it has notified the Civil Aeronautics board of its intention to file formal application for permission to extend its coast to coast route thru Chicago to Hartford, Conn., and Boston, Mass., via Newark, N. J., and New York, thus giving Chicago additional air connections with New England.

The air line in 1939 filed an application with the board for a Boston-Hartford-Cleveland route to give New England its first direct east-west transcontinental service, but no report has been received from the board's examiner who recently heard testimony on that application. The company said that the application has had the support of shippers and civic organizations.

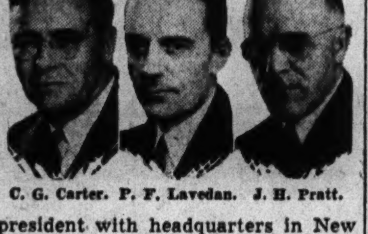
THREE HIGH OFFICIALS OF LIQUID CARBONIC MOVE UP IN COMPANY

Promotion of three executives of Liquid Carbonic corporation, 3100 South Kedzie avenue, was announced yesterday by Chairman W. K. McIntosh, who said the move is to bring younger men into more responsible positions and help meet demands of the company's record breaking business volume. The appointments were made by the board of directors following the company's annual meeting yesterday.

C. G. Carter, president, becomes chairman of the executive committee, a new position. P. F. Lavedan, vice president with headquarters in New York, becomes president, but will continue to make his headquarters in New York for the present. J. H. Pratt, vice president with headquarters in Chicago, becomes executive vice president, a new position. All have been with the company more than 20 years.



C. G. Carter. P. F. Lavedan. J. H. Pratt.

INSULL TESTIFIES AT BANKRUPTCY HEARING IN EAST

Wilmington, Del., Dec. 11 (AP).—Samuel Insull Jr., Chicago insurance executive, outlined at a bankruptcy hearing of the Midland United company today the development of the vast utility empire headed by his late father.

Midland United and its subsidiary, Midland Utilities, were major links in the chain. Insull had succeeded his father as president of the parent company in 1926. The United company is asking that it be allowed to put stockholders' claims ahead of 6 million dollars claimed by creditors.

Special Master Daniel O. Hastings said the proceedings would be resumed tomorrow, with Insull again on the stand.

CALL EMERGENCY JOB MEETING AT RUBBER CENTER

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Sidney Hillman, associate director of the Office of Production Management, today called an emergency conference in Akron, O., tomorrow to consider unemployment problems resulting from the government order freezing automobile tire production.

The Office of Price Administration approved an increase of 3 cents a barrel in the price of north and north central Texas crude oil, but announced the action "should not be construed as indicative of OPA policy on the general crude oil price question."

The OPA said it would act soon to establish price control over scrap and secondary lead.

STOCKS SWEEP HIGHER DESPITE SPREAD OF WAR

Reverse 3 Day Fall as Volume Dips.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—The stock market overrode new war declarations today with a forward swing that lifted favorites 1 to more than 3 points.

The list displayed recovery tendencies at the start as Germany and Italy broadcast their formal intentions of battling the United States in company with Japan. Dealings and prices faltered after a fast getaway but bidding was resumed in the final hour. A little profit taking shaved extreme advances at the close but many leaders emerged at or near the day's top. The afternoon bulge came in the wake of the war vote of congress against the axis powers.

First Upturn This Week.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks ended with a net gain of .5 of a point at 37.1, the first upturn after three declining sessions. Transfers amounted to 1,400,890 shares compared with 2,088,320 the day before. It was the first day this week in which the turnover fell under the 2 million mark.

Propping sentiment, brokers said, was the strong defense of the Philippines, announcement Yankee air bombers had sunk a Japanese battleship, and the general belief in the financial sector the recent decline of the market to a new low since the spring of 1938 called for at least a technical rally.

Steels, coppers, aircrafts, and specialties were bought as thoughts of soaring war industries spread thruout speculative circles.

Rails Improve Some.

Rails managed to hold modest improvement despite a more than seasonal recession in last week's freight loadings. Propping the carriers were hopes of increased freight and passenger rates. Motors were confronted with further production curtailment of new passenger cars.

American Telephone dipped to a new 1941 low, then turned around and ran up briskly and ended with a net gain of 3 points.

General Motors was lower, along with Montgomery Ward and Patino Mines. Rubbers and utilities were narrow.

CHICAGO LIST FIRMS.

Trading on the Chicago Stock exchange steadied yesterday, with 72 issues registering gains, 36 losses, and 35 closing unchanged. Among the most heavily traded stocks, Chicago corporation was unchanged at ⅝, Commonwealth Edison lost ⅛ at 20¼, Armour & Co. advanced ⅜ at 3⅛, and Libby, McNeill & Libby gained ½ at 4½. Dealings dropped to 55,000 shares from 66,000 Wednesday.

LONDON MARKET STEADIES

LONDON, Dec. 11 (AP).—The stock market steadied today but the improvement was limited by concern over the situation in the far east. British funds closed slightly above yesterday's final levels. South American bonds were lower.

Industrial sections showing better action included brewery and tobacco shares. Home rails held gains recorded earlier and oils and kaffirs were steady. Diamond and rubber shares lost ground.

SEC ASKS SUSPENSION OF ALL TRADE IN AXIS NATIONS' SECURITIES

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—The Securities and Exchange commission today advised stock and bond exchanges and securities dealers and brokers thruout the nation to stop handling all transactions in Japanese, German, and Italian bonds or other securities.

Officials said the "advice" probably would be extended immediately to securities of other countries dominated by axis powers, with the exception of those occupied countries which have exiled governments supporting the battle against the axis.

Suspended in N. Y.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—The New York Stock exchange announced tonight it has definitely suspended dealings in all German, Japanese, and Italian securities, including those issued by political subdivisions and corporations of these countries.

The exchange had temporarily suspended dealings in Japanese issues Monday morning, and in German and Italian loans at the opening this morning.

START AT ONCE ON 24 HOUR DAY, HILLMAN URGES

Revise Scales Later, He Asks Unions.

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—Sidney Hillman asked the American Federation of Labor and the Congress of Industrial Organizations today to introduce immediately seven day, 168 hour week operation in defense industries and make adjustments later in existing contracts and wage scales.

"The outbreak of war makes it imperative that American defense industries increase their production to the maximum as fast as that is humanly possible," the associate director of the Office of Production Management said in letters to William Green, AFL president, and Philip Murray, head of the CIO.

Seeks to Avoid Delay.

"The President has asked that all defense plants be put into continuous operation, seven days per week, 24 hours per day," Hillman continued. "Most of these plants are now covered by collective bargaining agreements, with regulations governing work assignments.

"To prevent delay, I ask that the AFL and the CIO urge their constituent unions to short cut the usual procedure. I suggest that continuous operation be introduced immediately and that adjustments required under trade union agreement be negotiated while the changeover is being made, or after it is completed."

Copper Companies Act.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Two of the country's largest copper mining companies—Anaconda and Phelps Dodge—announced today their mines would go on a seven day weekly basis at once in fulfilment of the government's desire to speed up production of vital metals. The mines have been operating six days a week. At Miami, Ariz., the Miami Copper company, another major producer, announced operation on a 24 hour day, seven day week basis.

Ask Companies to Agree.

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—The United Automobile Workers union [CIO] today telegraphed the presidents of the General Motors and Chrysler corporations a request that their defense plants be placed immediately on a 24 hour day, seven day week schedule.

The telegrams, authorized by the union's international executive board, suggested that union-management negotiations be started at once.

Calls Savings in Insurance an Aid to War

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—O. J. Arnold, president of Northwestern National Life Insurance company, Minneapolis, said today that the nation's life insurance companies in the last year "have channeled back to the government, thru bond investments, sufficient of the people's savings to buy 11,000 pursuit planes or 20,000 medium tanks, or sufficient to build for our navy new battleships outnumbering those in our present fleet."

O. J. Arnold.

He spoke as chairman, opening the 35th annual convention of the Association of Life Insurance Presidents.

At the outset of the meeting the delegates adopted and sent to President Roosevelt a resolution pledging their "utmost loyalty and energetic support."

Arnold described life insurance as one of the best guards against inflation, and cautioned against insurance companies yielding to pressure to invest in common stocks.

Charles F. Hobbs, president of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, told the convention he was opposed to insurance companies investing in common stocks.

Hobbs, who is commissioner of insurance of Kansas, said that market values, or values based principally upon market values, if they include an element of speculation, cannot be a safe measure of the financial structure of a life insurance company during a period of inflation.

CICERO CONLON PLANT OFFERED TO GOVERNMENT

The Conlon corporation, makers of ironers and washing machines, yesterday offered its 100,000 square foot plant in Cicero, with equipment and other assets valued at one million dollars to the government for conversion to military purposes.

B. J. Hank, president, and E. B. Carson, board chairman, said they had submitted the property for direct government operation. The company recently was forced to reduce its operations about 50 per cent by an Office of Production Management curtailment order. Its working force dropped from 240 to 150.

Tobacco Companies Fined and Denied a New Trial

Lexington, Ky., Dec. 11 (AP).—The nation's "big three" tobacco companies—Reynolds, Liggett & Myers, and American—and 13 officials, were denied a new trial on price fixing and monopoly convictions in United States District court today and fines of $15,000 each were assessed.

NATION SEEKS SHARE OF 35 MILLION PAY CHECKS FOR DEFENSE

Washington, D. C., Dec. 11 (AP).—The treasury formally announced today its intention to ask at least 35 million Americans to invest a portion of each pay check in defense savings bonds and stamps.

Harold Graves, in charge of the program, observed that the 35 million persons work in industry and commerce, and that the "first objective will be to concentrate on those employed by 16,000 concerns which employ about 60 per cent of this number."

He explained that all employers would be asked "to adopt pay roll savings plans to make it easier and more convenient for their employés to invest in defense."

BIG DEMAND IN CHICAGO.

Defense savings bonds and stamps were in such heavy demand in the Chicago area yesterday that some of the outlying banks and suburban postoffices ran out of stamps. The Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reported that shipments of blank bonds to issuing agencies in the 7th reserve district had jumped to a volume three times the daily average of recent weeks. County Treasurer John Toman announced that cashier's cages in collection offices of the county building will sell defense stamps.

Continental Is Expected to Boost Surplus Again

Directors of the Continental-Illinois National Bank and Trust company will hold their regular meeting today. They are expected to vote an addition to the bank's surplus, the seventh since 1938.

'Sell or Swap' Market Opens to Small Firms

The "sell or swap" market of the Illinois division of the National Small Business Men's association yesterday started functioning with the mailing of its first catalog of materials and equipment offered for sale or exchange.

The market, or materials clearing house, was developed to aid small business enterprises in obtaining materials with which to remain in business.

Explains Market's Aim.

Frederick A. Virkus, president of the state group, explained that many plants have accumulated obsolete materials and equipment which other small companies need sorely and for which there is no established market.

The clearing house operates a mail order business, taking a fee of 10 per cent from the seller's price, but itself neither buys nor sells, Virkus said. The catalog circulated thruout the state contained more than 200 items described in detail.

Many Items Are Listed.

Among them were bolts, screws, nuts, welding rods, sanding disks, copper tubing, mufflers, hose clamps, wire screens, rivets, tool grinders, lathes, steam engines, electric motors, pipe cutters, and spot welders. Some of the prospective sellers listed asking prices, altho usually no price was shown and bids were invited.

The clearing house refers the prospective buyers to the owner who makes his own arrangements for inspection of the material and the final sale or exchange.

America Has a Job to Do

And Here's How Every Man, Woman, and Child Can Help

To win the war that has been forced on her, America must have more planes, ships, tanks, guns, more supplies of every kind. They must be kept coming from our mines, factories, and shipyards in an endless, broadening stream.

To pay for this equipment, the Government must have money and more money. It is in this way that citizens in every walk of life can help. By buying United States Defense Savings Bonds and Stamps, you will be lending your money to help speed the nation's war effort.

You can buy Defense Bonds outright for as little as $18.75, or if this is not convenient you can buy Defense Savings Stamps in varying denominations until you have accumulated enough to buy a Bond. The accompanying table shows the prices. We shall be glad to give you full details and to fill your orders for Defense Bonds and Stamps.

WIEBOLDT TO PAY $1 ON COMMON, FIRST IN A YEAR

Wrigley, Liquid Carbonic Declare Extras.

Directors of Wieboldt Stores, Inc., yesterday declared a special dividend of $1 a share on common stock, the first since 75 cents was paid a year ago. The company also authorized regular quarterly dividends on two classes of preferred stock.

The William Wrigley Jr. company authorized an extra dividend of 50 cents, bringing the year's total to $4 a share the same as in 1940.

Liquid Carbonic corporation declared a 25 cent extra along with the regular quarterly payment of the same amount. United Drill and Tool corporation, voted a special of 10 cents.

Initial Steel Dividend.

Continental Roll and Steel Foundry company, East Chicago, Ind., declared a dividend of 50 cents on the common stock, the first on the issue since organization of the present company in 1930.

Other extras included $1 by Colgate-Palmolive-Peet company, Jersey City, N. J.; 25 cents by Reliable Stores corporation, Baltimore, Md., and 10 cents by the Bank of the Manhattan company, New York.

Increased payments included 80 cents by the Cleveland Graphite Bronze company, 50 cents by the Phillips Packing company, Cambridge, Md.; and $1 by the Grumman Aircraft Engineering corporation, Bethpage, N. Y.

EGGS UP 2 CENTS AS PRICE LIMITS ARE REMOVED

The sharpest advance of the year in egg futures carried prices up as much as 2 cents a dozen yesterday on the Chicago Mercantile exchange to new peaks since 1929. Each 1 cent change in egg futures increases or lowers the value of a futures contract by $120.

The maximum gain was recorded at the outset as emergency price curbs confining the market since Monday were removed. Impatient shorts seeking to stop their losses in the markets snapped up initial offerings of the December deliveries in which trading is limited to liquidation on the order of the Commodity Exchange administration.

Wholesale egg prices made new gains of ½ to 1 cent a dozen with the market now up 3½ cents since Saturday. Best grade eggs are selling at wholesale around 37 cents a dozen.

Butter futures closed unchanged to ⅛ cent a pound lower in a dull trade. Wholesale prices were unchanged to ¼ cent lower, with highest grade butter selling for around 35½ cents a pound.

Studebaker's November Deliveries Fall to 6,959

Last month's retail deliveries of the Studebaker corporation totaled 6,959 cars and trucks, compared with 8,314 in November, 1940, the company reported yesterday. Deliveries for the first 11 months totaled 113,476 units, against 96,894 in the corresponding period last year.

COTTON FUTURES LEAD ADVANCE IN COMMODITIES

Henderson Sets Several New Price Ceilings.

Commodity futures prices bounded forward yesterday from recently depressed levels, uninterrupted by the day's war developments. Cotton showed the largest gains, closing $1.45 to $1.80 a bale higher at New York. Cottonseed oil was up 0.18 to 0.22 cent in sympathy with related staples.

At Washington, D. C., Price Administrator Leon Henderson announced temporary price ceilings on raw coffee, cocoa, pepper, and cocoa butter, to cushion the impact of the war on imported food prices. He said that additional ceilings will be placed on other "sensitive" imported foods.

According to Henderson ceilings on the specified staples must not exceed prices prevailing at the close of business Dec. 8. All contracts made before today may be carried out at the contract price, it was said.

Expected to Be Replaced.

Henderson said there was no shortage or threatened shortage of the commodities effected by ceiling prices. Coffee, the bulk of which comes from South America, is available in quantities limited only by shipping facilities. He said the supply of cocoa is the largest in the country's history and sufficient for 11 months.

It was expected that the new ceilings would be superseded by revised price schedules when investigations under way have been completed.

It was announced at New York that trading in coffee futures, suspended Tuesday to prevent undue speculation, will be resumed today, with closing prices of Dec. 8 established as the maximum at which futures can be traded.

World sugar futures were up 0.01 to 0.03 cent a pound, and cocoa was 0.01 to 0.02 cent a pound higher. Wool was irregular.

WHEAT CLIMBS TO 4 YEAR HIGH; BEANS UP LIMIT

Report of Delay in Price Bill Spurs Rise.

BY PHILIP WARDEN.

Wheat advanced nearly 5 cents yesterday in both the cash and futures markets to around $1.28 to $1.30 a bushel, the highest levels in more than four years. Soy beans jumped six cents a bushel, the limit permitted in one day, making a net gain of 12 cents for the week as war emergency price ceilings were lifted. All grains and lard advanced.

It wasn't the news that the United States would fight both Germany and Italy but a statement made in Washington by Sen. Charles L. McNary [R., Ore.], that sent wheat prices soaring. The senate minority leader declared that no price control legislation would be considered before next January—legislation that has tended to restrict speculation in the grain markets for several months.

Wheat Tops September Peak.

Wheat prices started climbing as McNary's statement came off the tickers. Late profit taking trimmed gains to 2⅞ to 3½ cents a bushel. The peak prices paid for this year's wheat crop in September were extended more than 2½ cents a bushel on some contracts, grain selling for delivery next May at $1.29⅞ as the session ended.

Corn futures gain 1 to 1½ cents a bsuhel; oats, 1 to 1⅛ cents; rye, 2⅛ to 2½ cents, and lard, 22 to 27 cents per hundredweight above the close of the preceding day.

Sale of No. 3 mixed wheat at $1.28 a bushel in the cash market was the most paid for the bread grain in Chicago since 1937. At this price wheat would return the farmer 13 cents more than he could obtain from the government in the form of a loan. In either case he would have to deduct about 7 cents a bushel for storage and other charges. In St. Louis wheat sold for 16 cents over the loan rate.

Oats at 4 Year Peak.

Oats also sold at a four year top, reaching 57¾ cents a bushel in cash sales. The extent of the eastern demand for grain plus the lateness of the soy bean and corn harvest this year were disclosed in the Association of American Railroads' report on the number of cars of grain carried by the nation's railroads last week.

The association said the railroads hauled 42,754 cars of grain, or 1,852 cars more than they had in the preceding week and 7,289 cars more than in the corresponding week last year.

STANDARD PARTS GROUP MEETS IN CHICAGO MONDAY

A clearing house for information on production and distribution problems will be provided for more than 1,000 manufacturers, wholesalers, and jobbers affiliated with the National Standard Parts association, which opens a four day session Monday in the Hotel Sherman.

C. D. McKim, executive vice president, announced that the organization's plan for dedicating its annual meeting to armament needs was decided upon after the cancellation of the Automotive Service Industries show, generally held at Chicago under the joint auspices of the NSPA and two other national automotive organizations.

ADS HELD VITAL IN WAR ECONOMY, CIVILIAN MORALE

Havens Tells Important Role of Newspapers.

In these critical times advertising is necessary to help maintain the national economy and boost civilian morale, V. C. Havens, director of advertising and sales promotion for the Oldsmobile division of General Motors corporation, declared yesterday at the annual convention of the advertising department of THE CHICAGO TRIBUNE.

Havens, speaking in the main studio of W-G-N, said advertising undoubtedly will have to shift with the rapidly changing conditions.

As Necessary As Ever.

"For any advertiser doing any business at all advertising will be as necessary as it ever was in the past," he said. "Advertisers should go into the new year with an aggressive spirit. They should present information about their product in such a way as will enable them to come out of the emergency in better position than they entered it.

"The automobile industry places 62 per cent of its advertising appropriation in newspapers. My own company has placed 73 per cent in 3,500 papers.

Dealers Share Views.

"We have arrived at this position only after a great deal of experimentation. Our dealers, too, have demanded that we use newspapers.

"Never before have newspapers been in so advantageous a position from the point of view of national advertisers. With conditions in such a state of flux we want to be in as flexible a position as possible and newspapers give us that flexibility for they can meet our needs at a moment's notice."

Gains in American Telephone and Florsheim Profits Shown

American Telephone and Telegraph company yesterday reported small increases in net income for October and the 10 months ended with October. Florsheim Shoe company, Chicago, issued its annual statement for the year ended Oct. 31, disclosing a rise in profit and full capacity operations at all its factories.

American Telephone's net income for October, covering operating activities only, was $1,293,302, against $1,255,621 in the 1940 month. The 10 month profit was $144,465,045, against $136,617,180. These figures include dividends received thru September.

Florsheim Net $1,238,739.

Florsheim Shoe reported a profit of $1,238,739, equal to $3.10 a share on the class A common stock and $1.55 a share on the class B, compared with $1,098,231, or $2.74 a share on the class A and $1.37 on the class B in the preceding year.

Irving S. Florsheim, president, told the stockholders that the company's business is "extremely active and well ahead of a year ago." He termed the future "very uncertain" in spite of the rush of business.

Western Union Telegraph company reported for October profit of $509,645, against $500,440 in the 1940 month. For the 10 months ended Oct. 31, net income was up sharply at $5,835,837, from $2,719,276 in the corresponding period a year earlier.

RAIL FREIGHT TRAFFIC DECLINES MORE THAN SEASONALLY IN WEEK

Declining more than seasonally expected, revenue freight loadings by railroads during the week ended Dec. 6 dropped to 833,375 cars, 32,814 cars less than the preceding week's total, the Association of American Railroads reported yesterday. This was a decline of 3.8 per cent.

Total loadings, however, were the largest for any corresponding week since 1929. Shipments increased 94,862 cars, or 12.8 per cent over the same 1940 week. Only grain and less than carlot merchandise showed gains over the preceding week.

AMERICAN FARM BUREAU PLEDGES ALL AID FOR WAR

Asks Machinery to Offset Loss of Man Power.

The American Farm Bureau federatation, with more than two million members, yesterday pledged its full support in the country's struggle against Japan and her axis partners.

Closing its 23d annual convention in the Hotel Sherman, the federation's delegates also adopted resolutions calling upon government officials to insure the farmer an uninterupted flow of spare parts and new equipment which is necessary for agriculture to maintain production in the face of a farm labor shortage.

Cites Drain on Farm Labor.

"The nation cannot safely ignore the fact that the greatly reduced supply of experienced farm labor will require a larger quantity of labor saving devices, and that as a result of the long period of low farm income much machinery and equipment have become obsolete and must be replaced or repaired," the resolution declared.

Other resolutions adopted included:

Enactment of legislation establishing maximum prices for commodities on a selective basis to the extent necessary to prevent inflationary price increases and authorizing control of inflationary wages.

Reëlect O'Neil President.

A halt in the growing tendency of the administration to include agriculture in the enforcement of wage hour and labor legislation in such a way as to interfere with production.

Expansion of anti-trust laws to include any organized group which exercises monopolistic practices of any nature.

The federation reëlected Edward A. O'Neal, Florence, Ala., as its president for another two year term. Earl C. Smith, vice president, also was reëlected for a two year term.

Material Service Buys Tract in Peterson District

The Material Service corporation yesterday bought for $13,000 the last remaining tract of land in the Peterson industrial district, containing 255,008 square feet, on the west side of North Pulaski road, 860 feet south of Peterson avenue. Henry Crown, chairman of the board, said an office building and one story warehouse, costing about $50,000, will be built for occupancy next spring.

STORE SALES UP 27% FOR WEEK; TOP 1940 BY 5%

Under the stimulus of Christmas buying, department store sales last week in the 7th [Chicago] federal reserve district were 25 per cent larger than in the preceding week, the Federal Reserve Bank of Chicago reported yesterday. But the gain over a year ago was only 5 per cent, the smallest year to year margin for seven weeks.

Chicago sales were 27 per cent larger than in the preceding week and 4 per cent larger than in the corresponding week a year ago. For the four weeks ended Saturday, as compared with the corresponding four weeks last year, district sales were up 9 per cent and Chicago sales 6 per cent.

For the nation as a whole sales last week averaged 9 per cent larger than a year ago, the federal reserve board reported.

Bank Clearings Decline, but Top 1940 Week by 20%

New York, Dec. 11 (AP).—Bank clearings in 23 large cities in the week ended Wednesday amounted to $6,899,407,000, Dun & Bradstreet reported today. This was a gain of 19.8 per cent over the comparable week a year ago, but a shade under the preceding week. Chicago clearings totaled $392,100,000, an increase of 21.5 per cent over last year.

WAR

What Does It Mean to You?

Do you realize that hundreds of thousands of young men must fight in ships, on land and in the air to defeat the enemy now attacking us?

Do you realize that other hundreds of thousands of young men must work on a 24 hour per week basis to supply our fighting forces?

During the past 90 days this school of actual shop training has placed more than 400 graduates in good paying jobs with aircraft plants from coast to coast.

If you are over 18 years of age, mechanically inclined, have a grammar school education, and in good health, we can train you at low cost in 8 short weeks for these splendid jobs.

Answer to No. 6 of Dec. 11.

The flame consumes the oxygen in bottle "A," thus producing a partial vacuum, and the air pressure outside then uniformly squeezes the egg into the bottle. To remove egg from bottle "B," turn bottle upside down and blow vigorously into it.

CASH FOR Winter Bills
Don't let winter expenses get you head over heels in debt. Ask the Commonwealth manager to help you. He will show you how to arrange small, convenient payments on any bills you now owe. He will also go over, with you, the numerous extra items of expense that are associated with the winter season and show you how to pay for those things with the very least effort and inconvenience. By providing you with the cash to buy what you need now, he can protect you against rising prices and thus save you much more than the cost of the loan. Why not stop in today, or better yet, phone for complete details.

THE DOMAIN OF THE ENEMY
